Fire destroyed the home of Mr and Mrs. Theodore Anderson Friday evening. Cause of the fire is not definitely known. Mrs. Anderson and children were home alone at the time as Mr Anderson was at the Gladen Timber camp where he is employed. Mrs. Anderson called for help over the telephone but not being used to the recently installed dial system it took her longer to make the call and also due to fright. Several neighbors came with fire extinguishers, etc. but were unable to saved the other house. Every department came out and so saver the other house. Everything was destroyed except some clothing and bedding that they were able to get out. They have another building that was moved in last summer. Neighbors are helping them get it ready for occupancy. The family will stay with the Harland Lees, parents of Mrs. Anderson.

Arnie Finley was fitted with glasses by Dr. Gilbert in Grygla Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Finley visited with friends and relatives in Strathcona over the weekend.

First Trans-U. S. Phone Call Made Forty Years Ago

This week marked the 40th anniversary of the first transcontinental long distance call, on January 25, 1915.

It was fitting enough that the inventor of the telephone, Alexander Graham Bell, should be at one end of the line for that initial conversation — and that his one-time assistant, Thomas A. Watson, should be at the other. For the very first words ever uttered over the telephone were from Bell to Watson back in 1876. The inventor spoke into the instrument he had just built and Watson, in a nearby room, heard his voice.

It was not until 1892 that the westward march of the telephone as an instrument for long distance calls was really started. That year New York was linked with Chicago. By 1897 the line had been extended across Illinois and Iowa and was terminated at Omaha.

The midwest remained the end of the line for a number of years. It was 1911 before Denver was reached and not until 1913 that the line was stretched to Salt Lake City.

THE MINNESOTA STORY

Prepared by the

Minnesota Historical Society

OLDEST SETTLEMENT

The busiest place in what is now Minnesota, at the earliest date, was Grand Portage on Lake Superior. Long before Pierre Parrant has established his drinking places at "Pig's Eye", now St. Paul, or before the first settlement at the Falls of St. Anthony, Grand Portage was a hustling, bustling center of trade.

The early historians of the Lake Superior area record that Grand Portage was a well established place when the American Declaration of Independence was signed. Years before 1800 there were stores with then stylish clothes for men and women, drinking and eating places and police to see that frontier life was not too rough.

In the middle of the summer as many as fifteen hundred people, men and women, gathered at the great trading post. There was a banquet hall some sixty feet long which echoed to the lusty stories and songs of a very lusty day. Outside in the harbor would be a hundred large and two hundred small canoes.

Many of those who were at Grand Portage in July came there only once a year. They came with furs taken as far away as Saskatchewan and the Peace river country. They had battled the wilderness for month after month of snow, cold, rain and mosquitoes. They had worked to the limits of human strength under great packs on their backs or against strong waters in their canoes. They came to Grand Portage to settle their accounts, collect their pay, live riotously with their friends and then get ready to go again into the land of high waves and tough portages.

THE SLAVERY ISSUE

Minnesota people strongly disliked slavery. That was shown by the offer of the first regiment to be proferred by any state for the Civil War. It was shown by the very great proportion of the population which later entered the army of the North.

In the years preceding the war sentiment on slavery was divided. The democrats of the state supported the cause of the southern states. The republicans opposed it. But there were incidents which showed that the sentiment so obvious in the war days was not so definitely formed in the years before the war.

In August, 1860, a negro woman came to the Falls of St. Anthony. She was a slave of a southern master. She was persuaded to run away. Brought into court she was set free.

This action, perhaps because it tampered with that which had been considered a property right, was not well received. A crowd assembled to restore the negro slave to her master. There was agitation that the abolitionists be tarred and feathered. Two things deterred the mob. One was a very heavy rain storm. The other was a shot from the house about which the mobsters had assembled.

It was very soon after this incident that Minnesota was in the war to a degree that caused no further speculation as to the opinions of the people.

BIRTH AND DEATH

Much of Minnesota's early history centered in and about Fort Snelling.

The fort was the first military establishment in the area later to become a territory and a state.

The fort was made ready in 1820. The year before, in August, Colonel Leavenworth and his command left Prairie du Chien with the most imposing force yet seen on the Upper Mississippi. There was a barge for the colonel, 14 batteaux, 98 soldiers and officers, a keel boat filled with goods and presents for the Indians and two large boats filled with stores.

Shortly after the fort was built, Colonel Josiah Snelling was appointed commandant. He gave the fort its name.

A short time after the fort had been built, the daughter of Captain Gooding was married to Lieutenant Green, adjutant of the regiment. This was the first marriage in Minnesota.

A short time after her arrival, Mrs. Snelling, wife of the colonel, gave birth to a daughter. This was the first white child born in the area now known as Minnesota.

The colonel's daughter died at the age of thirteen months. Her death is the first recorded in Minnesota. She was the first person to be buried in the military cemetery at the fort and her remains were later removed from the cemetery and cemented into the walls of the old round tower.

Local Chamber of Commerce Holds Annual Banquet

Pre-school Health Roundups Held in 513 Schools in '54

Parent - teacher associations from 513 Minnesota schools took part in 1954's summer round-up of pre-school children, according to Mrs. Maurice Dahlheim of Hector, state chairman of the pre-school health project. The 1954 figure represents an increase of 82 schools over the 1953 total.

Over 36,000 Minnesota children went to physicians and dentists for health check-ups before entering school last fall, Mrs. Dahlheim reported at a meeting of the state Summer Round-up advisory committee held last week at state Christmas Seal headquarters in St. Paul.

"The new figure, about 13,000 above the 1953 total, indicates that parents are realizing more and more the importance of health to the child's school career," said Dr. Jeannette Baker of Fergus Falls, chairman of the PTA advisory committee.

By urging parents to see that children receive complete physical check-ups before they begin school, the PTA helps make sure that every child will be able to participate fully in school learning and play activities.

He's Just Too Young for Church

"The church was so quiet you could hear a pin drop . . and he started screaming. That aisle was never so long as when I walked out with him. I'm almost too ashamed to go to church next Sunday."

Mrs James is relating yesterday's episode to her best friend. She's the mother of two year old Billy. It was a disquieting experience for Mrs James, and for Billy, too. How could a two year old stay quiet all that time, whether Mother hushed him or not? And when she hauled him out from under the pew where he was investigating those interesting rows of feet, who wouldn't protest?

Parents who wish to attend church, but have children of toddler age, often face problems. Baby sitters are expensive and scarce, especially on Sunday morning. Parents may alternate staying home with the children, but they miss the benefits of worship together.

Some churches provide nursery groups where children play while their parents attend services. Others do not; in this case, many couples may be in the same predicament. Why not pool resources? Perhaps a room in the church can be provided; toys and needed furniture coming from home. Parents might take turns watching the group of children while their friends attend church.

If it does become necessary to take your child to services with you, don't expect the impossible. He can't stay quiet long. Plan to arrive just before the service starts, not early. Provide him with one of his favorite quiet amusements. Sit near the back where it's easy to get out. And be prepared to stay for only part of the service.

Finally, try not to be too embarrassed if your child does start talking aloud. A noted minister once said that youngsters only bothered him during worship when their parents started looking disturbed.

Blue-winged Teal Banded in State Shot in Jamaica

An adult blue-winged teal which was trapped and banded by Minnesota division of game and fish biologists August 5, 1954 in Big Stone County, Minnesota was shot 39 days later by a hunter in Jamaica, British West Indies.

A Mr. Davis Louis, of Hayfield District, Jamaica, returned the band to the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, reporting that he shot the teal in Knights Pond, Clarandon Parish, Jamaica, September 11, 1954. The Fish and Wildlife Service forwarded the information to the Minnesota Division of Game and Fish.

This was not, however, the longest recovery of a Minnesota-banded duck, according to Dr. Arnold B. Erickson, game research supervisor for the Bureau of Game.

"In years past, we have had several recoveries reported from South America," Dr. Erickson said.

Recommended Crop Varieties

A new University of Minnesota Extension folder, No. 22, "Varieties of Farm Crops," available free at my office, is packed full of useful spring seeding information. It contains lists of recommended varieties and their maturity ratings, yields, disease resistance, and hardiness expectations.

In extensive tests, University agronomists decide whether a variety should be recommended in Minnesota. Such tests include trial plots on experiment stations and farms which show yields, maturity ratings and how well plants throw off disease. Laboratory tests are made on small grains, flax, and soybeans to see if they are acceptable for industrial uses.

Varieties not meeting high standards are listed under the "not recommended" heading. Those that have not finished a three-year testing period fall in the "not adequately tested" list. Such varieties may show promising qualities but until testing is finished varieties cannot be judged "recommended" or "not recommended."

Folder 22 also has a map dividing Minnesota into six corn maturing zones. Farmers in the Northern Minnesota Zone may expect an 81-day maturing season while Southern zone farmers get 110 to 116-day a year. For example, recommended Morden 77 with a 113 to 117-day maturing period, is a variety grown best in the Southern zone.

A map of four small grain and flax regions in Minnesota will be useful when selecting varieties of these plants. Folder 22 helps you choose crops and seed best adapted to your zone.

"Varieties of Farm Crops," Folder 22, is available at the county agent's office or from the Bulletin Room, Institute of Agriculture, University of Minnesota, St. Paul 1, Minnesota.

Good Winter Treatment

A good winter ration for breeding ewes can mean profit and success for your year's sheep enterprise. And if you haven't treated sheep for worms since you began winter feeding, don't delay any longer. With internal parasites out of operation, a flock will use their feed much better and unborn lambs will grow and develop into stronger animals, better able to stand rigors of life at lambing time. These suggestions come from W. E. Morris, Extension livestock specialist at the University of Minnesota.

* * *

Calves Need Hay

The best hay you have should go to the calves. That's the opinion of Harold R. Searles, Extension dairy specialist at the University of Minnesota. He points out that plenty of good hay not only grows better calves but saves grain and reduces feed costs. With good hay, no special concentrates are needed after the calf is six months old. Searles recommends a simple grain ration such as the milk herd gets, but not over four pounds grain per day per calf.

* * *

Wintering Beef Cows

Beef cows can be wintered on just about any type of roughage. You probably have alfalfa or sweet clover hay, timothy and clover mixed hay, straw, corn fodder, corn silage or hay crop silage. Well, any one of these will do the feeding job if half the ration is half legume, the other half non-legume. However, old cows or cows nursing calves through the winter may need a little grain in addition to roughage. So says A. L. Harvey, professor of animal husbandry at the University. He's been directing the beef feeding experiments at the Rosemount Agricultural Experiment Station just south of the Twin Cities.

CHATTING with your HOME AGENT

Marge Olson

Mrs. Gust Gustafson of the Hazel community has contributed an idea to the column this week. Mrs. Gustafson uses whole wheat cereal (the cook in 5 minutes kind) instead of whole wheat flour when she makes dark bread. She suggests that you use the cereal for part of all of the whole wheat flour called for in your recipe. Mrs. Gustafson's family really like the different flavor. Why don't you try her suggestion?

Another new idea for bread—Brown and serve rolls to make and freeze. Here is the recipe.

2 cups scalded milk, 3 tablespoons sugar, 2 teaspoons salt, 3 tablespoons fat, 1 package granular or compressed yeast, cup lukewarm water and 5-6 cups all purpose flour. Scald milk. Add sugar, salt and fat. Cool to lukewarm. Dissolve yeast in water. Add to milk. Add enough flour to make soft dough. Knead lightly, place in greased bowl. Brush top with melted butter. Cover. Let rise until double in bulk. Turn dough out on board. Shape into rolls, brush with butter. Let rise until double in size. Bake at 250 degrees for 20 minutes. Remove from pan and cool. Freeze. To use, thaw and bake at 375 degrees until brown. Makes 3 dozen rolls.

Week's Events in Newfolden

By Edith M. Lindberg, Newfolden

Newfolden High School Dedicated

A large group of people gathered at the school house on Monday night for the dedication ceremonies.

The program opened with Newfolden High School band playing several numbers. After this, Pastor Bernston led in prayer, the mixed Octet sang a number and then Supt. Halvorson introduced the platform guests, who were representing the various phases and jobs that were needed to complete the building. Mr. Gudim spoke a few words, and after that, the Triple Trio sang a number. President Sattgast of Bemidji state teachers college was the principal speaker of the evening and gave a very enjoyable and enlightening speech.

He told us we have a good school and mentioned all the facilities that make it a really modern school. He talked about the huge job it is for a community to go about building a school. First, the plan must be voted on, then the job turned over to the school board, for inspection of blue prints and selection of the final ones, then the okay of the state and so on till the last tile was laid and the last bit of plaster cleaned up. Among the things we have that make a modern school are green colored writing boards, air conditioning, fireproof doors between the addition and the old part of the school, the color scheme and the up to the minute equipment of Shop and Home Ec rooms. All of which is a far cry from the little red school house of the not so far bygone days.

After Mr Sattgasts speech, the grades sang two numbers, accompanied by the Autoharp. Then the mixed chorus sang two numbers, ending up with the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" which we thought was very appropriate for this occasion. Rev. Vick gave the benediction after this number.

Recommended Crop Varieties

A new University of Minnesota Extension folder, No. 22, "Varieties of Farm Crops," available free at my office, is packed full of useful spring seeding information. It contains lists of recommended varieties and their maturity ratings, yields, disease resistance, and hardiness expectations.

In extensive tests, University agronomists decide whether a variety should be recommended in Minnesota. Such tests include trial plots on experiment stations and farms which show yields, maturity ratings and how well plants throw off disease. Laboratory tests are made on small grains, flax, and soybeans to see if they are acceptable for industrial uses.

Varieties not meeting high standards are listed under the "not recommended" heading. Those that have not finished a three-year testing period fall in the "not adequately tested" list. Such varieties may show promising qualities but until testing is finished varieties cannot be judged "recommended" or "not recommended."

Folder 22 also has a map dividing Minnesota into six corn maturing zones. Farmers in the Northern Minnesota Zone may expect an 81-day maturing season, while Southern zone farmers get 110 to 116-day a year. For example, recommended Morden 77 with a 113 to 117-day maturing period, is a variety grown best in the Southern zone.

A map of four small grain and flax regions in Minnesota will be useful when selecting varieties of these plants. Folder 22 helps you choose crops and seed best adapted to your zone.

"Varieties of Farm Crops," Folder 22, is available at the county agent's office or from the Bulletin Room, Institute of Agriculture, University of Minnesota, St. Paul 1, Minnesota.

Good Winter Treatment

A good winter ration for breeding ewes can mean profit and success for your year's sheep enterprise. And if you haven't treated sheep for worms since you began winter feeding. don't delay any longer. With internal parasites out of operation, a flock will use their feed much better and unborn lambs will grow and develop into stronger animals, better able to stand rigors of life at lambing time. These suggestions come from W. E. Morris, Extension livestock specialist at the University of Minnesota.

* * *

Calves Need Hay

The best hay you have should go to the calves. That's the opinion of Harold R. Searles, Extension dairy specialist at the University of Minnesota. He points out that plenty of good hay not only grows better calves but saves grain and reduces feed costs. With good hay, no special concentrates are needed after the calf is six months old. Searles recommends a simple grain ration such as the milk herd gets, but not over four pounds grain per day per calf.

* * *

Wintering Beef Cows

Beef cows can be wintered on just about any type of roughage. You probably have alfalfa or sweet clover hay, timothy and clover mixed hay, straw, corn fodder, corn silage or hay crop silage. Well, any one of these will do the feeding job if half the ration is half legume, the other half non-legume. However, old cows or cows nursing calves through the winter may need a little grain in addition to roughage. So says A. L. Harvey, professor of animal husbandry at the University. He's been directing the beef feeding experiments at the Rosemount Agricultural Experiment Station just south of the Twin Cities.

CHATTING with your HOME AGENT

Marge Olson

Mrs. Gust Gustafson of the Hazel community has contributed an idea to the column this week. Mrs. Gustafson uses whole wheat cereal (the cook in 5 minutes kind) instead of whole wheat flour when she makes dark bread. She suggests that you use the cereal for part of all of the whole wheat flour called for in your recipe. Mrs. Gustafson's family really like the different flavor. Why don't you try her suggestion?

Another new idea for bread—Brown and serve rolls to make and freeze. Here is the recipe.

2 cups scalded milk, 3 tablespoons sugar, 2 teaspoons salt, 3 tablespoons fat, 1 package granular or compressed yeast, ¼ cup lukewarm water and 5-6 cups all purpose flour. Scald milk. Add sugar, salt and fat. Cool to lukewarm. Dissolve yeast in water. Add to milk. Add enough flour to make soft dough. Knead lightly, place in greased bowl. Brush top with melted butter. Cover. Let rise until double in bulk. Turn dough out on board. Shape into rolls, brush with butter. Let rise until double in size. Bake at 250 degrees for 20 minutes. Remove from pan and cool. Freeze. To use, thaw and bake at 375 degrees until brown. Makes 3 dozen rolls.

Week's Events in Newfolden

By Edith M. Lindberg, Newfolden

Newfolden High School Dedicated

A large group of people gathered at the school house on Monday night for the dedication ceremonies.

The program opened with Newfolden High School band playing several numbers. After this, Pastor Bernston led in prayer, the mixed Octet sang a number and then Supt. Halvorson introduced the platform guests, who were representing the various phases and jobs that were needed to complete the building. Mr. Gudim spoke a few words, and after that, the Triple Trio sang a number. President Sattgast of Bemidji state teachers college was the principal speaker of he evening and gave a very enjoyable and enlightening speech.

He told us we have a good school and mentioned all the facilities that make it a really modern school. He talked about the huge job it is for a community to go about building a school. First, the plan must be voted on, then the job turned over to the school board, for inspection of blue prints and selection of the final ones, then the okay of the state and so on till the last tile was laid and the last bit of plaster cleaned up. Among the things we have that make a modern school are green colored writing boards, air conditioning, fireproof doors between the addition and the old part of the school, the color scheme and the up to the minute equipment of Shop and Home Ec rooms. All of which is a far cry from the little red school house of the not so far bygone days.

After Mr. Sattgasts speech, the grades sang two numbers, accompanied by the Autoharp. Then the mixed chorus sang two numbers, ending up with the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" which we thought was very appropriate for this occasion. Rev. Vick gave the benediction after this number.

Thieves Tie Pair of Games Last Week-end; Roseau Here Sunday

Exhibiting the finest brand of hockey they have shown this season, Coach Paul Bedard's Thieves, by playing the Grand Forks Redwings to a 2-all tie here on Saturday night, and gaining a 3-all deadlock with the Roseau Cloverleafs at Roseau on Sunday afternoon, the locals picked up a pair of points in the league standings.

The Thieves will be idle until Sunday, Jan. 30th, when the Roseau Cloverleafs will invade the Arena for their second appearance of the year.

Saturday night's 2-all draw with the Grand Forks Redwings was a "heart-breaker" for the locals, for the Wings notched their tying goal on Pat Crough's "hope" shot at the 19:56 mark. Crough's shot, from just inside the blue-line, went between Bill Juuda's legs, and goalie Jack McGill did not glimpse the puck until it whizzed into the south goal.

The game, which was well-played, was scoreless until the 12:28 mark of third period when Wilf Shannon, centered out a pass to Johnny Noah, and Noah beat McGill from the crease. The Thieves evened the score at 18:29 when Chuck Lumsden's hard shot from near the west sideboards was tipped by Church Russell's stick and past goalee Don Dawson.

Seconds later, on a three-man rush, Winder took a pass from Ron Castelane and blasted a shot past Dawson, giving the locals a 2 to 1 lead at 19:01. Pat Crough recovering a loose puck in the Grand Forks' zone, skated down the east sideboards, and as he crossed the Thieves' blue-line he whipped a shot at the Thieves' net, scoring the game-tying goal.

Don Dawson, the Redwings' goalie, played a starry role for Grand Forks, with the former Winnipeg Monarch's netminder being "phenomenal" in making "saves" in the first and second periods.

Playing at Roseau on Sunday afternoon (the locals were scheduled to play at Roseau on Wednesday night, but the Thieves' management shifted dates with the Warroad Lakers) the Thieves played a 3-all tie with the Leafs.

Gordy Simpson, on a rink-length solo rush, opened the game's scoring with a nifty tally at 10:25 of the first period, coming in on goalie McGill and feinting the Thieves' netminder out of position.

Roseau, with Gordy Miller scoring at 1:02 of the second period, moved into a 2 to 0 lead before Swede Lund, taking a centering-out pass from Paul Bedard, beat goalie Don Collins at 2:12. Collins played a spectacular game in the Roseau nets, booting out 12 Thieves' one-goal shots in the first period, and making 17 saves in the second period.

Church Russell brought the game to even terms at the 7:28 mark of the third period when his sharply-angled shot eluded Collins. Roseau, on John Warren's goal from close in, at 7:58, again went into the lead; but a three-man combination, Russell, Larry Winder, and Ron Castelane, produced the equalizer for the Thieves, with Russell triggering the play at 10:44. Minutes later Russell had an open break and skated in on Collins, but the Leafs' goalie out-guessed the locals' center-ice man and blocked the shot.

Prowler Hockey Six Whips Hallock 6 to 0, Loses to Warroad 5-3

Coach Dennis Rolle's hockey Prowlers recorded a win and a loss in the two "road" games played late last week, with the locals defeating Hallock, 6 to 0, in a slam bang game played at Hallock on Thursday night; and losing to coach Jimmy Doyle's Warroad Warriors, 5 to 3, at Warroad on Saturday night.

On Saturday night, Jan. 29th, the Prowlers will meet the region's number one team, Roseau at Roseau, and on Tuesday night, Feb. 1st, the Warroad Warriors will play the Prowlers on the Arena rink.

Playing at Hallock on Thursday night, the Prowlers racked up four goals in the first period, with Joey Poole, Jack Poole, Glenn Carlson, and Sid Vraa banging in the scores to give the locals a 4 to 0 lead.

After a scoreless second period, the Prowlers added a couple of tallies, on Joey Poole's solo rushes, in the third period. The third period's play was enlivened by a "fracas" between the Prowlers' Sid Vraa and Hallock's goalie Gerry Knutson, and before that setto was calmed several other melees had erupted.

Playing the ever-dangerous Warroad Warriors at Warroad on Saturday night, the Prowlers, after holding a 1 to 0 lead at the end of the first period, with Jimmy Hall scoring for the locals, gave up three goals in the second period, and two goals in the third period, to lose by a 5 to 3 score. Joey Poole's two second period goals, scoring at 6:40 and 12:43, twice tied the score, and kept the Prowlers on even terms entering the third period. A pair of goals by Warroad's veteran center-ice player, Roger Christian, in the third period provided the Warriors with their winning and "insurance" goals. The two Christian brothers, Roger and Billy, tallied all of the Warroad goals. Roger in addition to scoring twice in the third period, scored a pair of goals in the second period, and Bill, also a center-ice player, scored his goal in the second period.

Prowler Quint Takes Warren Friday 42-32

East Grand Forks Team to Appear at Local Gym Friday Night, Jan. 28

In a loosely played game at Warren on Friday night, coach Al Adams' Prowlers by a 42 to 32 score, defeated coach Clint Perkins Ponies in a 31st district conference game. On Friday night, Jan. 28th, on the local high school court, the Prowlers will meet one of the district's top-ranked teams when they meet coach Snooks Sullivan's rugged East Grand Forks squad. In a game played at East Grand Forks on Saturday night, the Green Wave nearly pulled a major regional upset when they were edged out by the Bemidji Lumberjacks, 46 to 44, losing on Darrell Erickson's last second field goal.

In the preliminary game played on Friday night, coach Joe Mikonich's class Prowler 'B' team outpointed the Warren 'B' squad, 61 to 36.

Held to a 10 to 7 score at the end of the first period of play in the varsity game on Friday night, the Prowlers, while holding the Ponies scoreless until the 6:15 mark of the second period racked up 11 points to gain a 21 to 7 lead. Leading that 11-point scoring splurge by the Prowlers were Bill Frahm, with a pair of field goals and two free throws, Mark Bjorkman, with a field goal and a free throw, and Ronnie Severson with a field goal. Loren Engelstad's field goal and a pair of free throws by Tom Pinkerton pared the Prowler lead to 21 to 11 at the intermission.

The Prowlers, scoring five points via the free throw line, creased their lead to 26 to 12 in the opening minutes of the third period. With Bjorkman and Frahm each carrying four personal fouls, coach Adams removed two boys from the Prowler lineup. With Engelstad, Russ Melgaard, and Phil Carlson leading the attack, the Ponies came back to trail by ten points, 30 to 20, at the end of the third quarter.

After Evan Jones had opened the fourth period with a free throw, Marlin Fillipi and Melgaard scored Pony field goals. Louis Wedul added a Prowler point, and then followed with a field goal, giving the Prowlers a 33 to 24 lead with 4:30 to play. A pair of quick fielders by Engelstad peeled the Prowler lead to five points with three minutes to play. Frahm scored on a lay-up, and, after Melgaard had tallied on a rebound shot, Frahm hit with a jump shot, and then added a pair of free throws, giving the locals the "cushion" they needed to protect the game.

Frahm, with 17 points, was easily the game's high scorer; Warren's Loren Engelstad, with 8 points on four field goals, was runner-up and paced the Ponies. Russ Melgaard, making his first appearance in the Pony lineup since recovering from a severe knee injury, scored six points for Warren.

Keeping Score with "Huck" Olson

It'll Be Rugged.

Over the past several years the Prowler basketball squad have received their toughest competition, in 31st district play that is, from Snooks Sullivan's East Grand Forks team, and the game here on Friday night promises to continue in that tradition.

The Little Green Wave, fresh from a surprisingly close game with the Bemidji Lumberjacks—the East Siders lost by a 46 to 44 score—will be favored to defeat coach Al Adams locals this week.

Basketball fans can readily recall the rugged game that the Prowlers and Green Wave engaged in last spring when, in the North Dakota U fieldhouse, they met for the district championship. The score was tied at 46-all with less than a minute to go; and with about five or six seconds to play the Prowlers Art Johnson was fouled by East Side's Dean Dallum, and Art dropped in both of the tries to give coach Ralph Skjod's club a 48 to 46 win. That was hectic.

Friday night's tilt, which will be the first of the season between the two clubs, probably won't produce much basketball finesse, but it will give the fans who enjoy plenty of excitement. East Grand Forks, with such sturdy football performers as John Cash, Bob Gilmadahl, Ron Nesbit, and Dean Dallum on the basketball squad, is a "powerhouse." The Prowlers' Chuck Brandvold, Mark Bjorkman, and Bill Frahm aren't the "shrinking violet" type of basketball players either, so you can well imagine the bumps and thumps that will occur when the boys go up to clear the backboards. The officials that work the game will certainly earn their wage.

The Prowlers weren't too impressive in their last start, against Warren on Friday, when they registered a 42 to 32 win. The fact, though, that Brandvold was out of the Prowler lineup had some effect on the play of the locals. Chuck was attending the funeral of a grandparent.

Following the East Grand Forks here on Friday night, the Prowlers, on Tuesday night, Feb. 1st, play the Red Lake Falls Eagles at Red Lake Falls. And that game could be a "toughie," too.

Giants on the Ice.

Next week we shall learn how strong the eighth region is hockey-wise. On Friday night, Feb. 4th, at Roseau, the St. Paul Johnson high school sextet will meet Oscar Alquist's top-ranked Roseau Rams; and on Saturday night, Feb. 5th, the St. Paul Johnson club will move over to Warroad for a game against Jimmy Doyle's Warriors.

Dennis Rolle's hockey Prowlers had a tentative Feb. 4th date with Cliff Thompson's Eveleth Golden Bears here, but the Eveleth officials have not acknowledged the game or confirmed that date. It surely would be a top attraction if Eveleth would come up here for that game, but it is becoming doubtful that the Bears will fulfill their contract.

Having watched high school hockey in the eighth region since its acceptance by the state board as an official sport in 1945, we are of the opinion that this season the region is possessed of the best all-round team balance ever. There have been years, such as last year, when the Prowlers won the state championship, and 1946, when Roseau won the state title, when certain of the region's teams were exceptional, but it's a question if the region has ever had such teams as this year's Roseau, Warroad, Thief River Falls, Williams, Hallock, and Baudette clubs. They are all tough.

And judging the players on an individual basis, where would you see better and more polished high school players than the Prowlers' Joey Poole, than the Warriors' Roger and Billy Christian, than the Roseau Rams' Jack Delmore, Mike Robertson and Dick Johnson, and Williams' young Bruce Gillie.

Miscellany

Jimmy Bronson, goalie with the Thieves in the old States-Dominion hockey league, and a good one, is a referee in the Manitoba Big Six Hockey league. Jimmy played here for a couple of seasons, being with the local club that boasted such stars as George Beverly, Eddie McMillan, Mark McCaffery, Paul Kornek and others.—That's pretty much of a "pro" forward line that takes the ice for the Roseau Cloverleafs these days. Center Gordy Miller, right wing John Warren, and left wing George Stevens are hockey veterans. The trio, who are also members of the Winnipeg Maroons this season, have been playing hockey in England the past several years. Miller, a left-hander, is the possessor of one of the hardest shots in the league, and when he lets fly with that semi-slap shot of his, the gallery fans behind the nets are in jeopardy.—Incidentally, in that 3-all tie played at Roseau on Sunday afternoon, the Cloverleafs used but two defensemen — Gordy Simpson and Fred Dunsmore. They, except for a 2-minute penalty to Simpson, were 60-minute performers.—In a three-game total pins bowling match rolled at Detroit Lakes on Sunday, the local Eagles team, marking up games of 756-722-928 outpointed Ed Carlson's Detroit Lakes Eagles by 26 pins.

Most of Marshall Co. Municipalities Pay Higher Taxes in 1955

Taxes for school districts and townships in Marshall county show a slight decrease while the majority of the county's municipalities show an increase in taxes, says the Warren Sheaf. This was revealed this week in the 1954 tax rate sheet as prepared by J. W. Sands, county treasurer.

Warren's tax is 204.41 mills for the 1954 taxes due and payable in 1955. A year ago the rate was 195.47 while two years ago it was 190.98. The city rate has been upped 11 mills to 41, and the school district rate remains the same to account for the increase.

Middle River had the highest tax rate of any village in the county with a total rate of 311.13 mills as compared to 260.76 a year ago and 224.46 two years ago. The school rate is 142.63, and the village rate is 104.78 mills which jumped up from 61.87 a year ago and 21.9 two years ago.

Strandquist with a rate of 258.88 mills showed a decrease from last year's high of 278.26 and two years ago at 272.12. The school rate is 127.94 and the village rate is 67.22. The school district and village rate have both come down in the past two years.

Newfolden's combined rate was 213.42 this year as compared to 187.49 last year and 186.20 two years ago. Of this year's total 98.71 was for schools and 50.99 for the village. A year ago the school rate was 98.71 while two years ago it was 99.11 mills. The village rate a year ago was 23 mills and two years ago it was 24.88.

Viking showed a total rate of 168.01 mills as compared to 191.80 a year ago. Of the total 69.29 was for schools and 35 for the village. A year ago the school total was 91.02 and the village was 35 mills.

Holt's new rate totaled 171.77 mills with a rate of 204.22 a year ago. The 1954 rate includes 67.99 for schools and 40.06 for the village while a year ago the school got 98.60 and the village 39.84.

Grygla's new rate is 181.56 against 178.85 a year ago. The new total includes 82.84 for the school and 35 for the village. A year ago the rate was 78.07 for schools and also 35 mills for the village.

THEIR MAJESTIES King Boreas XVIII Walter V. Dorle and Queen of Snows Mary Lou Lipke of the St. Paul Winter Carnival have issued a welcome to all Northwest residents to attend the 1955 festival. A nine-day program of winter sports, coronation pageants, parades, square dancing, stage shows, musical jamborees and dozens of other attractions has been planned. Dates of the "Frosty Frolic" are Friday, January 28, through Saturday, February 5. Thousands of participants and spectators will attend the Winter Carnival, regarded as one of America's Top Ten festivals.

Winter Carnival in St. Paul Slated for Jan. 23 to 29

Champion Skaters and Skiers Will Compete at Event Opening Friday

Answering the summons of Good King Boreas, the mighty hosts of the Snow King from far flung parts of the Carnival domain will gather in Minnesota's Capitol City Friday for the opening week end of the 1955 St. Paul Winter Carnival.

Making up the armies of visitors will be untold numbers of sportsmen, marchers, musicians, championship skiers and skaters, majorettes from 41 states and Canada, 33 beautiful snow queens, and scores of thousands of just plain spectators.

Among the special units coming to the carnival will be, the 100-piece U. S. Army Field Band from Washington, D. C., the 50-piece U. S. Navy Band from the Naval Training Station, Great Lakes, Ill., Boy Scout drum and bugle corp from Madison, Wis., the Chicago and North Western Railway System Chorus of 50 voices from Chicago; The Ambassadors of Duluth Drum and Bugle Corps, 120 members of the spectacular Texas Cavaliers from San Antonio, the Duluth Air Force Drum and Bugle Corps and dozens of American Legion and high school musical organizations.

Curtain-raiser for the carnival will be the coronation of King Boreas XIX at the S. Paul Auditorium Friday night, which will be combined with the Northwest's largest square dance festival. Both events are free to wearers of carnival buttons.

Saturday's program will be highlighted by the national speed skating championships at Lake Como starting at 1 p. m.; the big grand parade through downtown streets and the Auditorium, at 2 p. m., and the gala WCCO Radio Winter Carnival state show and broadcast in the Auditorium at 8 p. m.

Only 474 Forest Fires Reported in State During 1954

Total Next to Lowest Reported in History, Says Forestry Division

A near record low in number of forest fires, area burned over, and damages was made in 1954 as the result of favorable weather conditions and more than ordinary carefulness by Minnesota people, E. L. Lawson, director, division of forestry, reported today.

Only 474 forest fires were recorded, which is close to the record low of 1941 when 329 fires were reported. The average over a 40 year period is 1,201 fires per year and the average for the 10 years previous to 1954 is 771 fires. A total of more than 48,600 fires have been recorded since 1914 when a complete record keeping system was started.

In 1954 13,297 acres were burned over and damages to the soil, forests, wildlife and water conservation were set at $28,428. This is compared with the low of 1941 when 4,321 acres were burned and damages amounted to $12,000. The largest number of acres burned in one year, (other than the 1917-1918 fires) occurred in 1931 when 993,000 acres were burned and damages were set at $3,490,000.

During the 41 years staggering total of 84,580,000 acres have been burned and damage losses amount to more than $43,660,000.

One thousand eight hundred and eighty five acres of timber were destroyed, 2,017 acres of denuded forestland and 9,395 acres of nonforest lands burned in 1954. Land clearing and meadow burning accounted for the larger per cent of the damage. Fifty-six per cent of the fires occurred in the months of April and May and 23 per cent in October and November.

Job Insurance to Be Extended in '56

Firms with Four or More Employes to Be Affected

Beginning January 1, 1956, more Minnesota workers will be covered by job insurance and more employers will be making contributions to the state's unemployment compensation reserves.

This is because, explained F. W. Nichols of the employment security department, of action taken by the last Congress lowering the "8 or more" rule to "4 or more" with respect to the federal unemployment tax. Coverage starts when employers have the required number of workers for 20 weeks in any calendar year. Under state law, employers of who unemployment tax payments are required, become subject to the state employment security act. They must contribute to the state "UC" reserves and their employees automatically have employment insurance rights.

Under the new federal law, 31,995 wage and salary workers, employed by 5,942 employers who are not now covered by the state program, will have "job insurance" rights. Under the new "4 or more" rule about 32,500 workers in industries regularly covered by unemployment compensation will not have benefit rights. This is relatively a small number, considering the fact that the number of persons in state now covered is approximately 612,300.

It is possible, Nichols said, that practically all non-farm wage and salary earners in the state will be protected by job insurance before the end of this year. This can happen either as a result of further action on the part of Congress or by the legislature.

Losses by Fire in Nation Last Year Hit $870 Million

Fire damaged or destroyed an estimated $870,984,000 worth of property in the United States in 1954, the National Board of Fire Underwriters reported last week. This is 3.6 per cent less than that for 1953, when estimated losses totaled $903,400,000, which included one large industrial loss in August of 1953.

According to Lewis A. Vincent, NBFU's general manager, estimated losses for December, 1954 totaled $83,881,000, an increase of 36 per cent over losses of $61,663,000 reported for November and an increase also of 0.5 per cent over losses of $83,440,000 reported for December, 1953.

These estimated insured losses include an allowance for uninsured and unreported losses.

CAN YOU "SING FOR SOUR APPLES?"

Many are sure they can't—and are probably right. But some are convinced they can do even better. Metropolitan Auditions of the Air, Northrop Auditorium at the University of Minnesota February 21-22, will assure many aspiring singers whether they should attempt to sing only for their supper, for small or large church congregations, in recital, or in grand opera. Evaluation summaries will be given all contestants for a coveted contract with the Met, prepared by a staff of expert judges. Entries from the Upper Midwest area must be in the hands of the Auditions Committee at the University by February 5.

A PROPER MONUMENT

The Soo Line has taken out of service its few remaining steam locomotives and its trains are now powered exclusively by modern diesel-electrics. The completion of this change marks the end of an important era in railroading.

The railroad is an old institution in terms of one generation, but like most of our industries, it still is comparatively young. Here in Minnesota it is not as old as the state itself which has several years to go before it reaches the century mark. It came into being when industrial America was a jungle, and the law of the jungle prevailed.

Once it did come its expansion was rapid. Practically our entire system of railroads here in Minnesota was built within the period of half a century. Its thousands of miles of roadbed, representing many millions of hours of hard labor by men and mules, is a construction story far more spectacular than the remarkable record of our inter progress in the building of highways.

Because Thief River Falls is a railroad town the background of this development is especially interesting to our people and the obsolete steam locomotive has a special significance. With this in mind a group of local officials and civic leaders responded to the Soo Line announcement that all old steamers were to be junked by suggesting to the company that one of the locomotives be made available to the city to be preserved as a monument to the colorful years of its early history.

To most of us, at the present time, such an engine would be nothing more than another worn-out machine and of no special interest. With the passing of the years however it would develop historical value, and to the generation that would inherit it a hundred years from now it would be a museum piece of tremendous importance.

Several large cities in the country have recognized this future value and have placed one of the old engines in a suitable location as a monument to an era that has passed. We hope therefore that one of the Soo Line engines will be made available to us and that it will be given the attention it deserves in a community that has a short past but a long future.

LIBERALIZING RELIEF

Governor Freeman would further liberalize the state's old age assistance program by repealing the lien law and increasing the maximum grants from $60 to $65 a month. These proposals are not new. They have been considered at all recent sessions of the legislature and at each session they have been rejected.

They have failed to pass mainly because of the opposition of county welfare boards thruout the state. Two years ago 84 of the state's 87 counties passed resolutions urging the legislature to reject the proposal to repeal the lien law, and the opposition to the proposed increase in the maximum grant was also one-sided.

Fifteen years of experience with the lien law proves it to be both sound and fair. No old people have been injured by it and because of the more liberal limits on property ownership that came with it the benefits of old age assistance have been made available to many more old people.

Minnesota's present limit of $60 is already higher than the federal government's participation limit of $55. Unlimited medical care adds a great deal to the cost of this assistance that must be paid entirely by the state and counties. While we are not one of the richest states our old age assistance program is already liberal in comparison with what other states are doing.

Two years ago the legislature provided for a method of securing increased federal participation in medical costs by means of a county medical service pre-payment plan. Through the use of such a plan other states are saving millions of dollars.

For some unexplained reason the plan has not been made effective in Minnesota and Governor Freeman might properly direct an inquiry as to why authority has not been granted to put the law into effect in our state as the legislature intended. According to the information we have it would save our taxpayers a very tidy sum.

A JOB FOR SPECIALISTS

A house committee of the Minnesota legislature has recommended a salary increase for members of the highway patrol. The justification for such an increase seems to be that meeting the added cost would not be painful to the taxpayers, the money coming out of state highway funds. It is not easy to follow this type of reasoning.

We are not concerned with the question as to whether or not this group of state employees should have a salary increase. We are concerned with the proposal that a particular group of employees might properly be given a salary increase merely because they are paid out of a fund in which there happens to be a comfortable balance or that is maintained from some special revenue source.

There are many classes of state employees whose salaries are paid out of funds maintained by sources other than taxation. Game wardens, for instance, are paid from revenues derived from hunting and fishing licenses and the salaries of many employees are paid from fees of various kinds. But to say that game wardens should receive more compensation merely because such increases will not add to the burden of the taxpayer would be both unfair to other state employees and unsound in principle.

Highway patrolmen and game wardens and all other state employees should have fair wages, and every effort should be made to maintain a fair relationship between the various classes of employees. This is a job that requires the direction of a special commission, trained in such matters. Fair relationships can be maintained only by careful studies, taking into consideration necessary employee ability and responsibility along with the various factors in working conditions that make jobs more or less desirable.

The state has created an agency to deal with these matters, and to tinker with the conclusions of an established agency by direct legislative action can result only in greater inequalities, which in turn will lead only to further discord and a general deterioration in the state's employer-employee relationships.

If and when the members of the legislature take upon themselves the responsibility for fixing the salaries of the various classes of state employees they will open a Pandora's box from which they will be harassed by endless plagues.

THE REDS MAY NOW CHOOSE

President Eisenhower has served notice on the Chinese Reds that we are through backing away from them and that from now on they may expect tough resistance to any further advances. In this position the President has the backing of both parties and a very substantial majority of our people. We have been patient long enough.

What the Chinese reaction to this ultimatum will be probably will depend largely on what the Russians want them to do. Without assurance of Russian support it is not likely that they will be very bold. But it is well to bring the situation to a head. The choice is up to the Reds. They know that Eisenhower is not bluffing and that if they want a fight there will be a fight.

This clear declaration of our intentions probably will do more to avert war than the vague and undefined policy we have followed.

The slimmest excuse on record for kidnaping was given by a Los Angeles woman who told authorities she kidnaped three children because she could do a better job raising them than their parents were doing. Why, nearly everybody thinks the same thing about certain parents and children.

Doings of week at Rosewood

By Elaine Hellquist, Rosewood, Minn. Phone 107-3

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hellquist and Walter came home Monday after a three month trip to the West. In his own words Mr. Hellquist tells us of their visits with many old friends, all former neighbors from Rosewood.

Our Trip to the West Coast

We left home in the morning, Oct. 27th in our '54 Chevie. We drove to Dickinson, N. Dak. the first day and stayed over night with Mr. and Mrs. Toney Markel, Mrs. Hellquists's brother. The next day we drove to Livingston, Mont. and stayed in a motel that night and the next day we started and drove across the Rocky Mountains, taking some pictures of interesting things along the road. The Rockies are very beautiful, and the mountain streams I would say were the most interesting scenes in the Rockies. We got across the mountains before dark and stayed in Couer d'Alene, Idaho that night. The next day we drove through Spokane, Wash. and on to Milton-Freewater, Oregon where our son Alvin lives. There we stayed for two months working part of the time and driving around sightseeing. We met Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Vixie, they live in Milton-Freewater, Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Vixie lived on the Fred Styrlund farm at Rosewood about thirty-five years ago.

We also met Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Lokken, formerly of Newfolden. They live in Milton-Freewater also. On December 27th we left our son's home, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hellquist and journeyed on to Mt. Angel, Oregon. There we visited our friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ture Styrlund, having a very nice visit with them two days. While at Mt. Angel we visited Mr. and Mrs. Emil Axelson, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Axelson, Mr. Herman Axelson and Minnie and her husband and we also visited Mr. and Mrs. Emil Jacobson and Mr. and Mrs. Ole Jacobson. We also met Mr. Clause Weibe, formerly of Thief River Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Wiebe lives in Salem, Ore. We left Mt. Angel, Ore. and journeyed on to Springfield, Oregon where we visited our old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Christ Evenson. We had a very pleasant visit with them and also fellowship, reading God's word and prayer. We left Springfield, Ore. and took Hgwy. 99 over the Cascade Mountains to California. Our next stop was at El Cerreto, Calif. There we visited Mr. and Mrs. Joel Shoberg having a nice visit with them. They took us all through San Francisco and out to the Russian river where we saw the big redwood trees. We also visited Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Nakken at San Jose, Calif. We left El Creto, Calif. and drove to Oakland. There we visited Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hanson, formerly of Dickinson, N. Dak. The Hanson's were our neighbors when we lived at Dickinson, N. Dak. From there we drove to Berlingame where we visited Mrs. Jose Nakken and Gladys. From there we journeyed on to Santa Monica, Calif. staying and visiting with our daughter Clara and her family, Mr. and Mrs. G. Boyd. We had a very pleasant visit with them and taking care of our grandson George. We also went to church on Sunday. The weather was very nice when we were in California. We went for a walk on the beach in our shirt sleeves in January. We went to see our son Victor's home in Compton. Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hellquist moved to Bernswick, Penn. in October. On Jan. 11th we started our journey home taking U. S. Highway No. 66 East.

Going through California, Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Iowa and we arrived in Minneapolis Saturday the 15th of January and we stayed over Sunday visiting our daughter Lydia and also Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kjome and son Steven. We went to the First Covenant Church Sunday morning and in the evening we went to the First Baptist Church. We left Minneapolis Monday morning and arrived at our home in Rosewood in the afternoon. We had a very nice trip, the good Lord was with us and protected us all along the way and our '54 Chevie took us over 6,673 miles of highway without missing a shot. We found the roads good except a few short stretches. Of all the states that we drove through Oregon has the best marked roads. — Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hellquist and Walter

It's easy to put this much sugar into one cup
BUT HOW WOULD YOU MIX IT IN 5,330 CUPS?

a problem of the same proportion is facing most feed companies in mixing about 1/3 oz. of stilbestrol into one ton of cattle feed

The Food and Drug Administration in its approval for use of stilbestrol has set about ⅓ oz. per ton as the right amount for this powerful growth stimulant. That means it is added in the proportion of only 1 part to 90,800 parts. It must be mixed so that cattle get just the right amount . . . too little stilbestrol in their ration won't produce maximum gains . . . too much in their ration can prove toxic. Yes, it is a big mixing problem for most feed companies—but not for Purina, with its exclusive Micro-Mixing process.

MICRO-MIXING Is accurate to the 1/10,000,000 part!

Modern mixing equipment plus the technical skill of Purina engineers, laboratory technicians, and mill employees makes such a mixing job routine for Purina. Purina's Micro-Mixing is a quality control process that assures you every bite is mixed just right. Every animal gets its fair share when you feed Purina Steer Fatena or Beef Chow with stilbestrol added. That means that you go to market with a much more even bunch of cattle.

NOW AVAILABLE at your Purina Dealer's— Steer Fatena and Beef Chow with stilbestrol, MICRO-MIXED— every bite mixed just right.

623 Guardsmen Join Armed Services in '54

Voluntary enlistments in the military services by Minnesota National Guardsmen are reducing the selective service requirements of the state by more than one month's quota, it was announced today by Major General Joseph E. Nelson, adjutant general.

General Nelson said statistics covering the past year show that 623 members of the Minnesota National Guard enlisted for active duty as individuals.

Selective service quotas for Minnesota, which have in the past averaged about 600 men a month during the same period are now down to about 500 a month.

"Many of these young men will be quite advanced in standing when they enter the military service," Colonel L. E. Lilygren, director of selective service for Minnesota, said. "If young men are drafted from the National Guard's ranks or enlist, they will benefit immeasurably by the training they will receive in their hometown." The selective service system of Minnesota called only 42 men from the ranks of the National Guard.

"Minnesota Guardsmen are more than pulling their weight in contributing manpower to the nation and they are also adding strength to the state by their weekly drill program and summer camp training sessions", General Nelson announced in making the year end report of Guard activities.

Out of the 8,500 men in the Minnesota National Guard, 159 chose to volunteer for active duty for a two-year period and maintain their Guard status. Some 422 resigned from the Guard to take voluntary enlistments in the regular forces. Of this total, 124 joined the Army, 73 Navy, and 46 Marines, with 179 going to the Air Force.

Men who join the National Guard prior to their 18½ birthday can count their entire National Guard service time as federal service by maintaining regular attendance in their hometown units. Enlistees are eligible to join the National Guard on reaching the age of 17 with their parents consent.

The report pointed out, that National Guard units are subject to call only in a national emergency, or to state call on orders of the governor, who is commander-in-chief of the Minnesota National Guard. The governor may call out specific units or entire rolls of the Guard for flood, tornado, disaster or civil emergencies when troops are needed.

New Scholarship Honors J. Brandt

Foundation Offers $1,500 Award to Dairy Student

A new dairy science scholarship of $1,500 will be awarded a qualified student within the next few months for graduate study in dairying at the University of Minnesota.

It is known as the John Brandt memorial scholarship, and is offered by the John Brandt Memorial Foundation—friends and associates of the late Mr. Brandt—at Litchfield.

Announcement of the scholarship came from Carl Leaf, Litchfield, president of the Foundation. Its award will be determined by a committee of members of the dairy department of the University of Minnesota and the Foundation, with approval of the University Graduate School.

The late Mr. Brandt was a well-known upper midwest dairy figure, president of Land O'Lakes Creameries, Minneapolis, at the time of his death. He owned a large dairy farm near Litchfield.

The scholarship award will be made for the 1955-1956 school year, beginning in fall quarter, 1955. Under certain conditions, the student's tuition fees also will be paid in addition to the full award of $1,500.

Applicants for the scholarship must have earned a bachelor of science degree in dairy husbandry from an accredited college in the U. S.

Full information is available from the Dairy Department, Institute of Agriculture, University of Minnesota, St. Paul 1, Minnesota.

Junior Livestock Futurity Day Set for Winter Shows

Junior Livestock Futurity Day at the Red River Valley Winter Shows at Crookston will be held on Tuesday, February 22. A total of 115 animals has been entered in the junior futurity division of the livestock shows William Strickler, Euclid, chairman of the futurity committee, states: "A new record of entries has been established in the junior Futurity at our Show."

The junior futurity has been the means whereby many young livestock breeders have started purebred flocks and herds. The livestock breeders of the Red River Valley area have cooperated with the junior Futurity exhibitors by furnishing them outstanding animals as foundation stock for future herds and flocks.

The entry list for the 1955 futurity show, as compiled by George Nornes of Climax, secretary of the committee, indicates that the beef and sheep divisions of the futurity will be the largest in years. Entries for the 1955 futurity show include: forty beef heifers in the junior, senior, and advanced classifications; twelve dairy heifers; twenty-two gilts; and forty-one sheep.

Judging of futurity classes will start at 10:30 a. m. on February 22 in the swine and sheep division. The parade of junior futurity cattle will be held at 12:30 p. m. with judging taking place in the afternoon. The futurity exhibitors will be honored at a banquet given by the Winter Shows board of managers at 5:30 p. m.

Drivers License Revocations Rise

Total of 8,819 Permits Were Revoked in 1954

Major traffic law violators brought revocation of their driver's licenses to 8,819 Minnesota motorists in 1954, according to a report by the driver's license division of the state highway department. This was an increase of 514 over the 8,305 licenses revoked in 1953.

The state's continuing drive to reduce traffic accidents resulted in the suspension in 1954 of another 25,963 licenses for lesser offenses. This total is 3,070 more than the 22,893 drivers whose licenses were suspended in the preceding year, the report shows.

During December, 596 driver licenses were revoked, as compared with 610 in the same month of 1953. Suspensions in December totaled 2,407. The total for December, 1953, was 1,888.

During 1954, 24,534 driver licenses were reinstated because of expiration of the suspension period and after filing of proof of financial responsibility.

Two hundred six motorists were convicted in December of driving after revocation or suspension of their driver licenses, bringing to 2,050 the total of such convictions in 1954.

The Driver's License division gave driving tests and examinations in 1954 to 113,161 persons, of whom 67,808 passed. The 1953 total of persons tested and examined was 103,462, with 65,986 passing.

Strandquist . .
By Mrs. Ed. Stennes, Strandquist

The Oakdale Homemakers club met at the Harry Storeby home Friday afternoon and the main lesson was on making handbags and purses. All members were present except two who were ill. The next meeting will be at Joe Adlis in February.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Storeby were to Thief River Falls Monday and visited with Mrs. Brossoit, and also the Bob Johnston's of Plentywood, Mont., who were up to spend the weekend with Mrs. Johnston's mother.

Once again the grim reaper called for one of our pioneers, Mrs. Louise Baker, who has made her home at the Samaritan Home in Warren these past months. The Bakers lived several miles west of town before they moved to Stephen some years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilman Stennes, Mrs. Ed Stennes and Ole Lousness were callers in Thief River Falls Wednesday.

The Million Dollar cook is coming to Strandquist on Jan. 28, 1955. This is a play given by the Juniors of our high school. The cast of characters are as follows: Madge Talmadge, the mother, Clarice Kline; Glenn Talmadge, the oldest son, Donald Vagle; Alexandria Talmadge, the youngest son, Dale Carlson; Inis Pruit, Madge's sister; Eleanor Sjoblom, Tucker Pruit, Inis' son; Orville Koland, Gladys Talmadge; Glenn's young wife, Marlene Szczepanski; Tura Scudder, the outgoing cook, Marlys Erickson; Annie Basset, the incoming cook, Una Mae Kimbrough; Freda Borden, the girl next door, Iris Holmstrom; Kathryn Bock-Smythe, a socialite, Loretta Veselka; Flora Bock-Smythe, Kathryn's daughter, Maxine Szczepanski. The story revolves around the mischievous prank of a wealthy old lady who gets tired of her social existence and, on the spur of the moment, answers an ad in the paper for a cook. "Annie" as she calls herself, goes to work for the Talmadge family in a small community and immediately finds herself involved in the problems of all concerned. Naturally none of the Talmadges know that "Annie" is a famous millionairess. They think she is simply a darling old lady who has come to their house as a cook and has endeared herself to each one of them by the wonderful manner in which she straightens out their individual problems. The Talmadge family consists of Madge, mother of Glenn, a writer, and Alexander, a high school boy. Glenn has recently married Gladys, who doesn't get along with Madge because she thinks her mother-in-law interferes. Then there is Iris, Madge's widowed sister, who spends so much time at social functions and beauty parlors that she neglects her only son, Tucker. Besides the family, there is a sweet young girl next door, who likes Tucker, but Tucker thinks she likes Alexandria. The former cook tries to poison Annie's mind against the family. "Annie's" daughter and granddaughter pop in and "spill the beans" in a most laughable manner.

Attend Highway 59 Meeting in Thief River Falls

Ed Stennes, local member of the Highway No. 59 board, attended a meeting at Thief River Falls on Wednesday evening. C. Winjum, president of the board, of Karlstad furnished the transportation. He was accompanied by Dane Nordin and Clarence Cook, secretary of the board, who was picked up in Newfolden. Lake Bronson and Lancaster were also represented at the meeting.

The new highway from Lancaster to the Canadian Border will be completed next summer. Highway No. 59 will then be routed north from Lancaster for a shorter road to Winnipeg. The Manitoba Dept. of Highways is very interested in the new route and will complete their part of the road from that side as soon as funds are available.

The three corners on Highway 59 will be discontinued and new roads constructed along the Soo Line tracks as far as Newfolden. The two longest of these corners are from Strandquist to Newfolden and between Karlstad and Halma. According to the plans of the State Highway Commission, work will commence on these corner roads in 1956 and will be a two or three year project. Due to the numerous accidents on the curve ½ mile north from Strandquist it is hoped the work will start at this end.

Harold R. Anderson who is serving with the Armored Cav. Regiment at Fort Knox, Ky. has recently been promoted to Sergeant. Mrs. H. R. Anderson and son are spending the winter months at Mrs. Anderson's parental home in Thief River Falls. Sgt. Anderson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Anderson.

Visitors at the telephone office on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Albin Grebowski and girls, Loretta Veselka and Junior Olson.

Ottina Rokke visited at the telephone office on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kranz Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Milan Sorenson and boys of Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Oistad and family, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Folland and family of Karlstad and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kranz Jr. visited at the Roy Stennes home on Sunday. The occasion was Wendy Louise's first birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilman Stennes and boys visited at the Roy Stennes home on Saturday evening.

Visitors at Miss Ottina Rokke during the week were Mrs. Dolpha Johnson and her nephew Jeff Strandquist and Christine Tell on Friday evening, and Mrs. Martin Peterson and Mrs. Annie Bjorkman on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Julia Olson and Lester of Newfolden spent Tuesday at the home of Leroy Anderson and Sunday afternoon Mrs. Andrew Boen and Mrs. Robert Koland visited there.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Benson of Roseau visited at the home of Lang Gund on Sunday.

Mr. Jeff Strandquist left on Monday morning for his home in Canada after a few days visit with his aunt, Mrs. Dolpha Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Berg are the parents of a baby boy born on Saturday night. Congratulations.

Mr. Rasmi Nelson was dismissed from the Karlstad hospital Monday morning after a few days stay. We were glad to hear his health had improved a lot.

The Independent basketball team have only three more games scheduled. They are Jan. 27 at Hallock and Jan. 31 at Newfolden. Feb. 3 Karlstad plays here at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Nelson, Sharon and Carol and Mr. and Mrs. Kort Myhrer, of Newfolden, and Mr. and Mrs. Ole Johnson of Middle River were luncheon guests at the home of Mrs. Ella Thun on Sunday.

Oscar Johnson attended a large equipment meeting by the Allis-Chalmers Co. for the county commissioners and snow plow men, at Warren on Tuesday evening at the court house.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Carlson attended Mrs. Baker's funeral in Stephen on Monday.

HOW TO KEEP UP WITH THE JONESES

Do you keep your nose to the grindstone trying to give your family everything the Joneses have?

Then observe these neighbors carefully. They probably have something that escapes your notice.

They have family, friends, and material possessions. But they have something more.

Notice that the Joneses always attend the services of the Church. They have found that without spiritual guidance their other treasures are worthless. And they have discovered new solutions to their everyday problems. They view the world from a different slant, for they have found the faith to take life as it comes along.

The Joneses and more than 88 million other Americans are now church members.

If you really want to keep up with the Joneses, follow their lead. Find and cultivate the faith they've found. Go to Church this week . . . and every week, and make yours a Christian home.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

JOHNSON . .

By Mrs. Thorwald Bjornaraa, Gully

The annual meeting of the Bethany Lutheran church was held on Tuesday evening, Jan. 11, 1955. The following officers were elected: secretary, Harry Bergh; treasurer, Alfred Bergh; trustee for 3 years term, Lawrence Erlandson; funds secretary, Oswald Erlandson; organist, Mrs. Thorwald Bjornaraa; ushers, Ordean Anderson, Robert Erlandson, David Norberg and Buddy Bjornaraa.

Sunday visitors at the Carl Lund home were Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Brekke, Randy, Renee and Bobby and Twyla Bjornaraa.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Erlandson, Bobby, Rosy and Bette, Thorwald Bjornaraa and Buddy visited at the Bjornaraa Bros. home on Friday evening. Others there were Mrs. Hannah Jozdyzk. They spent the evening viewing TV.

Mrs. Ray Lund and Lila Mae spent the weekend visiting at the home of her folks, the Marvin Homme's south of Gully. Ray called for them on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nordal Solheim, Jerry, Bobby and Sharon, Mr. and Mrs. Thorwald Bjornaraa, Buddy and Twyla and Lane Kvestad spent Saturday evening seeing TV at the Bjornaraa Bros. home. Others there were Elmer Engstrom, Carol and Hallie Oftelie.

Many from here attended the F. U. Credit union meeting at the Gully auditorium on Saturday. Edwin Christianson, F. U. president, was the speaker.

It was really thrilling, on Sunday morning, when the Sunday Tribune came, to see the pictures and write-up of our own 9th District Congresswoman, Mrs. Coya Knutson. She being such a well known personality in our community, and having been a teacher of many of the younger set, makes it so much more interesting, to see Coya get such publicity, and having her represent us as a member of the House of Representatives in Washington. The little village of Oklee must be put on the map now I'm sure. Farm problems being one of her main interests, Mrs. Knutson did very well, by getting on the Agriculture Committee while just a freshman in Congress, a job which usually takes years to attain, and generally having to have seniority, or as some would say, being a veteran.

During World War II the Dutch underground used the name of Scheveningen, a coastal city, for a modern shibboleth to unmask German agents. Only a Netherlander can pronounce it correctly.

Of the 100,000 orphans in the United States today, 26,000 of them lost at least one parent to cancer.

SMILEY . . .

By Mrs. Jim McCrum, Rt. 2, City

The Smiley Hall was filled to overflowing Saturday evening when the annual Polio Talent Show was held there. The audience was well rewarded what with the fine array of talent presented, the lunch, and the dance to the music of the Melody Ranch Hands. It was a full evening indeed. Norman Johnson, chairman for the event, is to be highly complemented on the excellent job he did as a Talent scout. Kern Olson of Thief River Falls is another guy who deserves high praise for his expert finesse as an Emcee. He rather knows his stuff. Maurice Newton president of the Smiley Community Club, opened the program with a welcome and turned over the show to Mr. Olson, who, in turn, introduced Roy Oen of Thief River Falls, County chairman of the Polio chapter.

Mr. Oen spoke briefly on the necessity of fund raising and his appreciation at such a wonderful turnout. Mr. Olson also introduced another county notable Bill Dahlquist also of Thief River Falls, who gave a short pep talk. A community "sing" led by Mr. Olson, accompanied by Mrs. Arnold Hammer at the piano put everyone in a relaxing mood for the program that consisted of a vocal solo by Alton Skallet Jr. of Kratka, a vocal duet by Craig and Carolyn Torkelson of Smiley, a noted vocal quartet comprising of Justus Larson, Stretch Erickson, Lloyd Brunsberg and Orvis Olen all of Thief River Falls, a musical number by Delray Sanders with mouth organ of Smiley accompanied by James Kolden of St. Hilaire with the guitar, a vocal duet by Alton Skallet Jr. and Darlene of Kratka.

A clarinet trio by Mr. T. Moum, band instructor in the Lincoln High school, Marilyn Waale, and Marlian Hafdahl of Kratka, a vocal duet by Doris and Rose Ann Sorenson of Plummer, a piano solo by Olson of Kratka, a vocal and guitar solo by Vernon Iverson of Goodridge, a vocal solo by Shirley Oski of Goodridge, a vocal solo by Beverly Nelson of Goodridge, both these girls were accompanied their instructor, Mr. Roland Samber who also played three brilliant piano numbers. Larry Ellingson of Goodridge played a saxophone solo.

A vocal solo by little Lola Birk of Smiley, vocal solo by Jerry Claffy Thief River Falls. A humorous selection by Mr. Bill Sheedy of Thief River Falls, a vocal quartet by Ray, Marie, Jane Walseth and their father with the guitar, a vocal and guitar arrangement by Gerald Sanders of Smiley. A vocal duet by Arla and Wilma Lieske of Brooks, a unique number in a Norwegian vocal solo by Mrs. Max Jensen of Thief River Falls accompanied by Mrs. Mark Olson of Smiley with the accordion, both women wore Norwegian costumes to suit the occasion, a vocal solo by Mrs. Arnold Hammer, a musical vocal and accordion number by the three Lieske sisters of Brooks, a vocal duet by Linda and Phyllis Omlid of Goodridge, a vocal duet by Judy Leskew and Darlene Skallet of Kratka.

An unusual treat ended up the program numbers when Iver Asseby of Thief River performed sleight of hand tricks with a professional magician's touch and also did he introduce his little helpmeet, "Rusty", in the ventriloquist act. Very neat. Miss Marge Olson was also called upon to give a few remarks. Lunch and dancing followed this program. The total amount turned over to the fund was happily noted to be 205 dollars. It is certainly something to be proud of, at that.

Those who spent the evening Monday at the Albert Froseth home and helping Albert with his birthday reminder were the following guests Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Gust Gustafson and Eleanor, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Torkelson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim McCrum. Mrs. Froseth served a lovely repast after a three table game of whist.

He assisted the Pat Culkin's with the driving to Tucson, Arizona where they are vacationing for about six weeks. Mr. Hanson spent a week in Tucson. While there he took the opportunity with the Culkin's to make a sightseeing trip to Mexico and the surrounding wonderland. He then went by bus to Las Vegas, Nevada where he joined his brother and sister in law, Mr. and Mrs. Ingvald Hanson. The Hanson's all then motored to Fergus Falls where the Ingvald Hanson's reside. Rudolph came home by bus from there. He enjoyed his trip very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Torkelson and family were Sunday dinner guests at the Bob Hamilton home.

Thirteen Smiley 4-H girls got off school bus Tuesday after school at the Adam Lendobeja home for a Food Preparation lesson on Dairy Foods. They made a complete dinner of dairy foods and were instructed by their adult leaders Mrs. Adam Lendobeja and Mrs. Norton Nelson. After the dinner the young girls in the beginners clothing project had their lesson from the leaders while the non project girls had the job of washing dishes and clearing off the dinner effects.

Such unexpected news usually hits the hardest and this was very much so. Mr. Lendobeja was a former Smiley resident and a long time one at that which made him a well known person. Report on Viking News of the Week

By Mrs. Orville Peters, Phone 47F30

A farewell party was given at the Mission Covenant Church on Wednesday evening for Dennis Hanson and Clarence Dau. Dennis however was unable to attend because of a family gathering. These two young men enlisted in the Air Corps and left Thursday morning for their induction.

A farewell program was given, Rev. and Mrs. J. Dokken sang a duet, a greeting was brought by Clarence Tangquist, chairman of the church and also the teacher of the Young People's Bible Class, of which these boys have attended. Raymond Drotts played a piano solo. His selection was "Take the Name of Jesus With You." Rev. Dokken gave a brief talk. A duet was sung by Doris and Lloyd Melvie. Rodger Sackett gave a short talk on behalf of the Young People's Society. He also presented Clarence with a gift from the Young People's Society. This concluded the program, and a social hour was spent in the church dining room. A delicious lunch was served by the young people.

Miss Arlys Anderson was honored at a pre-nuptial shower at the Mission Covenant church parlors Friday evening. The decorations were in colors of blue and yellow. Placed above the bride-to-be was a large umbrella from which were suspended blue and yellow streamers making a very attractive setting. Ardelle Tangquist presented Arlys with a yellow boutonniere and also acted as mistress of ceremonies at a short program which began with devotions by Mrs. Aleck Anderson. Mrs. J. Dokken and Myrtle sang a duet. Mrs. Douglas Gloude of Warren gave a humorous reading; a solo was sung by Doris Melvie.

In charge of the games played were Mrs. Johnnie Halvorson of Thief River Falls and Mrs. Melford Olson.

Arlys then opened her many lovely gifts after which she thanked the group for such a nice shower. A dainty lunch was served from a candle lighted table.

ALCOHOLISM IS COSTLY DISEASE

That Minnesota needs a second state institution for the treatment of chronic alcoholics is the conclusion of experts who have analyzed statistics. 62% of adult U. S. citizens are said to drink and of these something more than 6% become "problem drinkers" or chronic alcoholics. Minnesota is believed to be above the general average with approximately 90,000 alcoholics, who cost the state in traffic accidents, crime, and wage loss more than $16½ million annually. Interested observers believe that a fraction of this amount invested in facilities and personnel at the Sandstone State Hospital would sharply reduce much individual suffering and loss to society.

Almost one third of Canada's fifteen million people live in the province of Ontario. This province produces more than half of the country's manufactured goods, and more nickel than the rest of the world combined.

Tells of Changes In Social Security

Representative to Be at City Auditorium Feb. 8

"If you are one of the more than 6½ million persons receiving monthly old-age and survivors insurance payments, you need to know about the change in the law effective January 1, 1955, regarding the amount you can earn and still get social security payments," declares Walter D. Kistler, district manager of the Grand Forks office of the Social Security Administration.

Mr. Kistler points out that beginning January 1, 1955, you can earn as much as $1,200 in a year and still accept your benefit check for each month of the year. If you earn more than $1,200 in a year, from any type of work whether or not covered by social security, benefits for some months of that year are not payable. After you are 72 years of age, you may accept the benefit check for each month regardless of the amount of your earnings.

If you expect to earn more than $1,200 in 1955, or in the taxable year beginning in 1955, you should notify the Social Security Administration. A post card form for you to use in sending in such notice was mailed before the end of 1954 to everyone now receiving benefits. Your benefits will be stopped while you are working and payments started again when you have stopped working.

A representative of the Grand Forks Social Security office will be at the city Auditorium in Thief River Falls, Minn. on Tuesday, February 8, at 10 a. m. Individuals having any questions regarding the Social Security Act are urged to call on him at that time.

Says Big Increase In Yield Possible on Farms In State

By proper soil management, fertilizing and other improved practices, Minnesota farmers can boost overall production 30 to 40 per cent above present levels and still keep soil healthy and productive.

This statement came Thursday, from William P. Martin, head of the University of Minnesota's soils department, who spoke in Rochester at the annual banquet of the Minnesota Association of Soil Conservation District Supervisors.

Martin said that in order to feed the 30 million more people we will have in 1975, we will need new production equal to the agricultural output of Wisconsin, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois and Minnesota combined.

At present crop yields and animal production rates, we will be 100,000,000 acres short of enough land to grow the food needed then.

He discussed several means of hiking food production at a low unit cost, and, at the same time, reversing the trend of land depletion and soil loss. One need, he said, is more accurate fertilization. Farmers need to know exactly what their soil needs in order to "feed" it best—and a soil test is a "must" in accurate fertilization.

He said Minnesota farmers could profitably use a million and a half tons of fertilizer—about ten times as much as now—in increasing crop yields and building the soil for the future.

Bids Are Sought on 2 Grading Jobs in Norman County

State Highway Commissioner M. J. Hoffmann has called for bids on the proposed grading of 10.8 miles of county-federal aid secondary roads in Norman county in northwestern Minnesota. The total estimated cost of the improvements, to be paid for with matched county and federal secondary road funds, is approximately $100,000. Bids will be received until 2 p. m., February 15, at the courthouse in Ada by County Auditor A. Elleraas.

The two projects included in the call, by state aid road and location, are:

S. A. R.—Grading of six miles, between Jct. T. H. 32 and a point 6½ miles east of Lockhart, requiring 127,039 cu. yds. of excavation.

S. A. R. 21—Grading of 4.8 miles northeast of Twin Valley, extending easterly from a point two miles east of Jct. T. H. 32, requiring 101,344 cu. yds. of excavation.

Deer Hunters File Total of 34,076 Reports to Date

During the period November 28, 1954 through January 8, 1955, a total of 34,076 deer hunters' report cards was recorded and tabulated by Bureau of Wildlife Development biologists, it was announced today by Richard J. Dorer, supervisor of the bureau of game.

"The results indicate," Mr Dorer said, "that in the final analysis, the number of deer harvested and the success ratio can be determined only if each hunter cooperates by turning in his report card, regardless of whether or not a deer was taken."

From the 34,076 cards submitted, it was indicated that the following deer were harvested:

Adult males 6,751; adult females 5,473; fawn males 2,390; fawn females 1,081.

"As more cards are mailed in," Dorer said, "and it is hoped that all hunters will feel obligated to do so, additional data relative to the 1954 deer season will be released.

Associate members include Frank Forbes of Warren, district county agent leader; Lew Conlon of Minneapolis, manager of the Minnesota dairy industry committee and originator of Dairy Day; and Gil Thompson of Ada.

At its organization meeting the board reelected all present officers, including Stuart McLeod, president; Irving Meade, vice president; J. M. Roche, secretary; and Elmer Bratsch, treasurer.

Plans for the 1955 Dairy Day as outlined call for conducting it along the same lines as the 1954 event, which attracted more than 300 dairy calves entered by 4-H and FFA members, and 30 candidates for the title of Northwest Dairy Princess, which contest was won by Sonja Sharpe of Shelly. She went on to the state contest, in which she was named one of two attendants to Eleanor Maley, crowned Princess Kay of the Milky Way.

Lew Conlon announced that rules for the Dairy Princess contest have been changed for 1955 to limit candidates to girls who will complete their high school course not later than June of this year and who are not more than 21 years old. He added that they also must have a farm or 4-H club background.

Harp-vocal Quartet to Appear Monday in Lincoln Auditorium

Four young artists will be on the look-out for three strong men on Monday, February 7, when they arrive in Thief River Falls for their appearance at the Lincoln high school auditorium at 8 o'clock under the auspices of Northwest Concert association. They are the National Music League harp-vocal quartet, and in the back of their station wagon is a 300 pound harp which has to be unloaded for the performance.

The artists are a unique combination in music. To a harp trio is added the lovely voice of Alice Richmond to make a quartet which will feature the delicate and heavenly sound of familiar music for such a group and some sprightly arrangements of their own. The program will include solo performances by each of the artists and ensemble numbers, too.

The harpist is Cynthia Otis, familiar to many for her NBC radio broadcasts, and to many others because of her many orchestra appearances. Cellist Lorin Bernsohn has been a member of the Aeolian Trio and is the soloist on many Robert Shaw Chorale recordings.

Flutist Claude Monteux is the son of the noted conductor Pierre Monteux and has most recently been conductor of the Little Symphony in Columbus, Ohio. Alice Richmond has been soloist with the Philadelphia Orchestra and many other symphonies. She made her New York opera debut as "Nedda" in Pagliacci.

Critics' reports have been enthusiastic about the group and have said, "The ensemble immediately captivated its S.R.O audience with its delightfully blended and unusual combination of voice and harp trio," and "Each of the trio in addition to superb performances as a unit showed remarkable virtuosity as soloists."

This unusual musical combination promises to be a highlight for concert goers here.

The quartet's tour of the upper midwest has been arranged by the University of Minnesota Concert, Theatre and Lecture Service.

Jack Quesnell Is One of Four to Win Thru to Final Round of Discussion

Jack Quesnell, Lincoln high school senior, made his way thru the first two rounds of discussion and into the final round at a citizenship training conference held Saturday at Moorhead state teachers college.

The final discussion dealt with the topic, "What can we and our town do to combat juvenile delinquency." Moderator was Vance Thysell, Clay county attorney.

Two other Lincoln students, Marilyn Waale, a senior, and Ed Fillatrault, junior, survived the first round and shared in the second round discussion on the role of the church, home and school in the development of good citizenship. Sharon Bugge was the fourth member of the local contingent.

Kalmer Ostby, Lincoln school principal, accompanied the students to Fargo.

$200,000 Issue Improvement Bonds Is Voted

Council Is Requested to Enact New Ordinance Governing Milk Sales

The city council at an adjourned session Tuesday evening voted to proceed at once with the sale of a $200,000 issue of permanent improvement bonds to aid in financing completed and scheduled sewer and water main projects as well as the new street lights in the business district and the two recently acquired parking lots.

Biggest project to be financed this year is the installation of sewer and water mains in a large area north of Eleventh st. at a cost of approximately $97,300. Also to be provided for are other sewer and water main jobs, some of which have been completed, to cost about $51,000, street lighting, $43,400; and parking lots, $36,000.

Some of the projects, such as the street lighting job, have already been paid for, so that part of the bond issue will serve to replenish the city treasury. Details of the bond issue will be handled by T. G. Evenson, Minneapolis bond consultant.

Present at Tuesday's session were John Wold, president, and Harry R. Lund, director of the Thief River Falls Milk Producers association, who asked the council to consider the enactment of a new ordinance designed to encourage the production by area farmers of Grade A milk.

They stated that the present milk ordinance, adopted more than 20 years ago, is obsolete. Council President Carl Gjernes appointed Aldermen Bob Carlson and S. A. Honebrink, together with City Attorney Robert A. Wurst, to confere with representatives of milk producers and processors in an effort to reach an agreement.

Given its third and final reading followed by adoption was an ordinance making an upward revision in light and power rates as supplied to hospitals, public rest homes, armories and court houses. The measure is designed to bring rates more in line with the cost of producing and distributing electric current.

A representative of the N W Bell Telephone Co. was present with A. J. Rau, local manager, to offer to supply the city with a mobile radio system for the use of the city departments including fire, street, water and light at a monthly rental charge of $212 including all maintenance. He said it would materially increase the efficiency of operation of the departments. The council deferred action on the matter.

Approved was the budget of the Carnegie public library representing a small increase over last year's figures.

Radio Show Earns $250 and St. Hilaire Talent Show Nets $400 Total

Receipts up to Tuesday noon in the 1955 Pennington county polio fund campaign had reached the record total of $7,006.69, A. F. Berge, drive chairman, announced. Several districts in the business area have not yet filed final reports, and the total does not include approximately $250 in cash and pledges realized from the radio polio show held in the Auditorium Saturday evening.

Biggest impetus of the past week was given the drive Thursday evening when the Mothers March on Polio conducted in the residential areas of Thief River Falls netted $1,625.39, considerably more than last year's previous record of $1,455.

Mrs. Rudolph Sagmoen, who directed the Mothers March, reported that in spite of the cold weather nearly 200 women turned out to serve as solicitors, working in terms of two. The canvassers were taken to their assigned areas in cars provided by members of the Rotary club, while the Chamber of Commerce served coffee at the completion of the drive.

Residents of the St. Hilaire community also did themselves proud by turning in $400.46 as the proceeds of a polio home talent show held Friday evening, together with the money received by the St. Hilaire 4-H club from the sale of candy, pop and milk. More than 400 persons attended the highly entertaining show.

Don Olson, manager of Station KTRF, served as emcee at the radio show Saturday night, which included 27 different acts, and which continued until 2:30 a. m. Included were vocal and instrumental solos and groups, and songs by the Legion auxiliary chorus.

Olson thanked all the performers and those who made donations. He added that those who phoned in pledges should mail the money as quickly as possible to Station KTRF.

Chairman Berge reported that the following items make up the total of $7,006.69 collected to date:

Business firm solicitation	$ 2,138.60
Township donations	1,079.29
Lincoln and rural schools	158.79
County 4-H clubs	29.80
Mothers March on Polio	1,625.39
Special gifts	73.50
St. Hilaire community	400.46
Sale of crutches and balloons at H. S. games	58.66
Game night in Auditorium	233.35
Auction and rummage sale	1,026.15
Smiley talent show	180.70
	$ 7,006.69

Mrs. Adam Lendobeja, rural chairman, reported Tuesday that receipts during the past week in the rural areas, which are included in the tabulation above, amounted to $523.40, including $470.20 from the townships, $30.95 from ten rural schools and $22.25 from six 4-H clubs.

Included in the township donations were Wyandotte, $18; Rocksbury, $82; Mavie, $26.50; Smiley, $10; Numedal, $26.50; Polk Centre, $41; Sanders, $81.75; Norden, $75.20; Mayfield, $41.50; and Bray, $58.75.

Tells of Changes In Social Security

Representative to Be at City Auditorium Feb. 8

"If you are one of the more than 6½ million persons receiving monthly old-age and survivors insurance payments, you need to know about the change in the law effective January 1, 1955, regarding the amount you can earn and still get social security payments," declares Walter D. Kistler, district manager of the Grand Forks office of the Social Security Administration.

Mr. Kistler points out that beginning January 1, 1955, you can earn as much as $1,200 in a year and still accept your benefit check for each month of the year. If you earn more than $1,200 in a year, from any type of work whether or not covered by social security, benefits for some months of that year are not payable. After you are 72 years of age, you may accept the benefit check for each month regardless of the amount of your earnings.

If you expect to earn more than $1,200 in 1955, or in the taxable year beginning in 1955, you should notify the Social Security Administration. A post card form for you to use in sending in such notice was mailed before the end of 1954 to everyone now receiving benefits. Your benefits will be stopped while you are working and payments started again when you have stopped working.

A representative of the Grand Forks Social Security office will be at the city Auditorium in Thief River Falls, Minn. on Tuesday, February 8, at 10 a. m. Individuals having any questions regarding the Social Security Act are urged to call on him at that time.

Says Big Increase In Yield Possible on Farms in State

By proper soil management, fertilizing and other improved practices, Minnesota farmers can boost overall production 30 to 40 per cent above present levels and still keep soil healthy and productive.

This statement came Thursday, from William P. Martin, head of the University of Minnesota's soils department, who spoke in Rochester at the annual banquet of the Minnesota Association of Soil Conservation District Supervisors.

Martin said that in order to feed the 30 million more people we will have in 1975, we will need new production equal to the agricultural output of Wisconsin, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois and Minnesota combined.

At present crop yields and animal production rates, we will be 100,000,000 acres short of enough land to grow the food needed then.

He discussed several means of hiking food production at a low unit cost, and, at the same time, reversing the trend of land depletion and soil loss. One need, he said, is more accurate fertilization. Farmers need to know exactly what their soil needs in order to "feed" it best—and a soil test is a "must" in accurate fertilization.

He said Minnesota farmers could profitably use a million and a half tons of fertilizer—about ten times as much as now—in increasing crop yields and building the soil for the future.

Deer Hunters File Total of 34,076 Reports to Date

During the period November 28, 1954 through January 8, 1955, a total of 34,076 deer hunters' report cards was recorded and tabulated by Bureau of Wildlife Development biologists, it was announced today by Richard J. Dorer, supervisor of the bureau of game.

"The results indicate," Mr Dorer said, "that in the final analysis, the number of deer harvested and the success ratio can be determined only if each hunter cooperates by turning in his report card, regardless of whether or not a deer was taken."

From the 34,076 cards submitted, it was indicated that the following deer were harvested: Adult males 6,751; adult females 5,473; fawn males 2,390; fawn females 1,681.

"As more cards are mailed in," Dorer said, "and it is hoped that all hunters will feel obligated to do so, additional data relative to the 1954 deer season will be released.

Stuart McLe[illegible] Again Named Dairy Day Head

Eight Directors and 3 Associates Elected at Annual Meeting Here

STUART McLEOD

Plans for the sixth annual Northwest Dairy Day to be held in Thief River Falls Tuesday, June 14, were discussed at the annual meeting of the Northwest Dairy Improvement association, sponsor of the event, in this city last Thursday afternoon. In attendance were 40 men representing creameries and other organizations in ten counties which are supporting Dairy Day.

In the election of board members, five directors were reelected, while three new members and three associate members of the board also were named. Those reelected include Irving Meade and Clifford Skime, Roseau; Chester Traaseth, Bagley, and J. M. Roche and L. A. Ihle, Thief River Falls.

New members named were Clifford Kirsting, Waubun; Robert Stommes, Crookston; and Robert Nelson, Hallock. Associate members include Frank Forbes of Warren, district county agent leader; Lew Conlon of Minneapolis, manager of the Minnesota dairy industry committee and originator of Dairy Day; and Gil Thompson of Ada.

At its organization meeting the board reelected all present officers, including Stuart McLeod, president; Irving Meade, vice president; J. M. Roche, secretary; and Elmer Bratsch, treasurer.

Plans for the 1955 Dairy Day as outlined call for conducting it along the same lines as the 1954 event, which attracted more than 200 dairy calves entered by 4-H and FFA members, and 20 candidates for the title of Northwest Dairy Princess, which contest was won by Sonja Sharpe of Shelly. She went on to the state contest, in which she was named one of two attendants to Eleanor Maley, crowned Princess Kay of the Milky Way.

Lew Conlon announced that rules for the Dairy Princess contest have been changed for 1955 to limit candidates to girls who will complete their high school course not later than June of this year and who are not more than 21 years old. He added that they also must have a farm or 4-H club background.

Conlon went on to explain

Harp-vocal Quartet to Appear Monday in Lincoln Auditorium

Four young artists will be on the look-out for three strong men on Monday, February 7, when they arrive in Thief River Falls for their appearance at the Lincoln high school auditorium at 8 o'clock under the auspices of Northwest Concert association. They are the National Music League harp-vocal quartet, and in the back of their station wagon is a 300 pound harp which has to be unloaded for the performance.

The artists are a unique combination in music. To a harp trio is added the lovely voice of Alice Richmond to make a quartet which will feature the delicate and heavenly sound of familiar music for such a group and some spritely arrangements of their own. The program will include solo performances by each of the artists and ensemble numbers, too.

The harpist is Cynthia Otis, familiar to many for her NBC radio broadcasts, and to many others because of her many orchestra appearances. Cellist Lorin Bernsohn has been a member of the Aeolian Trio and is the soloist on many Robert Shaw Chorale recordings.

Flutist Claude Monteux is the son of the noted conductor Pierre Monteux and has most recently been conductor of the Little Symphony in Columbus, Ohio. Alice Richmond has been soloist with the Philadelphia Orchestra and many other symphonies. She made her New York opera debut as "Nedda" in Pagliacci.

Critics' reports have been enthusiastic about the group and have said, "The ensemble immediately captivated its S.R.O. audience with its delightfully blended and unusual combination of voice and harp trio," and "Each of the trio in addition to superb performances as a unit showed remarkable vituosity as soloists."

This unusual musical combination promises to be a highlight for concert goers here.

The quartet's tour of the upper midwest has been arranged by the University of Minnesota Concert, Theatre and Lecture Service.

Council Is Requested to Enact New Ordinance Governing Milk Sales

The city council at an adjourned session Tuesday evening voted to proceed at once with the sale of a $200,000 issue of permanent improvement bonds to aid in financing completed and scheduled sewer and water main projects as well as the new street lights in the business district and the two recently acquired parking lots.

Biggest project to be financed this year is the installation of sewer and water mains in a large area north of Eleventh st. at a cost of approximately $97,300. Also to be provided for are other sewer and water main jobs, some of which have been completed, to cost about $51,000, street lighting, $43,400; and parking lots, $36,000.

Some of the projects, such as the street lighting job, have already been paid for, so that part of the bond issue will serve to replenish the city treasury. Details of the bond issue will be handled by T. G. Evenson, Minneapolis bond consultant.

Present at Tuesday's session were John Wold, president, and Harry R. Lund, director of the Thief River Falls Milk Producers association, who asked the council to consider the enactment of a new ordinance designed to encourage the production by area farmers of Grade A milk.

They stated that the present milk ordinance, adopted more than 20 years ago, is obsolete. Council President Carl Gjernes appointed Aldermen Bob Carlson and S. A. Honebrink, together with City Attorney Robert A. Wurst, to confere with representatives of milk producers and processors in an effort to reach an agreement.

Given its third and final reading followed by adoption was an ordinance making an upward revision in light and power rates as supplied to hospitals, public rest homes, armories and court houses. The measure is designed to bring rates more in line with the cost of producing and distributing electric current.

A representative of the N. W. Bell Telephone Co. was present with A. J. Rau, local manager, to offer to supply the city with a mobile radio system for the use of the city departments including fire, street, water and light at a monthly rental charge of $212 including all maintenance. He said it would materially increase the efficiency of operation of the departments. The council deferred action on the matter.

Approved was the budget of the Carnegie public library representing a small increase over last year's figures.

Receipts up to Tuesday noon in the 1955 Pennington county polio fund campaign had reached the record total of $7,006.69, A. F. Berge, drive chairman, announced. Several districts in the business area have not yet filed final reports, and the total does not include approximately $250 in cash and pledges realized from the radio polio show held in the Auditorium Saturday evening.

Biggest impetus of the past week was given the drive Thursday evening when the Mothers March on Polio conducted in the residential areas of Thief River Falls netted $1,625.39, considerably more than last year's previous record of $1,455.

More than 400 persons attended the highly entertaining show.

Don Olson, manager of Station KTRF, served as emcee of the radio show Saturday night, which included 27 different acts, and which continued until 1:30 a. m. Included were vocal and instrumental solos and groups, and songs by the Legion auxiliary chorus.

Olson thanked all the performers and those who made donations. He added that those who phoned in pledges should mail the money as quickly as possible to Station KTRF.

Chairman Berge reported that the following items make up the total of $7,006.69 collected to date:

Miss Becklund Becomes Bride of V. Storhaug

The Zion Lutheran church of this city was the scene of a pretty ceremony, Sunday, January 23, at 2:30 p. m., when Eunice Becklund, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Becklund of Holt, became the bride of Vernon Storhaug, son of Mr. and Mrs. Haakon Storhaug of this city. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Reinhart Pedersen of Greenbush, assisted by Rev. Walter Pedersen, before an altar graced with white and yellow snapdragons and gladiolus.

Mrs. Reuben Lockrem presided at the organ for Lohengrins "Wedding March" and the other traditional nuptial music. She also accompanied Mrs. O. K. Oie as she sang "O Perfect Love," "The Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, was attired in a gown styled with rosepoint lace over satin bodice with a tulle yoke enhanced by a tiny mandarin collar. The lace sleeves came to a point over the wrists and the double skirt of tulle over satin extended into a train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by matching lace leaves encrusted with pearls. Her gift from the groom was a string of pearls. Two white orchids and stephanotis formed her bouquet.

Mrs. Elroy Skjerping, friend of the bride, was matron of honor, wearing a ballerina length gown of orchid. Her bouquet was of yellow roses and white carnations. LaVerne Holmaas and Berneta Warnecki were the bridesmaids. They wore aqua and white net over taffeta gowns, respectively. Their bouquets were identical to the matron of honor's. They all wore pearl necklaces and earrings, gifts of the bride.

Nancy Warnecki, niece of the groom and Susan Gillespie wore matching gowns of orchid net over taffeta. The bride's gifts to them were strings of pearls. They carried miniature bouquets of yellow roses and white carnations.

Attending the groom were Harold Storhaug, brother of the groom; Russell Becklund, brother of the bride, and Merton Ripley, friend of the groom. The ushers were Robert Becklund, brother of the bride and Art Storhaug, cousin of the groom. Brent Storhaug, ring bearer, carried the rings on a heart shaped pillow.

Mrs. Becklund chose a dress of gray lace with winter white accessories for her daughter's wedding and the mother of the groom wore a navy blue dress with pink accessories. They wore corsages of yellow and pink roses with carnations respectively.

A reception was given by the bride's parents following the ceremony where 200 guests were served from a four tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Rodney Wetterlund cut the cake, which was baked by Mrs. Werner Jacobson. Mrs. O. C. Warnecki, sister of the groom poured, while Mrs. Robert Becklund served the ice cream. The waitresses were Mrs. Harold Brandon and Mrs. Palmer Roos. Beverly Becklund, cousin of the bride, had charge of the guest book, while Joyce Samuelson, Nellie Goodrich and Mrs. Lawrence Neuschwander arranged the gifts.

The bride is a graduate of the Newfolden high school and has been employed for the past two years as bookkeeper at the Farmers Co-op. Grain and Seed Association. The groom is a graduate of Lincoln high school and is employed by the Alexander Construction Co. of Minneapolis.

The couple have returned from a short wedding trip to Minneapolis for which Mrs. Storhaug chose a red wine wool suit with winter white accessories. They will leave this week for New York where they will spend a few days before leaving for the Azores where Mr. Storhaug is employed.

Income Tax Bill Would Give Relief to Some Farmers

Farmers would be permitted to write off part of the cost of improvements for soil conservation purposes under an income tax bill recommended for passage today by the Minnesota House Tax Committee.

The measure is sponsored by Reps. Harry Basford, Wolf Lake; Aubrey Dirlam, Redwood Falls; Alvin O. Hofstad, Madison; L. A. Affeldt, Fosston, and B. M. Wichterman, Plummer.

The amount to be deducted could not exceed 25 per cent of the total gross income derived from farming during the taxable year. The write-offs could be made for expenses of such projects as planting of windbreaks, construction of drainage ditches or ponds, eradication of brush, or for prevention of soil erosion.

BASKETBALL SCORES CLIMB, FIELD NARROWS

State high school basketball tournament is March 24-25-26. Art "Basketball" Johlfs, Minneapolis analyst says his favorites look about the same, "though some powerful darkhorse teams are rolling up impressive scores. The new free-throw rule is making the scores higher. With high school cagers playing 18 minutes less than the champion Lakers," Art continues, "it's easy to figure that the amateurs are out-scoring the professionals: Cokato shot 97 points in one game, Janesville 95, Montgomery 94, Renville 93, Garden City 93 twice, Butterfield 91. Three top scores to date have been Butterfield 91-Comfrey 81—172, Virginia 89-Little Falls 71—160, Westbrook 84-Butterfield 73 — 157." In Region 1 Art likes Austin, Rochester, Albert Lea, Winona; in 2, Windom, Pipestone, Worthington, Mankato; 3, Granite Falls, Dawson, Montevideo, Clarkfield; 4, Red Wing, South St. Paul, St. Paul Monroe, New Prague; 5, Willmar, St. Louis Park, Minneapolis Washburn; 6, Detroit Lakes, Benson, Alexandria, Glenwood, Moorhead; 7, Duluth Denfeld, Chisholm, Hibbing, Eveleth, Virginia; 8, Bemidji, Park Rapids, Cass Lake, Akely. Among likely dark horses Art gives an enthusiastic nod to Lake City, Jackson, Renville, North St. Paul, Minneapolis Roosevelt, Melrose, International Falls, Thief River Falls, Walker, Coleraine, Morris, Cokato, Milaca, Sacred Heart.

TOWARD GREATER HIGHWAY SAFETY

Minnesota state highway department, backed by long years of study and experience, believes that highway safety can be increased by certain new laws, or changes in existing laws. Increase in drivers license fees is recommended, as is also a concerted effort to make drivers license laws uniform in all states. Clarified, to some extent slightly increased, authority is suggested for highway patrol officers. An absolute top speed limit, broader use of chemical tests for alcoholism, prohibition of highway vending, and definite steps to curb littering of highways and rights-of-way are urged. Thought is being given to signs calling upon drivers at certain places to "Yield Right of Way," and to more strict regulation of farm tractors on highways.

Dairy Day Group Held '55 Meeting in City Thursday

that the reason for limiting the princess aspirants to high school graduates is that the girl chosen for state dairy princess will be required to work on a full-time salaried basis for a year after being selected. She also will receive a complete wardrobe and a $750 scholarship.

Last year, Conlon stated, more than 1,700 rural girls competed in local princess contests, the number being reduced to 15 in as many regional contests such as the one held in Thief River Falls.

He also cited the wide publicity given the dairy industry in connection with the trip to Paris made during the recent holiday season by Princess Kay, who presented the milk-loving French premier, Mendez-France, with milk assembled from every state in the union.

Conlon also showed movies of the International Dairy Show held in Chicago last fall, and in which Princess Kay played a prominent part.

President McLeod suggested a smorgasbord supper in the tourist park might be substituted for the annual Dairy Day banquet for participants in the calf and princess contests. In this way, he said, parents of the children, who are barred from the banquet by space limitations, thus would be able to attend. A final decision in the matter was left up to the board of directors.

The financial report submitted by Treasurer Bratsch revealed that receipts in 1954 aggregated $3,493, while disbursements amounted to $3,377. Major items of receipts included $2,957 from Thief River Falls business places; $1,648 from area creameries; and $822 from area banks. Chief expense item was the calf show, costing $2,558. Cash on hand accumulated during five years totaled $3,622.

Ventilate Farm Buildings

Poor insulation and ventilation of your farm buildings causes loss of profits, and dampness rots the building and is unhealthful for livestock.

A new University Extension bulletin N. 253, "Insulation and Ventilation," is now available free. It shows how to repair or build a successful ventilating system.

Copies are available at the extension office or from the Bulletin Room, Institute of Agriculture, University of Minnesota, St. Paul 1.

In it, University agricultural engineers explain that heat is given off by an animal to keep it warm and moisture is given off with the heat. This is the problem a farmer faces: get the moisture out of the building and keep the heat in. Information in Bulletin 253 can help you do the job by following the steps necessary to successful ventilation.

The bulletin recommends using little glass. An ordinary window loses 16 times more heat than an insulated wall of the same size. They suggest only four square feet of glass to every cow in the stanchion. Hogs rate only one square foot of glass window for every 25 square feet of floor space. Poultry—one square foot of glass for every 30 square feet of floor space.

Wall and ceiling insulation also is necessary for good ventilation. The booklet lists insulation material for various frame or masonry construction. It explains kinds of vapor barriers—a treated paper that holds moisture outside the walls.

"Insulation and Ventilation" was prepared by Dennis M. Ryan, Extension agricultural engineer at the University of Minnesota.

Oats—Too Much?

Did you know that feed production from oats is rarely more than you get from alfalfa-brome or from corn? That's even when rust doesn't cut your oat yield. Check your planting plans and see if you really can use as much oats as you first planned. The land might more profitably go into something else. This suggestion comes to us from Harold E. Jones, Extension soils specialist at the University of Minnesota.

Warning About Stilbestrol

New protein supplements containing stilbestrol are offered nowadays for fattening cattle. Here's what W. E. Morris, extension livestock specialist at the University, says about it. "Regard stilbestrol as an extra ingredient—it doesn't replace protein, vitamins or minerals or any other feed element in a ration. Remember, too, that it's designed to be fed fattening cattle and don't feed it to dairy cattle, breeding beef cattle, sheep or swine. Hormones are powerful substances and they must be used exactly as prescribed for best results."

CHATTING with your HOME AGENT

Marge Olson

These are the days when hogs are traveling to the locker plant to return eventually as pork chops, hams, sausage and other tasty pork products.

Since it is now far more common to have the meat ground at the locker plant and taken home for further processing here are some precautions in handling from Ina Rowe, extension nutritionist at the University of Minnesota.

Whether meat is ground at home or at the locker plant, it should be re-processed on the same day it is ground. When the meat is allowed to stand in a big drum for any length of time, chemical action takes place which causes a rise in temperature of the meat, with the result that a souring or fermentation takes place, off flavors develop and the sausage may become unfit for use.

As soon as the meat is ground, season it as desired, then put into cases for sausage, pack it into family-size portions and freeze or smoke it immediately.

Rancidity is one of the problems in handling pork. Spices commonly used in sausage, such as thyme and sage, are usually also antioxidents. For that reason, heavily spiced sausage will perhaps retain its flavor better than sausage which is not heavily spiced. Salt, on the other hand, when combined with fat, tends to hasten rancidity.

When seasoning sausage, it is well to go easy on the salt and heavy on the spices for long-keeping quality, Miss Rowe suggests. It may even be practical to add the salt to the sausage when it is to be prepared for the table.

Directions for preparing sausage are given in Extension Folder 48, "Sausage Recipes" available at the county extension office. Come in for your copy soon.

"We Done It Again"

The ladies basketball game for the "March of Dimes" went over big. The teams dollars and dimes scoring 10 to 14 in favor of the dollars, or scarves—to distinguish the players. The proceeds taken in was $106 and the expense was not too big. The high school cheer leaders put pep into things by the cute cheers of Dollars and Dimes. The program began by singing, "The Star Spangled Banner" by the audience and introduction of the players, clowns, doctor and nurse by Mrs. Kerwin. At half time, the barber shop quartet favored us with a few selections. They were Mr. Wm. Hansen, Mr. Charles Kranz, Mr. Raymond Anderson, and Supt. Leon Orcutt. They really went over and also the trio by the Wigen sisters, Marlys, Shirley and Klaine. Mrs. Otto Paulson and Mrs. Clarence Brosvold favored us with a Swedish duet. The ladies furnished pop corn, candy, home made. We must not forget the tin pan alley band which consisted of various instruments played by real talented musicians. We owe a lot of the success to Mrs. Chwialkowski (our hello girl) who worked so diligently to start it and notify us and also Mr. Kerwin, our coach, for being so patient with us. A good many of the women drove in to town during bitter cold weather to practice so all in all when people cooperate so willingly we hope and pray polio will soon be licked.

Mr. Lang Gund, manager of the elevator has resigned and expects to move out to Montana in the near future. Maybe he has heard of the oil boom! Tiheves Hockey Team Ties Roseau 4 to 4 in Contest Here Sunday

The senior hockey Thieves, making a strong bid to gain a playoff berth, held a 4 to 2 lead moving into the third and final period of their game against the league-leading Roseau Cloverleafs here on Sunday afternoon, but the locals had to settle for a 4-all tie when Monty Markstrom and John Warren banged in Roseau goals in the final period.

The tie gave the Thieves a point in the league standings, but when Grand Forks defeated Crookston 6 to 4, the local club dropped a full game behind the Redwings and the Pirates, who are tied for fourth place.

The Thieves will have an opportunity to pick up some points on the Grand Forks club this week when they play the Redwings a pair of games on the Grand Forks rink. On Friday night, playing off an early season postponement, the Thieves will meet the Redwings in North Dakota U's Winter Sports Building; and on Sunday afternoon the locals will make another trip to Grand Forks for a contest against Don Crough's club.

Sunday's well-played game found the Thieves holding a marked advantage over the Roseau Cloverleafs in the first two periods of play. After Roseau's Gordy Stevens, on a slap shot, had given the Leafs a 1 to 0 lead in the opening minute of play; Chuck Lumaden, on a rink-length solo rush, tallied the equalizer by beating goalie Don Collins on a point-blank shot. Ron Castelane's backhanded shot, at 4:46, gave the Thieves a 2 to 1 lead. Monty Markstrom, who tallied twice for the Leafs, beat goalie Jack McGill at 15:56 of the period.

Bill Juuda's hard drive from the "point," after taking a pass from Church Russell, gave the locals a 3 to 2 lead at the 6:29 mark of the second period. Swede Lund, on a close-in shot, boosted the Thieves' lead to 4 to 2 at the 15:16 mark, with Bud Brossolt setting up the play by recovering the puck in the Roseau defensive zone.

Roseau sliced the Thieves' lead to a goal at the 13:02 mark of the third period when Markstrom, on a double assist from Del Hedlund and Jack Isaacson, beat McGill with a drive into the south goal from ten feet out; and when John Warren tallied at 15:06, the game was in a knot.

Lumaden made a valiant effort to win the game for the Thieves when he made a rush that carried to the goal-mouth, and only a "lucky" save by Don Collins, with the puck just barely being smothered, prevented a score.

With Roseau's Mike Robertson serving a penalty that carried over from the first period, the Prowlers racked up their lone score at the 1:13 mark of the second period, with Jimmy Hall scoring on an assist from Joey Poole. Prowler Quint Loses to EGF Friday 40-37

Locals to Face Potent Grand Forks Central in Contest Here Saturday

Two field goals by East Grand Forks' fine play-making guard, Paul Hanson, in the final minutes of the game provided the East Siders with the points that gave coach Snooks Sullivan's team a 40 to 37 win over the Prowlers in a district cage tilt played here Friday night.

Hanson, who had been scoreless throughout the game, hit with a jump shot with 1:22 to play to break at 35-all tie; and after the Prowlers Bill Frahm, who was the game's high point man, had scored a field goal with 47 seconds to play to again knot the score at 37-all, Hanson, on another jump shot, flipped a field goal into the west basket with 18 seconds to play, giving the Green Wave a 39 to 37 lead. Gary Saunders, with 7 seconds remaining, added a point when he made the second of two free throw tries.

The Prowlers will meet the highly-rated Grand Forks Central Redskins here on Saturday night, Feb. 5th; and on Tuesday night, Feb. 8th, the Warren Ponies will play here in a district conference game.

Friday night's game between the Prowlers and the East Grand Forks Green Wave was a "ball control" type of contest, with both teams stressing possession and playing carefully to set up their scoring plays.

The lead changed hands seven times during the first period, and John Cash's field goal with seconds to play, gave the East Siders a 10-all score at the end of the first eight minutes of the game.

Field goals by Ron Severson and Frahm in the opening minute of the second period shoved the locals into a 14 to 10 lead; but five East Grand Forks field goals, three by Cash and a pair of long shots by Ron Nisbet and Bob Glimsdahl, gave coach Sullivan's squad a 20 to 14 half-time margin.

Four free throw points, by Frahm, Chuck Brandvold, and Mark Bjorkman, carried the Prowlers to within two points of the East Siders early in the third period, and when Frahm, on a drive-in shot, scored a field goal the game was tied at 20-all, with 6:34 of the period remaining. Frahm, fouled on the play, tallied a point on the free throw, and the Prowlers held a one-point lead. Cash looped in a field goal, and Dean Dallum added a free throw.

Frahm, who scored 11 points during the period, tied the score with a fielder at 3:55. And after Cash had hooked in a field goal after recovering a rebound, Frahm netted a jump shot to again tie the score. Field goals by Cash and Saunders brought the East Side score to 29, while a free throw by Bjorkman and a field goal by Frahm boosted the Prowler score to 28 points as the period closed.

The two teams rocketed along on even terms until the final minutes of the contest, when Hanson, with a pair of field goals, took charge of the scoring to give the East Siders a deserved 40 to 37 win.

In the preliminary game, the Prowlers 'B' team, with Dave Hanson scoring 25 points, defeated the East Grand Forks 'B' team, 48 to 36.

An Edge to the East Siders

Said Crookston's Andy Carey, who refereed the East Grand Forks vs. Prowlers basketball game here Friday night: "It looks like a wide-open race for the district title." Andy, who was a member of the Crookston Central Pirates that won the district championship in 1946, and then went on to defeat the Bemidji Lumberjacks in a first round regional tourney game, only to lose in the regional finals to the Roseau Rams, was impressed by the "control" game that the East Siders and Prowlers played on Friday.

Having watched the Crookston Pirates and the East Grand Forks teams in action against the Prowlers, and in spite of the fact that the Pirates had a comparatively easy time in defeating the locals, 64 to 41, while the Green Wave had to break a 37-all tie with less than a minute to play in order to beat coach Al Adams club, we'll lean towards East Grand Forks for our district choice.

Coach Snooks Sullivan's club, and they forced the Bemidji Lumberjacks into an overtime game a couple of weeks ago, appear to have the rugged personnel to take the measure of the Crookston Pirates. The big factor that gives the East Siders their slight edge is center John Cash. Cash, a fine competitor, has improved considerably this season, and he has developed into a first-rate rebounder. Cash dropped in ten field goals against the Prowlers last Friday, and in addition he was a bulwark on the offensive backboard. Forwards Dean Dallum and Gary Saunders, a pair of rangy boys, can give Cash plenty of support on the offensive backboard, too.

A tip-off on the comparative strength of the East Siders and Crookston will be gained this week when, on the East Grand Forks court, the two teams meet in an important district tussle.

"World's" Champions

The local Eklund-Holmstrom American Legion post won the 4th annual Legion curling championship in a bonspiel held at Bemidji on Sunday. The local post's number one rink, skipped by Ken Roche, with Bob Bonny-Mattson at the lead, Ray Streamline Olson, second, and Bob Corn Olson, third, defeated rinks from Blackduck, Park Rapids, Crookston, and Walker in winning their "title."

The boys had to make quite a come-back in order to defeat the Crookston rink in the semi-finals, trailing by a 5 to 0 score at one time, but uncanny accuracy and "thundering casts" pulled out a win for Kenny's rink.

The boys are pretty proud of their win at Bemidji, and they are even making a claim to the "world's" title. If that's so, this is a mighty small world.

Grade School Hockey

Les Vigness, supervisor of the grade school hockey program, tells us that the four-team league—Knox, Washington, Northrop, and St. Bernard's—have entered the second round of their schedule. Knox, with three wins and a tie, is in first place; Washington, last year's city champions, is in second place, having two wins, a loss, and a tie; and Northrop and St. Bernard's are tied for third and fourth place, with each team having two losses and two ties.

With the completion of the schedule, a championship tournament, as has been the custom, will be played on the Arena rink. The first and fourth teams, and the second and third teams will play in the semi-finals; and the two finalists will meet for the championship in an evening game.

Mame

Don't forget that the Minnesota PeeWee hockey tournament, with eight teams competing, will be held here on Feb. 12th and 13th, with the games being played on the Arena rink.

The Eveleth PeeWees, winners of the state title the past three years, is again favored to win the Region Five championship and be on hand to defend their state championship. The Eveleth Peewees have also added the national PeeWee title to their collection the past two years.

Being the host team, the local PeeWee aggregation, coached by Paul Bedard, has been "seeded" into the state hockey tourney here next week.

For the Record

In case Harold Eide missed the announcement by the press and on the radio, Joe DiMaggio, by an overwhelming vote, was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame.

If DiMaggio, or any of the New York Yankees for that matter, had to depend on Eide's vote to get into the Hall of Fame, those boys would be on the outside looking in.

Prowler Cagers Defeat Red Lake Falls, Tally 68-55

Boosts Locals over .500 Mark with Record of Six Victories, Five Defeats

Coach Al Adams Prowler cage squad boosted their season's record over the .500 mark on Tuesday night when, in a district conference game played at Red Lake Falls, the locals scored a 68 to 55 win. The victory gave the Prowlers a season's mark of six wins and five losses. On Saturday night, Feb. 5th, coach Fritz Engel will bring his Grand Forks Central team here for a game against the Prowlers.

On Tuesday night the Prowlers, with Bill Frahm and Chuck Brandvold sparking the attack, rolled up a 20 to 7 lead in the first quarter. In the opening period of play, the Eagles were held to a pair of field goals, both scored by center Terry Fladeland.

The Prowlers outpointed the Eagles, 17 to 11, in the second period to hold 37 to 18 margin at the intermission.

With Fladeland and Beadles doing the bulk of the Red Lake Falls scoring, the Eagles outpointed the Prowlers, who used a number of their reserves in the lineup, in the second half. Fladeland, who was the game's high point player, tallied a pair of field goals and seven free throws in the second half, which with his 13-point effort in the first half, gave him a total of 24 points. Beadles, scoring only a free throw in the first half, looped in seven field goals and a pair of free throws in the second half, marking up a 17-point performance.

Evan Jones, with six field goals and three free throws, paced the Prowler scorers with 15 points, followed by Frahm with 14 points, and Chuck Brandvold with 11 points.

In the preliminary game, the Prowlers 'B' squad, by a 51 to 28 defeated the Red Lake Falls 'B' team.

Warroad Six Bows to Prowler Team 8 to 1

Spotting the Warroad Warriors a goal in the opening minute of play when Roger Christian flashed in to bang his own rebound into the south net at 0:28; coach Dennis Rolle's Prowlers, playing their finest hockey of the season, out-skated and out-hustled the northerners to post a solid 8 to 1 triumph in an important eighth regional conference game played here Tuesday night.

Jim Hall, who was a big factor in the Prowlers play, slammed in the tying goal at 5:08 of the opening period. Jack Poole poked in a pair of quick tallies, scoring on a classic at 6:38 when, after taking a pass from Chip Strand, he "deked" goalie Cecil Anderson out of the net and backhanded a flip into the cage. Jack scored his second goal at 8:46 of the period. Joey Poole, with Sid Vraa and Hall on the assists, whipped in a hard drive at 14:16, and the Prowlers held a 4 to 1 margin.

With Warroad's Albert Johnston in the penalty box, the Prowlers, taking advantage of the infraction rifled in a pair of goals, with Joe Poole and Hall being the triggermen, to give the locals a 6 to 1 lead.

In the final period, Strand, from close in, slapped in a shot at 8:15; and Duane Glass, and a lift from just inside the blue-line, beat Anderson with a screened shot at 10:54.

In the preliminary game, Swede Lund's Prowler 'B' team, with Dale Glass scoring twice and Jimmy Reese adding one, tied the Warroad 'B' team, 3 to 3.

The Roseau Cloverleafs, coached by Gordy Simpson, moved into the lead in the Northwest Hockey league standings by scoring a pair of wins and playing one tie during the week's schedule, picking up five points to gain a three-point margin over the runner-up Warroad Lakers.

With the league schedule having reached the three-quarter mark, it's evident that there will be a bitter struggle for the fourth and final playoff position. The Crookston Pirates and the Grand Forks Redwings, each with nine points, are tied for fourth place, holding a two-point lead over the fifth place Thieves. The Thieves have four games remaining on their schedule, with two of the contests being with the Redwings at Grand Forks, and the other two games being at "home" against Crookston and Warroad.

Jobless Pay Rates up for Adjustment Now

February is a month of decision for employers all over Minnesota. What they will have to decide is whether they should make a voluntary contribution to the Minnesota unemployment compensation fund in order to protect any low tax rate they may have had.

Under the Minnesota Employment Security law, employers who have been subject to the law for three years prior to June 30, 1954, must be assigned an "experience" rate—per cent of payroll—that they must pay on their 1955 payrolls. This tax rate is based on the amount of benefits paid workers as a result of unemployment for which the employer was held to be responsible.

As a rule, employers find it to their pocketbook interest to restore such benefit payments to the fund, thus assuring them a continuation of their rate, as low as one-tenth of one per cent. The rate can be as high as 2.7 per cent.

In 1954 benefits amounted to $26,926,646. The highest previous year was in 1950 when $15,600,000 was paid out. Employers, therefore, have reason to give special consideration this month to the question of whether they should pay back benefits charged to their respective accounts or risk their rate reaching a higher level.

Notices of benefit changes and contribution rates were sent to employers on Jan. 31. They have, except in a few unusual cases, only until March 2 to make a voluntary contribution and thus protect their present rate.

About 75 per cent of the employers in the state have had the opportunity to make a voluntary contribution. As a rule, only about 60 per cent of those "experience rated" send in a voluntary contribution. As a result, the cost of unemployment compensation to some employers is higher than it otherwise would be.

"Because of the unusually high benefits paid last year," says Commissioner F. W. Nichols, of the Department of Employment Security, "all employers should bear in mind that if a low rate is not protected this month, any higher rate assigned will continue as a factor increasing the employer's tax rate for the next three years."

Farm Forum Set for Minneapolis

Event Slated March 3-4 at the Nicollet Hotel

"Farm and City Cooperation for Mutual Prosperity"—will be the theme of the ninth annual Minneapolis Farm Forum March 3 and 4 at the Nicollet Hotel, according to S. P. Duffy, president of Our Own Hardware Company and general chairman of the forum.

The heads of two of the nations leading farm organizations are scheduled to speak on the first day of the forum, which is sponsored by the Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce.

Theme of the first day's discussion is "The Role of Government in Agriculture."

Charles B. Shuman, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, and James G. Patton, president of the National Farmers Union, will open the first session with a discussion of "What do we want in a farm policy?"

Luncheon speaker on the first day will be Charles P. Taft, president of the Committee for a National Trade Policy. He will speak on "The Farmer's Stake in World Trade."

Purpose of the forum is to give farmers and businessmen a chance to discuss agricultural problems with top experts. It is non-partisan and no resolutions are adopted. Those attending are encouraged to give their opinions.

All sessions are open to the public at no charge.

Hardware Store Operators End 1955 Convention

The 58th annual Minnesota Retail Hardware Association convention and show closed in Minneapolis with a banquet and family party in the Radisson hotel. Nearly 3,000 hardware dealers from all parts of the state attended the three day affair, where they assisted at business meetings and browsed among new appliances, housewares and hardware items displayed at the Minneapolis auditorium.

A talk by Governor Orville L. Freeman and a surprise testimonial in honor of C. J. Christopher, Minneapolis, were among the highlights of the meeting. Christopher received a treasure chest containing 1,000 silver dollars to celebrate his 35th year as manager of the Minnesota hardware association, and Governor Freeman presented him with a certificate in appreciation of his work on the governor's commission for business and industrial development for the state of Minnesota.

New officers of the association were named at closing sessions in the Minneapolis auditorium. President for 1955 will be F. Hardy Rickbell, Worthington, who was selected from among the Nation's 30,000 hardware dealers as "Hardware Man of the Year" in 1954. New vice president is A. N. (Andy) Theismann, Wabasha. Rickbell replaces John A. Grande, Virginia.

Try Pleasant Way to Avoid Road Mishaps

The easiest way to prevent traffic accidents, according to Arthur V. Rohweder, president of the Minnesota Safety Council, is also the pleasantest way.

"If every motorist would simply remember to be courteous while driving," he stated, "we'd eliminate most of the causes of accidents from our streets and highways and, at the same time, make driving a car again the pleasure it once was instead of the distasteful task it so often is today."

He pointed out that one simple act of courtesy will make a much more lasting impression than most people realize. He cited the undying fame of Sir Walter Raleigh, who is remembered not for his many feats of derring-do, but for one act of courtesy.

"I am convinced that our greatest, lasting improvements in our battle against traffic accidents," Rohweder said, "will come only when we have convinced everyone that it is his duty to himself and to his fellow motorists to drive safely. And the average motorist doesn't put much stock in so-called 'gadgets' which are supposed to make him or someone else a better driver. So what can the average driver do to be a safe driver?"

Rohweder suggested the following seven ideas as the "code of the road" for every motorist:

1. Share the road by driving in the proper lane at all times.
2. Allow ample clearance when passing, and pass only when it's safe to do so.
3. Yield the right of way to other drivers and to pedestrians.
4. Give proper signals in plenty of time for the turns and stops.
5. Dim headlights when meeting or following closely behind other vehicles.
6. Respect all traffic laws, signs, signals and road markings.
7. Adjust driving to road, traffic and weather conditions.

Bids Are Asked on Roseau Road Job

Bids on nine trunk highway improvement projects, to cost an estimated $890,000, will be received by State Highway Commissioner M. J. Hoffmann, February 18. Contractors' proposals will cover 57.2 miles of bituminous work, one bridge and five sets of traffic controls.

The projects include Roseau County T. H. 11—Plant-mixed bituminous surfacing of 12½ miles between Warroad and Roosevelt, requiring 5,573 tons of gravel mixture, 9,536 tons of aggregate, 940 tons of AC-1 bituminous material and 17,744 tons of bituminous mixture.

Order Exams for Patrol Officers

Information Available at Employment Offices

Robert D. Stover, director of the Minnesota civil service department, today announced examinations for the class of highway patrol officer.

Patrol officers patrol the highways in automobiles, enforce traffic laws on state trunk highways, report violations, make arrests and appear as witnesses in court. They direct and control traffic, aid and assist the public, investigate accidents and administer first aid to the injured.

The salary range for Officers is $300 to $340 per month. The examination will consist of a written test, an interview, character investigation, physical examination and the patrol training school.

Examination announcements and application forms may be obtained at the Minnesota state civil service department, 22 State Office Building, St. Paul 1, Minnesota, or any Minnesota state employment office.

1954 No. Central's Most Profitable Year, Carr Reports

Revenue Passengers Show Increase of 30 Pct.; Net Earnings Total $115,000

North Central Airlines concluded the year 1954 with a record operating profit of $170,653.00 and a net of $115,043.00, according to preliminary figures disclosed today in Minneapolis by H. N. Carr, president.

This profit was achieved despite serious financial reverses in the first four months of the year.

The year outdistanced 1953 by wide margins in all categories of traffic and operations, Carr reports. A total of 283,556 revenue passengers flew North Central in 1954 for a 30 per cent gain over 1953. Airmail—121,058 ton-miles—topped 1953 by 12 per cent, and air express—104,722 ton-miles—exceeded 1953 by 20 per cent.

Service over the five-state system was increased by 21 per cent to 5,174,209 plane miles, and revenue passenger miles rose to 47,456,757, a gain of 26 per cent over 1953.

System load factor (per cent of occupied seats) rose from 41.9 per cent to 43.4 per cent; percentage of flights operated increased from 94.2 per cent to 96.8; and on-time performance jumped from 63 per cent to 75 per cent—all new records for North Central.

These achievements are considered amazing by those who were aware of the grave condition of the airline just nine months ago. North Central suffered a loss of $114,588 in 1953 and continued to lose an average of $37,000 monthly in January, February, March and April. It was the highest-cost, lowest-profit local service airline operation.

The Navy's surface-to-surface guided missile Regulus has been successfully tested for use by ships and facilities ashore.

ENCOURAGING OUR FRIENDS

There were only three opposing votes in each house of Congress to the granting of the authority requested by President Eisenhower in dealing with the Formosa situation. That made it practically unanimous and strengthened very materially the position of the chief executive in the forthcoming developments.

The gravity of the situation has not been underestimated. In its deliberations on this proposal the Senate weighed carefully all of the possible consequences. It was realized that such action might lead us to war. It was realized too that failure to act might also lead to war, and so the possibility of war is very much a calculated risk.

In favor of such action is the certainty that it will give encouragement to those Asiatics who have a desire to maintain their independence. Their determination to resist further Red aggression is essential to the defense of that entire area. Only as they are willing to fight in their own behalf is there any hope of holding the line and from this standpoint the President's declaration of policy is tremendously important.

UNIVERSITY FINANCING

A Legislative Research committee (LRC) report states conservatively that University of Minnesota officials have been "conservative" in their estimates of anticipated income in making their appropriation requests. In the past seven years actual income for maintenance has exceeded these estimates by nearly 12 million dollars, the report indicates.

In appropriating for the regular agencies of the state the legislature exercises considerable control over the use of funds. Money must be spent for the particular purpose for which it is authorized and balances generally revert to the fund from which they are appropriated at the end of a prescribed period. But the University is not a "regular" agency of the state. It is an independent authority created by the Constitution and is governed by a board of regents.

The legislature has always recognised this independent status and the University has not been required to account for its operations as have the ordinary agencies. This relationship apparently needs a careful re-examination.

The University draws heavily on the taxpayers for support. For the next two years it is asking for 34½ million dollars in addition to its earnings and revenues from other sources. The legislature has an obligation to the taxpayers as well as to the University and with so large a sum of taxpayers' dollars involved the University probably should be subjected to the same kind of controls that are imposed on those who spend state money for other purposes.

The University should be completely independent as a school. Under no circumstance should the legislature interfere in its academic operations. But the legislature should have a lot to say about how many taxpayers' dollars are going to be made available for the school and in general terms for what purposes those dollars are going to be spent.

BEST FOR THE INDUSTRY

Agricultural Secretary Benson says milk handling costs can be lowered and the gap between cost and selling price narrowed. He referred specifically to the high cost of retail deliveries and stated that consumers who wish to pay cash and do their own delivering should have a chance to so "at a price which represents the reduction in costs involved."

He has also ordered a study of the federal barriers to milk sales that give monopoly control of markets in large cities to the producers operating within a limited area. In many instances prices within such controlled areas are out of line with costs to the extent that they discourage consumption and therefore are not in the best interests of the dairy industry as a whole.

These are conditions that have made it impossible to effectively organize the dairy industry for production control purposes. A large segment of the industry is already enjoying protection and has not been adversely effected by the reduction in price supports. This segment is contributing to the difficulties of the overall problem, however by dumping its surpluses into the open market beyond the limits of its protected zone.

There is no good reason why the federal government should lend its support to a practice of this kind. On the contrary it should be opposed to all unjustifiable barriers to a free exchange of goods and services. High standards of quality and sanitation are a must in the production and distribution of milk for human consumption but protected zones are no longer essential for this kind of control. Secretary Benson is moving in the right direction.

VETERANS PREFERENCE

An interim committee on civil service has recommended a revision in the state's veterans preference laws. The committee points out that we have gone too far in our efforts to favor the disabled in state employment. Because the present law makes it possible for incompetent employees to rise over the heads of highly qualified persons, including veterans, employee morale in state government is not good.

The St. Paul Pioneer Press, in discussing the report, states:

> A few simple changes in the law would remove the worst of the abuses, while continuing a reasonable degree of preference. The committee recommends that all applicants for civil service jobs be required to make a passing grade (70) on their examinations before taking advantage of the extra 10 points allowed disabled veterans and five points allowed other veterans. This would rule out persons obviously unqualified for the work to be done.
>
> It also is urged that special advantages established for disabled veterans should be enjoyed only by those who actually are disabled. The United States Veterans administration allows disability compensation only for those rated as 10 per cent or more disabled. Minnesota preference laws give as much advantage to a veteran with zero degree disability as to one who lost a leg in battle. The zero degree rating indicates no disability at the present time. It is a device for protecting a veteran's future rights in case an old ailment or injury, even a sprained ankle, should cause trouble in later years.
>
> The committee says all veterans should be placed on the eligibility lists in the rank earned by their examination rating, after it is augmented by their preference points. It believes preference points should be used either toward getting a job originally or toward promotions later. Either all or part of the points could be applied at any one time, but after all had been used, any succeeding examination would have to be on merit alone. This would enable persons with the greatest ability eventually to rise to the top positions.
>
> Adoption of these recommendations would help make state civil service a genuine merit system.

U. S. Internal Revenue

Why You Must File a Federal Income Tax Return for 1954.

If you are a salaried worker and have an income of more than $600 a year, most of your federal income tax is withheld from your wages every payday or paid on declarations of estimated tax every quarter. However, the law requires you to file an annual return to determine your correct tax liability and whether you owe more or you should get a refund.

If you have questions concerning your federal income tax return for 1954, see the local office of your district director of internal revenue, or write to him at 932 New Post Office Building, St. Paul 1, Minnesota.

ORE SHIPPING STARTED MODESTLY

That the first shipment of Minnesota iron ore on the Great Lakes consisted of six barrels aboard the steamer Baltimore in 1852, is disclosed in the current issue of Minnesota Historical Society's "Gopher Historian". In 1853 the Soo canal was begun around St. Mary's rapids between Lakes Superior and Huron. In 1855 the sailing vessel Columbia carried the first full ore cargo, 132 tons—loaded and unloaded by wheel-barrow. In 1860 the spectacular "whaleback" joined the ore-carrying fleet, finally disappearing in 1946 before still more modern methods of transporting on water.

SMILEY . . .

GROWING WITH YOUR CHILD

Institute of Child Welfare
University of Minnesota

Teenager—Coming or Going?

Parents often wonder whether their teenager is coming or going—coming into adulthood or going back into childhood. He wants to drive the car, but doesn't hang up his clothes. He proudly reports that he has charge of ticket sales for a school event, but overspends his weekly allowance. The typical teenager is reaching for maturity while he retains many childish characteristics.

Within a short space of time he is faced with problems of vocational choice, of his relation to the opposite sex, of standards of behavior. These are common adult concerns. They are intensified for the adolescent as he first encounters many of them with great rapidity and intensity. Coming from childhood he is often bewildered. Seeing himself as going into adulthood he is often overconfident.

Parents can help ease the shift from child to adult status. Understanding and appreciation of the teenager is increased if one realizes that such a change takes time and is invariably dotted with both childish and grown up behavior. Independence must be granted—but in ways and amounts that the teenager can handle successfully. While he needs freedom to make up his own mind, he also needs the security of knowing that he can depend upon the love and support of his parents as he assumes adult responsibilities.

He needs to develop an acceptable personal code of behavior which is more than an uncritical duplication of that of his parents. Standards which he has worked through for himself have real meaning for him. Over a period of time the convictions and practices of the parents will usually not be violated if good parent-child relationships have existed.

He needs to find satisfying and acceptable ways of getting along with the opposite sex. This is made easier if parents accept such interests as a wholesome sign of maturity.

He wonders how he will earn his living. Although he wants financial independence immediately, he must plan and prepare for his future work. A variety of work experiences, and the opportunity to observe various vocations can help in choosing a career.

HOTTEST BUICK IN HISTORY
No wonder you see so many 1955 Buicks on the highways—they're rolling up bigger sales than ever in history—topping the popularity that has already made Buick one of the "Big Three."

You can take it over for only $2376.88* delivered locally!

MOST PEOPLE still don't believe it. But it is true.

And when you look into the facts, you'll find these two solid truths:

Buick is one of the "Big Three" in sales volume—and hotter this year than ever before. And Buick is one of the "Big Three" when it comes to prices which make such popularity possible. The price we show here proves it.

So why not get what a Buick has to offer, if you are in the market for a new car?

You find that the dollars you pay for Buick buy you a lot more automobile—and the sheer satisfaction that comes with bossing a brawny traveler of this caliber.

You find it in the record-high V8 power that gives life to this spirited performer. You find it in the soft and level and cruiser-steady ride that comes of all-coil springing and torque-tube stability. You find it in the extra roominess, the extra frame strength, the extra tread width, the extra silencing—all part and parcel of every Buick.

We could tell you about the little things, too. Things usually charged for as "extras" in other cars, but yours as standard equipment at no extra cost in every Buick. Things like direction signals, oil-bath air cleaner, full-flow oil filter, automatic lighting in glove and trunk compartments—and so on.

But—you get the idea. This is a buy, this '55 Buick—a great buy—and a thriller from the instant you press its gas pedal. Come in this week and check things for yourself, won't you?

*2-door, 6-passenger Buick SPECIAL Sedan, Model 48, illustrated. Optional equipment, accessories, state and local taxes, if any, additional. Prices may vary slightly in adjoining communities. Even the factory-installed extras you may want are bargains, such as: Heater & Defroster . . . $81.70; Radio & Antenna . . . $92.50.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our beloved son and brother Harry Jr. who passed away one year ago, February 7th:

We cannot say, and we will not say

That he is dead. He is just away!

With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,

He has wandered into an unknown land,

And left us dreaming how very fair

It needs must be, since he lingers there.

And we—oh we, who the wildest yearn

For the old-time step and the glad return,

Think of him faring on, as dear

In the love of There as the love of Here;

Think of him still as the same, we say:

He is not dead, he is just away.

Sadly missed by his parents, sisters and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hendrickson, Sharon, Mrs. Robert LeGault and Kieth. 5c

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

A Winner Every Time!

Last Friday at our big basketball game with Centerville I sat next to a fine-looking old man. Centerville had things their way the first half — and he cheered every score they made.

But our boys began to catch up. Then Stretch Brown put us in the lead with a long set shot, —and I noticed that the old fellow was now rooting for our side. "What team are you for, anyway?" I demanded.

"Neither," he replied. "I've got my own team. I figure any kid that does a good job out there is on my team. Root for the individual like I do — and you'll always back a winner!"

From where I sit, maybe it is a good idea to keep our eye on the individual, instead of automatically grouping him on teams you're "for" or "against." We're all individuals at heart, with our likes and dislikes — our right to prefer tea to coffee or beer to buttermilk ... our right to "blow the whistle" when anyone tries to regiment us.

QUESTIONS answered for VETERANS

Veterans with personal problems or questions should consult Leo L. Haley, Contact Representative, Room 210-211 Post Office Building or Box 875, Grand Forks, North Dakota.

Q—Toward the end of my grace period, I made out a check for my monthly GI insurance premium, but I just now remember I forgot to sign it. I have plenty of money in the bank to cover the payment. What will happen? Will my insurance lapse?

A—Your insurance will not lapse. VA will send you a letter notifying you of your error. You will have 31 days from the date of the letter to send in another check, bringing your premium payments up to date.

Q—If I make advance payments on my GI home loan, is there any minimum size the payments must be?

A—Yes. Your advance payment may be less than the amount of one installment, or $100—whichever is lower.

Q—My husband, a World War II veteran, bought a home with a GI loan before he died of a service-connected disability. As an unremarried widow, would I still be eligible for a GI loan in my own right, even though he used the benefit?

A—Yes. The fact that he used his GI loan entitlement would not serve to bar you from using yours, as the unremarried widow of a veteran.

Q—I am a lawyer. I interrupted my profession to join the armed forces, and I have just been discharged. Would I be allowed to take some brush-up courses in law under the Korean GI Bill, before resuming my practice?

A—No. The law prohibits veterans from training for objectives they already had reached, by reason of prior experience or training. Before service, you already reached your objective of lawyer.

Volume Forty-four — Thief River Falls, Pennington County, Minnesota — Wednesday, February 2, 1955 — Number Five

Through many varied activities the nation's 3,660,000 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Explorers and adult leaders will observe the 45th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America during Boy Scout Week, Feb. 6 to 12., with its theme, "Building for a Better Tomorrow."

Boy Scout Week is the largest annual single observance by young citizens. Since Scouting's incorporation in Washington, D. C., on Feb. 8, 1910 more than 22,750,000 boys and leaders have been enrolled.

The 95,000 units in all parts of the nation, its territories and overseas bases, will dramatize through demonstrations, exhibits, window displays, and "pot luck" dinners with parents participating the purpose of Scouting and the rich heritage it has in this country.

Boy Scout Week completes the national conservation good turn the Scouts have undertaken at the request of President Eisenhower, their honorary president. Members will report to their sponsoring institutions and public officials their accomplishments in arousing "public recognition of the need for adequate protection and wise management of our soil, water, mineral, forest, grassland and wildlife resources."

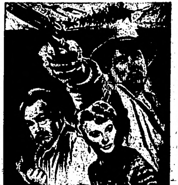
President Eisenhower will honor in the White House during Boy Scout Week the 12 Boy Scouts and Explorers having the most outstanding records of conservation.

Throughout the nation Scout Units which qualified are to receive national conservation good turn certificates of merit awarded jointly by Ezra Taft Benson, secretary of agriculture, and Douglas McKay, secretary of the interior.

Most of the nation's 32,000 Cub Packs with 1,160,000 members will hold Blue and Gold Pot Luck "banquets" with each family bringing a part of the menu. They are the 8, 9 and 10-year old members who follow a home-centered program in their homes and backyards.

The Cub Scouts will have "Let Freedom Ring" as their Boy Scout Week program, with the February birthdays of Washington, Lincoln and the late Lord Robert Baden-Powell, founder of Scouting, as subjects of their dramatizations and story telling. Cub Scouts will honor their older members as they "graduate" into Boy Scout Troops. There will be skits, songs and games.

At "Our Heritage" celebrations in most of the 51,000 troops who have 1,130,000 members, the lives of the three men will be portrayed to show how they lived the ideals embodied in the Scout Oath and Laws.



"THE VIOLENT MEN," Columbia Pictures' Cinemascope drama of a bitter fight for the land, stars Glenn Ford, Barbara Stanwyck and Edward G. Robinson in color by Technicolor at the Falls Theatre starting Sunday for four days.

To help organize the Crusade for Freedom fund raising drive during Freedom Week, which begins with Lincoln's birthday, February 12 and ends with Washington's, February 22, a state committee, consisting of civic, fraternal and service leaders throughout Minnesota has been appointed by Co-Chairmen Ed Haislet and Benjamin Berger, it was announced today.

The purpose of the Crusade for Freedom is to raise money in support of Radio Free Europe in order to keep resistance, hope and the spirit of democracy alive in countries behind the Iron Curtain and also to counteract untruthful propaganda disseminated by Communists against America. Minnesota's quota is $50,000, contributions may be sent to the Crusade for Freedom, c-o your local postmaster.

Essay Contest on Conservation to Open February 7

Women's Club Federation to Sponsor Event Open to High School Students

"Our Land And Water—Basic Resources" will be the title of the 12th annual conservation essay contest sponsored by the Minnesota Federation of Women's Clubs, with the department of conservation cooperating, it was announced today by Mrs. Floyd McDunn, Pelican Rapids, president of the federation. The contest, open to both public and private school students in grades 9 through 12, gets under way February 7 and will close at noon, April 21.

The 20 winners in the essay contest (a boy and girl winner will be selected by a committee of judges in each of the ten districts comprising the Minnesota Federation of Women's Clubs) will be awarded a week's vacation at Douglas Lodge, Itasca state park, as members of the annual Conservation Caravan, with all expenses paid.

Purpose of the contest, according to Mrs. McDunn, is to "stimulate the story and learning of some of the fundamental principles in conserving soil and water, in order that we may recognize the dependency of all other resources. In fact, our very lives, on these two."

Further information and entry blanks for the contest are available. Inquiries should be addressed to "Essay Contest, Room 633, State Office Building, Saint Paul 1, Minnesota."

Employers Told To Give Withholding Slips to Workers

District Director of Internal Revenue A. R. Knox is asking for the cooperation of all employers in the early distribution of withholding tax statements, Form W-2, to their employees. The forms must be issued by January 31, 1955, and penalties are provided for employers who fail to issue them on time.

Director Knox stated that the Form W-2 is a necessary part in the filing of a Federal income tax return by an employee. Taxpayers who have these forms at an early date will be able to file their returns well before the deadline of April 15. Returns resulting in refunds will receive special handling to expedite the refunds.

Blank forms W-2 are available at the internal revenue district office located in the postoffice building, St. Paul, Minnesota. The form is to be made out in triplicate, showing the wages paid to the employee during 1954 and the amount of income tax withheld from his wages.

Employers are reminded that they must issue a Form W-2 to each employee whose income was subject to withholding and also to any employee who would have been subject to withholding if he had only one exemption.

Medics Suggest Short Nap Daily

Say It is Safeguard Against Heart Disease

"Take a short nap for a long life." That is a present-day proverb that American men should take to heart for a stronger heart, according to a bulletin from the Minnesota State Medical association today.

The doctors advise that men who are 45 and over should realize that taking an afternoon siesta is not "sissified." The afternoon siesta is a foreign product we could import cheaply and use to our great advantage, to help save hearts. Many older people in Italy, for example, do hard physical labor that would be almost impossible for Americans; their early afternoon rest is a contributing factor to their long lives.

Men who are 45 and over should heed the threat in statistics: in 1938, 9,273 men in the 45-49 year age bracket died of heart trouble, compared with 4,352 women. And in 1948, 11,584 men of 45-49 died from heart trouble, compared with 3,906 women—almost three times as many men as women! And, the figures for ages 50-54 and 55-59 tell the same story.

Everyone knows rest is a good cure for heart trouble, but more attention should be given to the importance of regular periods of "taking it easy" as an excellent preventive measure.

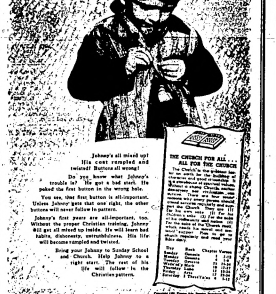
A hunter-killer unit is composed of Navy aircraft with detection equipment and destroyers; the aircraft seek out enemy submarines and call for destroyers to make the kill.



Johnny's all mixed up! His coat rumpled and twisted! Buttons all wrong!

Do you know what Johnny's trouble is? He got a bad start. He poked the first button in the wrong hole.

You see, that first button is all-important. Unless Johnny gets that one right, the other buttons will never follow in pattern.

Johnny's first years are all-important, too. Without the proper Christian training, Johnny will get all mixed up inside. He will learn bad habits, dishonesty, untruthfulness. His life will become rumpled and twisted.

Bring your Johnny to Sunday School and Church. Help Johnny to a right start. The rest of his life will follow in the Christian pattern.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

THE MINNESOTA STORY

Prepared by the

Minnesota Historical Society

THE PIONEER PRESS

The story of the newspapers of Minnesota shows how editors and publishers may come and go, live and die, but newspapers may go on forever.

The Minnesota Pioneer was the first newspaper of the territory and the state. James M. Goodhue was the first publisher. He arrived on the steamboat Senator at St. Paul, on the morning of April 18, 1849. He took his small printing plant ashore. The town was crowded: He put his plant in the only vacant room. He described his quarters as "open as a cornrick." The chases for his newspaper had been left behind so load blacksmiths were put at work to overcome this deficiency. It was his intention to call his paper the "Epistle of St. Paul" but he said that there were so many little towns named for saints that he felt his first choice of name might be unwise. So he changed the name to the "Minnesota Pioneer."

The first issue of the paper appeared on April 28, 1849. The publisher bought a half a lot and built a home for his ambitious publication. But Goodhue was not to see much of St. Paul. He fell from a ferry boat into the river. His exertions to save his life were strenuous. He died on August 27, 1852. The next year the Minnesota legislature gave the Goodhue name to a county cut from lands recently ceded by the Indians.

The Minnesota Historical Society has a copy of the first issue of the Minnesota Pioneer which has endured through more than a century of change to become the Pioneer Press of the St. Paul of this day.

BOARD FROM PULP

The first commercial saw mill on the Mississippi river at the Falls of St. Anthony began operation in 1858. Logs were sawed at Minneapolis for a full three score and ten years. During all of the later years the mills were moving upstream. The last large mill of the state was on the north flowing waters at International Falls. Built after 1910 its operations continued on a large scale, until the late 1920ies when the refuse burner grew cold, the great number of horses needed around the mill were put into the woods or out to pasture and men turned to another interesting task.

It was at this home of the last large mill that a strikingly different product was made. This was an artificial board, the first made in the United States.

Experimentation in making an artificial board began at St. Paul in 1909. The material used was flax straw. The product showed possibilities but lacked strength. Five years later the experiment was moved to International Falls where raw material from the forests was available. A new board from wood pulp, three-eighths of an inch thick and four feet wide, was first produced. The first shipment to a commercial user was in July, 1914. The great fire at Cloquet in 1918 created a demand for this substitute for lumber which was used extensively to rebuild a community dependent upon logs, saws and mills.

Beginning in 1920 production increased rapidly and, by the time the sawmill was dismantled the border had a new and larger industry.

SELKIRK'S COLONY

Thomas Douglas, Earl of Selkirk, was a kindly, visionary Scotchman. In the year 1811 he obtained a grant of land on the Red River of the North and the following year a number of Scotch families settled on these lands, coming into them by way of Hudson's Bay.

The war of 1812 had created an intense feeling between the States and Britain. The fur trading companies were at war. The pioneer traders of Minnesota did all they could to harass the new settlement. The Indians were set against it. The colony was reported destroyed.

Selkirk appealed for aid. The British military authorities refused it. Selkirk then assembled a force of four officers and eighty men, from regiments in the recent war, and sent them forward by way of the Great Lakes. In 1817 Selkirk was at the headwaters of the Red River. He obtained additional lands from the Indians and started to rebuild his decimated colony. In returning, he crossed to the Mississippi, enroute to St. Louis. He was not well received in the land of suspicious men contending with the British companies for the control of the fur trade.

A few years later Selkirk agents recruited some two hundred prospective settlers in Germany. They also came into the Red River country by way of Hudson's Bay and its hardships. They had been promised a mild country and it was cold. There was no wood for fuel. In the season before grasshoppers had eaten everything that was green. The new people did not stop for long. Most of them went on to the Mississippi and many of them became early settlers and the first farmers in what is now the more southerly part of Minnesota.

DEATH AT THE FORT

It was not until the creation of the territorial government that Minnesota had a resident physician. Military posts had doctors previous to that time. It was not for a generation after Minnesota was formed as a territory or a state that the larger part of the population was within walking, rowing or riding distance of a doctor.

Fort Snelling was occupied in 1820. In the year previous Colonel Leavenworth arrived with a number of men to build the fort. Temporary barracks were established. Suddenly violent illness struck the camp. Within a short time nearly half of the men died. A man could be well at night and dead in the morning. In one case, a man went off sentinel duty, lay down to rest, and was dead when recalled four hours later.

The affliction was called "scurvy," a common illness in pioneer days based upon diet deficiency. Today, it might be called a most deadly form of food poisoning, for the cause became known.

It appears that the military contractors at St. Louis had forwarded several barrels of salt pork to the fort. To lighten the load up-river the brine was poured off. To cover this deception the barrels, on arrival, were filled with river water.

Colonel Leavenworth had no medical help. He sent to Prairie du Chien for vinegar and had men go over to the St. Croix and Chippewa rivers for Indian remedies.

Lutherans Plan Welfare Meeting in Mineapolis

An "inventory" of welfare problems facing many Lutherans of the state is being taken by the Lutheran Welfare Society of Minnesota as one of the society's 50th anniversary year projects.

Its purpose is "to help congregations help people," according to Harold Belgum, director of social work services of the society. He said the results will be reported at the Lutheran Welfare Golden Jubilee assembly in Minneapolis February 20-22. This event will be attended by Lutheran pastors, and a deacon, trustee and congregational representatives from all Lutheran congregations.

Through the "inventory," some 600 pastors have been asked to check the frequency with which they have encountered such problems as alcoholism, child delinquency, mental illness, divorce and family conflict in their ministry in 1954.

They are requested to indicate whether the welfare services offered by public, private and church agencies to help with these problems were "adequate," "inadequate" or "not received."

U. S. Brotherhood Week to Be Noted February 20 to 27

National Brotherhood week, February 20 to 27, will be sponsored in Minnesota by 16 human relation agencies, united at the suggestion of Governor Orville L. Freeman, honorary chairman for the state-wide observance.

Nationally, Brotherhood week will be sponsored by the National Conference of Christians and Jews. President Eisenhower is national honorary chairman of the week. Ben Duffy, president of Batten, Barton, Durstine & Osborn, advertising agency, is general chairman.

Declared President Eisenhower in announcing the theme of the week, "One Nation Under God," the spirit behind Brotherhood week is as old as civilization.

"All men—of all religions, of all colors, of all languages—are in fact brothers . . ." he pointed out. "It is imperative that we heroically by word and deed give voice to our faith: that every man is indeed his brother's keeper, that no human being in the world can escape his spiritual involvement in what happens to any other human being, that no man, in the troubled sea of mankind, can be an island."

Minn Historical Society Historical Building St. Paul 1, Minn.

Benefit Nets $1,[illegible] for N. Legvold [illegible]nily

The benefit show for the family of the late Norman Legvold, presented in the municipal Auditorium Saturday evening by Phil Johnson of St. Paul and his troupe of 15 versatile entertainers, was enjoyed by a responsive audience that filled the spacious building virtually to capacity.

As a climax to the evening Stan Cockrell, in charge of ticket sales for the event, turned over the proceeds of $1,381 to Mr. Johnson, who in turn presented the entire amount to Harold M. Johnson, commander of the local Legion post and treasurer of the committee which will administer the fund for the benefit of the Legvold family.

Other members of the committee are Alvin Christofferson, Leslie Paetznick and Harlan Huseth, respectively heads of the Elks and Eagles lodges and the VFW post, all co-sponsors of the benefit.

The money represents the entire proceeds of the show, Phil Johnson and his troupe having donated their services, while the Elks grand lodge provided transportation and the local Elks furnishing meals and housing for the troupe.

Phil Johnson, who served as master of ceremonies, also proved himself to be an accomplished sleight-of-hand artist, performing a variety of mystifying feats.

Other stellar performers were Skeets Langlie, 12-year-old accordionist who has won national honors; Dorothy Mattimore, eccentric dancer; Marcella Tobiason and Roger Carlson, vocalists; Nancy Graves, skilled baton twirler; a chorus line of David Johnson and six girls; Helen Carlson, pianist; and Terry Lynn and Dot Gustachoff, soft shoe dancers.

Al Christofferson stated today that anyone who missed the show and who wishes to contribute to the fund may turn their donations over to any member of the committee.

State Finance Discussed at C of C Session

Don Olson Reports on Legislative Study Parley in Detroit Lakes

A detailed report on the legislative study conference held January 18 at Detroit Lakes was given by Don Olson, manager of Radio Station KTRF, at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon meeting last Thursday noon in the Rex Cafe.

As evidence of the financial problems facing the current session of the legislature, Olson said it was pointed out at the conference that state governmental expenditures have tripled in the last ten years to reach a total of more than $300,000,000 in 1954.

Commenting on the state income tax, W. E. Dahlquist said that while rates have not been increased, the revenue from the income tax has increased from a few million dollars 20 years ago to more than $50,000,000 at present due to the expanding economy. Even so, he said, state school aids financed by the income tax are greater than present revenues, and he added that it is proposed to increase basic school aid from $80 per pupil to $92, thus accentuating the financial problem.

Introduced at the meeting was Carl Gjernes, who in January was one of three Minnesota elevator managers to receive an award from the Minnesota Crop Improvement association. County Agent Wm. Penning said Gjernes merited the recognition in view of his work in promoting the use of pure, weed-free seeds in this area.

Secretary J. M. Roche suggested that the Chamber be represented by a large delegation at the Winter Shows in Crookston the week of February 21. He also stated that the state midget hockey tournament will be held in the local arena February 12 and 13, and asked for sponsors for the seven teams taking part.

Co. Board Acts on School Petitions for Dissolution

Two Districts to Be Added to St. Hilaire; Other Petitions Filed

A hearing on a similar petition relating to School District 180 was adjourned to May 3 when several parties objected to the move.

The board voted a belated appropriation of $1,000 to the support of the rural library service maintained by the Carnegie library board for the year 1954.

After conducting an adjourned hearing on the projected extension of County Ditch 45, the board dismissed the proceedings as impractical, the parties concerned concurring in the action.

County Engineer Jos. Seidel submitted preliminary plans for the addition of two laterals to County Ditch 35 in Silverton and Smiley townships, and a hearing on the matter was set for March 8.

Sunnyrest Board Asks Legislature to Continue San

Opposes Recommendation of State Commission That It Be Merged with Others

The Sunnyrest Sanatorium commission at Crookston recently adopted a resolution recommending to the state legislature that Sunnyrest continue operation "for a few years longer at least."

Commission members passed the resolution in view of a Minnesota Tuberculosis Facilities Commission report suggesting that smaller sanatoriums in the state be closed; a few larger ones would take over their work. This report is now before the legislature.

The Sunnyrest resolution describes the reorganizing of Polk, Norman, Marshall, Pennington, Roseau and Red Lake counties into one large district effective Dec. 1, 1954. Its only sanatorium is Sunnyrest at Crookston.

The gist of the resolution is that this new arrangement be tried before the legislature considers closing Sunnyrest. In conclusion it states: ". . . It is the concensus of opinion of the Sanatorium Commission that it (to close) would not be to the best interests of Public Health . . . in these six counties; also it would cost considerable more to care for their cases in another institution if Sunnyrest were closed at this time, and that the best interests of the people can be served by continuing its operation for a few years longer at least."

The resolution motion was introduced by Carsten Mead and seconded by George Fricker.

Once Communist Leader to Speak Here Friday Night

Mrs. Helen Wood Birnie, formerly a leading Communist Party functionary, is scheduled to speak Friday, Feb 11, at 8:00 p. m. at the Thief River Falls Lincoln high school auditorium. Her subject will be "Why I left the Communist party." The meeting is sponsored by Christian Anti-Communist Crusade.

She will tell about the series of circumstances that caused her to tear up her membership card and throw it in the faces of the Section Committee in Des Moines. The Government subpoened her as a key witness in the trial of top Communist leaders to testify to the treasonous character of Communism. Congressional committees subpoened her to give extensive valuable testimony on the structure, organization, and objectives of the Party. She has been urged by Justice Department and particularly the Velde Committee to tell her story to the American people without letup.

Her question-and-answer periods following her addresses are illuminating. She believes she is paying her debt to this Nation by exposing this anti-American conspiracy. The public is welcome.

Outstanding Men on Minneapolis Farm Forum Mar. 3

Members of Congress Scheduled to Report on Future of Agriculture

Theodore V. Houser, chairman of the board of Sears, Roebuck and Co., will head the list of speakers scheduled to appear during the second day of the ninth annual Minneapolis Farm Forum March 3 and 4 at the Nicollet hotel, it was announced today by S. P. Duffy, president of Our Own Hardware Company and general chairman of the forum.

Also scheduled to appear March 4 are Congressman Harold D. Cooley (Democrat, North Carolina), and Senator George D. Aiken (Republican, Vermont).

Theme of this year's forum will be "Farm and City Cooperation for Mutual Prosperity."

Houser will be the luncheon speaker March 4 and will discuss "A Businessman Looks at Long-Range Farm Problems."

Houser recently gained nationwide attention with a proposal that farm ranks be cut so that only the best fitted will be able to stay in business.

Kicking off the February 4 meeting will be Congressman Cooley with a talk on "What Can The Farmer Expect From a Farm Program?"

Cooley is chairman of the House Agriculture Committee. Farm problems are not new to him as he owns a 700-acre farm and has served 20 years on the House Agricultural Committee.

He has gone on record as stating that he will introduce a farm bill restoring price supports for farm commodities at 90 per cent of parity during this session of Congress. The same bill might provide by Federal law for a referendum to be the basis for a two-price system for wheat. It might also provide for an increase in support price for dairy products.

Friday afternoon, March 4, Senator Aiken will discuss "What Should The Farmer Expect From A Farm Program?"

Aiken's views on the farm program are expected to differ considerably from those expressed by Cooley. At present, he is the ranking Republican on the Senate Committee on Agriculture and Forestry.

Purpose of the forum is to give farmers and businessmen a chance to discuss agricultural problems with top experts. It is non-partisan and no resolutions are adopted. Those attending are encouraged to give their opinions.

All sessions are open to the public at no charge.

A Review

Harp Trio Gives Excellent Performance in Concert

By Miss Judith Halvorson

On Monday evening concertgoers were given the opportunity to hear an outstanding performance by the harp trio, the third number on our concert series. Members of this ensemble, Cynthia Otis, Claude Monteux, and Lorin Bernsohn, brought together three instruments, harp, flute, and cello, which are not commonly heard as a group. Their sensitive interpretation of each number gave evidence that the artists were excellent musicians as well as fine technicians on their own instruments.

The trio opened the program with the playing of the Sonata in B Minor by Jean-Baptiste Loeillet, a noted virtuoso on harp and flute. The four short movements were typical of early eighteenth century writing. This number was performed with cleanness, precision, and fine voice balance.

The high point of the program was the Sonatine by the French impressionist Ravel, a contemporary of Debussy. Here the exceptionally fine balance of the three instruments was particularly noticeable. This number originally written for piano was excellently transcribed for flute, harp and cello by Carlos Salzedo.

This instrumental combination served as an excellent background for the soprano solos by Miss Alice Richmond, often giving the effect of a full orchestra. Miss Richmond's numbers included an aria by Mozart, "The Shepherd On the Rocks" by Schubert, and two songs from southern United States, "Oh, What a Beautiful City", and "Go 'Way From My Window", as well as "Ouvre Ton Coeur", by Bizet. Aside from some intonation trouble, Miss Richmond did a very creditable job on her solos.

The program also featured solos by each member of the trio. Mr. Monteux's flute tone was rich and pleasing, and remained the same color in all registers. His performance of Bach as of the Loeillet was precise and articulate.

The cello numbers by Mr. Bernsohn included "Orientale" by Granados, "March" by Prokofieff, and "Granadina" by Nin. His resonant tone although not powerful was adequate for these numbers, and exceptionally fine in the trio. The excellent legato bowing gave a smooth flowing quality to his playing.

Miss Otis, the harpist, displayed complete mastery of the instrument. Her explanations of several techniques in harp playing made her numbers more interesting to her audience, particularly in the Salzedo selection. Two early dances, a sixteenth century Pavanne, and "Giga" by Corelli, completed her solo group.

Miss Otis is not only a soloist, but an equally fine accompanist. The harp surpassed the piano as an accompanying instrument especially on the cello numbers.

This program of good music well performed brought enthusiastic response from the audience.

Thieves Win 2 Games from Grand Forks Six; Crawl out of Cellar

Coach Paul Bedard's Thieves, after occupying the cellar position in the Northwest Hockey league standings for the past several weeks, at long last moved up into a playoff position by scoring a pair of triumphs over the Grand Forks Redwings in games played at Grand Forks this past week.

The four points that the Thieves added to their point total boosted the locals into a two-way tie with the Crookston Pirates for third place; and on Wednesday night, Feb. 9th, the teams, the Thieves and the Pirates, will attempt to break that deadlock when they meet in a league game here. Following the Pirates game here, the Thieves will have one game remaining on the schedule, that being a postponed game with the Warroad Lakers that will be played on the Arena rink.

The two games played against the Redwings at Grand Forks this week were comparable in the pattern of the scoring. On Friday night, the Thieves gained a 3 to 1 first period lead, and held a 3 to 2 lead at the end of the second period. Grand Forks' Wilf Shannon, with a goal at 4:23 of the third period, evened the score at 3-all; but Church Russell scoring at 5:03; and Ron Castelane, with a tally at 17:30, provided the Thieves with their 5 to 3 win.

On Sunday afternoon, the Thieves held a 2 to 1 first period edge, with Bud Brossoit and Swede Lund scoring for the locals and John Novak, with the game's first tally, scoring for the Redwings.

With the score 4 to 3 for the Thieves with less than a minute to play in the second period, Buzz Johnson tipped Don Crough's wildly bouncing shot from just inside the blue-line, deflecting the disc into the net to bring the score into a 4-all tie.

Ron Castelane slapped in a rebound at 0:24 of the third period, and when Church Russell tallied at 1:23, the Thieves held a 6 to 4 lead. Al Pacquay, on a solo rush, found the west goal with a hard shot, picking the upper left-hand corner of the net at 8:49. The Thieves held off the rushing Redwings in the final minutes of the game, and skated off the ice with a well-earned 6 to 5 win.

In a preliminary game on Sunday afternoon, the Grand Forks PeeWees, by a 5 to 3 score, defeated the Thief River Falls PeeWees. The two PeeWees teams are scheduled to play a return game here on Wednesday night as a preliminary to the Thieves vs. Pirates tilt.

Baudette Bows to Prowler Six 7-2

Game Played Tuesday Evening at Baudette

Coach Dennis Rolle's hockey Prowlers concluded their pre-tournament schedule on Tuesday night by defeating Baudette, 7 to 2, in an eighth regional conference game played at Baudette. The Prowlers will be idle until the sub-regional tournament at Roseau on Monday night.

Baudette gained an early lead in Tuesday night's game with center Ernie Stanley scoring at 1:07 of the first period. Joe Poole, on an assist by Jimmy Hall, marked up the equalizer at 7:10; and the two teams were in a 1-all tie at the end of the first period.

Hall's tally at 3:30 of the second period, and goals by Jack Poole and Sid Vraa gave the Prowlers a 4 to 1 lead entering the final period.

Brad Teal beat goalie Bob Ryberg at the 1:30 mark of the final period to boost the Prowlers' lead to 5 to 1; and goals by Joe Poole and Glenn Carlson increased the locals margin to 7 to 1 before Leigh Rudd beat young Cal Offerdahl at the 12:53 mark.

Baudette's goalie, Bob Ryberg, had 42 stops; while Rod Collins and Cal Offerdahl, who shared the Prowler goal-tending chores, had 12 stops.

Prowler Quint Loses to G. F. Central 52-48

Locals Play Crookston Friday, Bemidji Feb. 12 and E. G. Forks Tuesday

Fritz Engel's Grand Forks Redskins were forced to resort to semi-stall tactics to protect a lead which at one time reached 13 points and which dwindled to four points before the final buzzer sounded, giving Central a 52 to 48 win over the Prowlers in an inter-state basketball game played on the local court Saturday night.

Coach Al Adams squad will enter the most strenuous week of their season's schedule this week, playing the Crookston Pirates in a district game at Crookston on Friday night, and then moving over to Bemidji for a game against Bun Fortier's Lumberjacks on Saturday night. On Tuesday night, Feb. 15th, the Prowlers will meet coach Snooks Sullivan's Green Wave at East Grand Forks.

In Saturday night's game here the Grand Forks Redskins, holding the Prowlers to a lone field goal in the first period, that by Chuck Brandvold, gained 17 to 9 lead. The Redskins, who are the leading Class A team in the Eastern Division in North Dakota, maintained a ten-point lead over the Prowlers throughout most of the game, but in the final period, after losing Jack Jacoby and Jerry Schultz on personals, Grand Forks was hard-pressed to protect its margin.

With four minutes to play, Grand Forks held a 48 to 36 lead, but a pair of field goals by Brandvold and a field goal by Bill Frahm, pared that lead to six points. Brandvold dropped in a free throw, but a pair of Redskin free throws boosted the Grand Forks lead to seven points, 50 to 43. The Prowlers bounced back into the game when George Gifford hit with a field goal and when Louie Wedul pumped in a one-handed shot with 1:10 to play, the score was narrowed to 50 to 47 for the Redskins. Jim Jarrett, with seconds to play, added a pair of "insurance" points for Grand Forks by looping in two free throws.

The Prowlers' Chuck Brandvold, with six field goals and nine free throws, was the game's high point player. Grand Forks' Tim Skinner, a nifty and shifty forward, paced the Redskins with 12 points.

Speaking Champ

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Chapman of rural St. Hilaire and a member of the Rocksbury 4-H club, who won first place Saturday in the Pennington county 4-H radio speaking contest. By virtue of her victory, Lorraine will compete in the regional contest at Crookston February 21.

In a preliminary game, the Grand Forks 'B' team, with Paul Grinnell scoring 21 points, defeated the Prowler 'B' team, 56 to 52. The loss was only the second of the year for coach Joe Mrkonich's youngsters.

Warren Defeated by Prowler Quint Tuesday 44 to 36

Game Hotly Contested All the Way Thru; Locals Lead 22-21 at Halftime

Coach Al Adams Prowlers were forced to resort to semi-stall tactics during the final four minutes of the district basketball game played here on Tuesday night in order to protect their lead and defeat coach Clint Perkins' Warren Ponies, 44 to 36.

The Prowlers, training by a 10 to 6 score at the end of the first period of play, came back with a 16-point effort in the second period, with Bill Frahm notching a pair of field goals and two free throws to spark the attack, to gain a 22 to 21 advantage at the intermission.

Opening play in the third period, the locals moved into a nine point lead, with Chuck Brandvold, Frahm, and Ronnie Severson doing the scoring; but the Ponies, with Loren Engelstad looping in a pair of long shots, and with Bob Morgan connecting for a field goal and four free throws, narrowed that lead to two points at the stop, with the Prowlers having a 34 to 32 edge.

Lee Kjos marked up a pair of Prowler free throws to open the scoring in the final stanza, and then the Prowlers began to play "possession" ball. Frahm, hit with a field goal, and Brandvold came in for a lay-up shot. The Warren scoring in the final period was limited to four free throws, with Phil Carlson scoring three and Tom Pinkerton adding a point.

Bill Fram with 16 points, was the game's high scorer, followed by Chuck Brandvold with 12 points. Center Phil Nelson paced the Ponies, scoring 10 points on three field goals and four free throws.

2,000 Hockey Fans See Roseau Rams Tie St. Paul Team

Game Tied 3-3 in Overtime; Warroad Warriors Whip Johnson High Six 8 to 4

Playing before a crowd of more than 2000 fans who jampacked the spacious Roseau rink, the St. Paul Johnson Governors and the Roseau Rams, rated as the state's number one and number two prep teams, played to a 3-all tie in a game that carried into a five-minute overtime.

The St. Paul Johnson sextet held a one-goal lead three times during the exciting contest, having leads of 1 to 0 and 2 to 1 in the first period, and a 3 to 2 lead with 5:18 to play of the third period. Roseau's John Larson, on a long shot after a solo rush, beat Johnson's able goalie, Tom Wanman, to tie the game and force an overtime period.

The St. Paul Johnson team had their 21-game unbeaten streak broken on Saturday night when, playing coach Jimmy Doyle's Warroad Warriors at Warroad, they dropped an 8 to 4 decision to the Warriors. With the game knotted at 3-all in the final period, the Warriors erupted for five goals to "break" the game. Warroad's classy brother duo, Roger and Billy Christian, accounted for six of the Warroad goals.

Sportsmens Club Has Busy Meeting Feb. 2

The February meeting of the Pennington County Sportsman's club was held in the Civic and Commerce room Wednesday evening, Feb. 21, with about 80 members in attendance.

The moving picture "Conserving Our Heritage" was provided by the Northern Chevrolet Co.

The treasurer's report was read by E. O. Peterson. It showed that the club had an income of $814.81 from memberships, lunches and other sales. Total expenses were $627.39, and cash on hand was $782.39. Other assets on hand amounted to $780.32 making a total net worth of $1,562.32.

The president's report of activities for the year showed that high points were the membership drive with Frank Riley and Otto Rupprecht as chairmen, the releasing of pheasants with Lloyd Howick providing the shelters and doing the work; the crow and predator control program with Don Toomey in charge; and the venison feed prepared by Ole Ness.

After considerable discussion about the fishing in Lake of the Woods, a resolution was adopted requesting that the state legislature take action to prevent the further use of gill nets in the lake and that the taking of Walleyed and Northern pike for commercial purposes be stopped.

The club has on hand a supply of "Save the Wetlands" buttons. It was pointed out that the proceeds from the sale of these buttons is to go to a state wide fund for the purchase of pot-holes and marshes so that they will be saved for wildlife use.

A total of 326 hunters reports cards were turned in by local sportsmen. The lucky report card was turned by Bud Monsestad, who won the rifle provided by the Sportsmen's club.

Lunch was served by Milo Gubranson and John Jacobson.

Eggs, canned corn and canned snap beans lead the list of plentiful foods this month. Citrus fruits, both fresh and processed, are at the peak of their season. You can get low-cost protein from heavy turkeys from last falls production, frozen haddock and halibut, canned tuna and several types of dry beans, all plentiful during February. Lettuce and carrots from the West and Southwest are expected in large volume this month, and raisins almonds and rice will be in good supply. Plentiful fats this month will be lard and vegetable fats and oils.

This list is prepared by the U. S. Department of Agriculture to tell you about food items which will be good buys.

* * *

Are you planning to have cherry pie for a Lincoln birthday dinner on Saturday? Why not make several, and freeze the rest for later this month.

For a clear, bright filling in frozen cherry pies, it's better to use tapioca or cornstarch for thickening. Flour tends to make the frozen filling cloudy.

Before serving pies which have been baked before freezing, thaw them in the wrapping for half an hour, then unwrap and heat in a 350 degree oven for half an hour.

Fruit pies that are frozen will be best if they are baked at 450 degrees for 1-15 minutes, then at 375 degrees for the remainder of the time. The frozen pies will, of course, take longer to bake, then fresh pies.

A dull aluminum pie pan gives especially good results with frozen pies.

* * *

If you are interested in freezing other baked goods, you will find our freezing bulletin very helpful. It is called "Freezing Foods for Home Use", and includes directions for freezing breads, cakes, pies, cookies, and ready to eat main dishes. Call at the County Extension Office for your copy soon.

Stilbestrol Not Effective In Lamb Feeding

With more feedlot research, stilbestrol may fully prove its worth as a ration supplement for feeding lambs. At least, experiments at the University of Minnesota's West Central School and Experiment Station at Morris so indicate.

I would like to report that none of three levels of stilbestrol fed in a high-quality ration caused lambs to eat much more or gain much faster—it did, however, improve lamb carcasses somewhat.

Stilbestrol and Synovex implants, however, increased lambs' rate of gain up to 1-10th of a pound per day. These facts were revealed recently at the annual Lamb Feeders' Day at the Morris station by Philip S. Jordan, associate professor, H. G. Groom, school principal, both of Morris, and Robert M. Jordan, assistant professor of animal husbandry at the University of Minnesota, St. Paul.

Comparing stilbestrol and Synovex implants given lambs at six to seven months of age, both induced gain increased of up to a tenth of a pound per day per lamb. The Synovex implant contains 250 milligrams of progesterone and 10 of Estradiol. It is the only hormone implant approved for use in fattening lambs.

Lambs given the stilbestrol implant gained slightly faster than those given Synovex, but the latter lambs had a somewhat higher carcass grade and yield. They sold for 31c more per 100 pounds than lambs implanted with stilbestrol.

The "control" group, not implanted but fed the same high quality ration as the two implanted groups, also yielded good quality carcasses but didn't gain as much, of course.

In feeding stilbestrol, the researchers placed two groups of lambs on a daily ration containing 1-10th milligram stilbestrol, two on a ration with ½ milligram and two on a ration with 1½ milligrams. None of the levels fed caused lambs to gain much faster than the two "control" groups not fed stilbestrol.

The ½ milligram and the 1½ milligram levels were slightly more effective, however, than the 1-10th milligram level. Stilbestrol fed lambs also yielded somewhat better carcasses.

Robert M. Jordan says that "apparently we need more research with different levels and rations to find the most effective level stilbestrol. It has a lot of wonderful potential as a feeding tool and deserves plenty of study to find its best uses."

Base ration of both the hormone implanted and hormone-fed lambs was a full feed in which they ate an average 1.36 pounds of corn, 1.56 pounds of alfalfa hay and 10 pound soy bean oil meal per day.

Actual dates for save your vision week come along just a little later—they are set this year for March 6 to 12 and the week is observed jointly by Jaycees and the Minnesota Optometric Association.

Clothing Details Theme of Lesson in Home Program

Clothing accessories is the topic of the next lesson to be given in the extension home program, announces Home Agent Marge Olsen. The lesson will be given to group leaders later this month or in March.

State PeeWee Hockey Tourney to Be Held in T. R. Falls Feb. 12-13

The fifth annual Minnesota PeeWee hockey tournament will be played here on the Arena ice, on Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 12 and 13, with eight of the state's top-ranked "kid" hockey teams participating.

According to the pairings released by Don Clark, secretary of the Minnesota Amateur Hockey association, International Falls, representing region 6, will open the tourney by meeting Rochester, of region 3 in a first round game at 1:30 p. m. on Saturday. Eveleth, of region 5, champions the past two years, will play the Minneapolis Cloggy's at 3:00 p. m. on Saturday.

The evening program, on Saturday, will be opened by the game, at 7:00 p. m., between Thief River Falls, representing region 8, and the St. Paul Dutch Maid team of region 2. At 8:30 p. m. Duluth, coached by Gordon Eddolls and with a team that holds a 4 to 3 win over Eveleth this season, will play the winner of the Warroad vs. Roseau tilt. Warroad and Roseau will meet in a game this week to determine the representative of the 7th region.

Mr. Clark states this year's tournament should provide the most "wide open" race for the championship that the five years of PeeWee hockey has produced. Eveleth, losing such standout players as Gus Hendrickson and Jon Castellano, will not have the superiority that they exhibited the past two years.

The winners of the first round games on Saturday will enter the semi-final series on Sunday afternoon with winner of game 1 playing winner of game 2 at 1:30 p. m.; and winner of game 3 playing winner of game 4 at 2:30 p. m. The championship finals, between the winners of the semi-final series, will be played at 8:00 p. m. on Sunday night.

The winner of the state PeeWee title, and which is limited to boys of 14 years and younger, will enter the national tourney in Boston on March 5-7.

During the past four years of tournament play the following teams have won the state PeeWee hockey title: 1951, Duluth Glen Avon; 1952, Eveleth; 1953, Eveleth; and 1954, Eveleth.

The tournament committee conducting the PeeWee hockey competition is composed of Robert Ridder, St. Paul, president; Don Clark, secretary; Cal Marvin, vice president; Everett Riley, representative; and Stan Ranum, local chairman.

The Roseau PeeWee hockey team earned a place in the playoffs by defeating Warroad Tuesday night by a score of 9 to 4.

Prowler Six to Enter Playdowns at Roseau

Coach Dennis Rolle's hockey Prowlers, marking up their ninth win against three losses, defeated coach Carl Marken's Grand Forks Redskins, 4 to 0, in a rugged game played at Grand Forks on Thursday night. Next week, Monday, February 14 the Prowlers, currently in third place in the regional conference ratings, will participate in the sub-regional playdowns being held at Roseau. On Feb. 17th and 18th the eighth regional hockey tournament will be played at Thief River Falls.

Although they out-shot the Redskins by a 14 to 4 on-goal margin in the first period it was not until the 10:54 mark that the locals succeeded in beating goalie Bob Kennelly, with Glenn Carlson getting the tally on an assist from Chip Strand.

Goals by Joe Poole and Sid Vraa in the second period gave the Prowlers a 3 to 0 lead; and when Jack Poole, giving brother Joe Poole a centering pass and with Joey beating Kennelly at 6:49 of the third period.

Goalie Rod Collins, being credited with 22 stops, recorded his third shutout of the year, the other two whitewashings being against Hallock and Williams.

Crookston at T. R. Falls
Feb. 12th,
T. R. Falls at Warroad
Grand Forks at Roseau
Feb. 13th,
Warroad at Grand Forks
Crookston at Roseau

The feature of the week's play in the Northwest Hockey League was the climb of the Thief River Falls Thieves into a prospective playoff position. The Thieves, playing a pair of games with the Grand Forks Redwings, defeated the Redwings, 5 to 3 and 6 to 5, adding four points to the Thieves league standings and lifted coach Paul Bedard's club into a two-way tie, with Crookston, for third place.

The Pirates and the Thieves will engage in an important league tilt here on Wednesday, and the winner of that game will just about cinch a playoff berth.

The Roseau Cloverleafs, holding first place by a three-point margin over the Warroad Lakers, are heavily favored to win the league title. The Leafs have three games remaining on their schedule, and two of those games are slated for their "home" ice, against Crookston and Grand Forks, and the other game being a "road" game at Crookston. A pair of wins would nail down the league championship for the Cloverleafs.

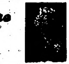
Keeping Score with "Huck" Olson



It's PeeWee Hockey Time

There will be a buzz of activity around the Arena rink on Saturday and Sunday when eight of the state's PeeWee hockey teams begin play for the Minnesota state PeeWee hockey championship.

Coach Paul Bedard's local PeeWees, who undoubtedly will be the youngest team in the tourney, will meet a "toughie" in the first round, bumping up against the St. Paul Dutch Maid team at 7:00 p. m. on Saturday night. The Dutch Maid team, for the past five or six years, has been a "feeder" for the St. Paul Johnson high school squad, and they have a fine hockey tradition.

Incidentally, it will be quite a treat for Paul Bedard to renew acquaintances with Art Strobel, the coach of the Rochester PeeWees, who will represent region three. Strobel and Bedard were team-mates on the Forth Worth team in the American Hockey Association.

According to the officials who are completing the arrangements for the tournament this week-end, there isn't a standout team in the tourney. A slight edge, though, may be given to Duluth, International Falls, and the defending champion Eveleth team. While the Eveleth champions have dropped a game this season, that to Duluth by one goal, the Rangers have scored a win over the Falls, and with such players as James Curphy, Jim Palkovich, and Jerry Rosati available from last year's club, they'll be a title threat.

Hockey fans should make it a point to be in attendance at a session or two of these tournament games. We can assure them that they will enjoy themselves, and they'll be surprised at the fine brand of hockey that these PeeWees can produce.

There Have Been Some Changes

We were an interested spectator, last Thursday afternoon, at the grade school basketball game played in the Northrop gym between John Elsbrener's Washington team and Phil Beadle's Northrop Indians.

The score at the half-time intermission was a 9 to 6 for the Northrops, and with Washington's play-making Bobby Nick carrying four fouls, we thought that the Indians were 'in'; but a flurry of second half points, with Nick and Rocky Stewart doing sturdy work for Washington, gave coach John's team a 25 to 19 win over coach Phil's squad.

There certainly have been some vast changes in the grade school basketball program since those days when we were a member of the first Northrop school team which, with Mark Olson scoring all the points, defeated the Knox team, 7 to 4, for the city title. Looking over the fine playing facilities at Northrop, a spacious and well-lighted gymnasium, we recalled the days when those of us on the West side held our practice sessions in the lofts of the McGinn and Mogenson barns; and the East Siders would practice in the loft of Doc Penney's barn.

The McGinn playing loft was the best in town, and we even played games there at night, getting our light from lanterns that we hung from the rafters. It's unbelievable that the place didn't burn down.

World's Hockey Tournament

The United States entry in the world's hockey tournament being played in Germany will meet the Penticon V's, Canada's entry, in a first round game at Dortmund, Germany on Feb. 25. Russia, the defending Class A champions, will meet the United States in Krefeld, Germany, on March 1st.

The tournament games will be played in Krefeld, Cologne, Duesseldorf, and Dortmund, in stadia with seating capacities ranging from 7,000 to 10,000.

The Russian team, which surprised the Canadian entry last year and won the title, will be defending its championship against teams from the United States, Canada, Czechoslovakia, Sweden, Switzerland, Poland, Finland, and West Germany.

The tournament results should be of considerable interest to hockey fans around here because of the fact that Roseau's Rube Bjorkman; Warroad's Ginny Christian, Williams' Dan McKinnon, and International Falls' Dick Dougherty are all members of the United States team.

Fair Enough

"Greatest high school hockey game ever played." That was the quotable comment of Roseau's Oscar Almquist and St. Paul Johnson's Rube Gustafson following the 3-all overtime game played at Roseau on Friday night between the Rams and the Governors.

We were fortunate enough to have been included in that crowd of 2500 fans that witnessed that epic contest, and we're in agreement with coaches Almquist and Gustafson. That 3 to 3 score was fair to both teams. In our opinion, St. Paul Johnson didn't have a front line that possessed the play-making ability of Roseau's Jack Delmore, Dick Johnson, and Mike Robertson trio; but that the Governors, with their nimble goalie Tom Wahman, and defensemen Jack Holstrom and Charles Rogers, held an edge on the blue-line.

There appeared times when the Delmore-Johnson-Robertson overplayed their passing game, being too anxious to carry the puck to the goal-mouth, and as a result they failed to get off a number of shots on goal.

While the Roseau vs. Johnson game drew much applause, we must give a pat on the back to Warroad Jimmy Doyle, for on Saturday night in a game played at Warroad, the Warriors snapped a 21-game unbeaten streak by St. Paul Johnson, trouncing the Governors, 8 to 4. Doyle, who was an all-state defenseman on the state runner-up hockey Prowlers of 1945, and later a defenseman and captain at Michigan State, has done a fine job at Warroad.

While it is perhaps true that the Johnson team was tired after their overtime tilt at Roseau on the preceding night, it's also true that the Warriors are capable of beating any team in the state. It must be remembered that it was the Warroad Warriors that handed the Roseau Rams their only defeat of the season.

So good luck, Jimmy, except when you play the Prowlers.

Winter Shows Offer Week of Activity to Livestock Breeders

Livestock breeders of the Red River Valley counties have a full week of activity at the forthcoming Red River Valley Winter Shows February 21-25, at Crookston.

With more than 500 head of livestock entered in the open and junior futurity classes, the show this year, according to O. M. Kiser, secretary of the Red River Valley Livestock Association, promises to be one of the best shows in history. Winter Shows opens officially on Monday morning, Feb. 21, with livestock judging contests for farmers' clubs, schools of agriculture from Minnesota, North and South Dakota, and Manitoba, Canada, and 4-H teams from Red River Valley counties.

The annual stockholders' meeting of the Red River Valley Livestock association will be held at 10:30 a.m. in the Crookston Armory. Open class judging of sheep will start on Monday at 1:30 p. m. and continue through Tuesday, February 22. Open class judging of beef, dairy cattle, and swine will start on Tuesday morning, February 22, and continue through Wednesday, February 23.

The junior livestock futurity exhibitors will have their big day on Tuesday, February 22, with the judging of sheep and swine at 10:30 a. m., the parade of junior futurity cattle at 12:30 p. m., and the judging of the futurity cattle classes in the afternoon. 115 head of animals have been entered in the junior futurity show in which exhibitors come from 4-H clubs, F.F.A. organizations, and students of the Northwest School of Agriculture. The banquet for the junior futurity exhibitors, sponsored by the Red River Valley Winter Shows Board of Managers, will be held on Tuesday evening, February 22.

Wednesday, February 23, has been designated as Livestock Day at which time the judging in the beef cattle classes will be completed. The livestock breeders and the consignors to the livestock sales will have their annual dutch lunch on Wednesday evening, February 23. The main speaking program for the livestock men and poultry men will be held on that day. Speakers who will appear on the program are Dr. Elvin Johnson, head of the poultry department, Institute of Agriculture, University of Minnesota, St. Paul; W. E. Remple of the department of animal husbandry, Institute of Agriculture, who will speak on the cross-breeding of sheep for production of market lambs; Henry Sheele, field supervisor of the Cooperative Wool Growers' association, Minneapolis, who will speak on the wool market and the national wool act of 1954. Ralph Wayne, extension dairyman, Institute of Agriculture, University of Minnesota, St. Paul, will speak on the outlook for dairying and what our dairy herd improvement associations can do to help the dairy farmer.

The first of the two day livestock sales will be held on Thursday, February 4, Governor's Day, at which time 87 head of bulls and cows of the leading breeds of beef and dairy cattle will be sold. A. J. Dexter, agricultural development agent, Northern Pacific Railway, who is manager of the livestock sales states: "We have secured outstanding animals from the leading livestock breeders of the Red River Valley for the sales this year. Buyers can be assured that excellent foundation stock will be available at reasonable prices." Registered gilts and ewes will be sold on Friday, February 25.

The championship awards for livestock herds will be made on the morning of the cattle sales day. Ray Snell, auctioneer from Dickinson, North Dakota, will sell the cattle and Howard Snell of Dickinson will sell the bred ewes and gilts on the Friday closing day of the Shows.

House Passes Bill to Take Licenses from Offenders

The Minnesota house voted, 123 to 0, Friday to permit the courts to impound the license plates on cars driven by persons who have their driver's licenses revoked or suspended.

The measure now goes to the senate.

Although there were no dissenting votes on the license plate bill, two lawmakers, Representatives George French, Minneapolis, and Claude Allen, St. Paul, had their objections to the bill's constitutionality recorded in the House Journal.

Rep. Donald Wozniak, St. Paul, chief sponsor of the measure, and impounding of the license plates cracks down on the "chronic violator."

"He'd be arrested in about half a block if there were no plates on his car. Without a driver's licence, he could drive indefinitely," Wozniak said.

Named Honor Man of Company

Raymond E. Berg, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Berg of Route 1, Thief River Falls, received an honor man certificate and an engraved identification bracelet during recruit graduation at the U. S. naval training center at Great Lakes, Illinois Jan. 22.

Navy Capt. Charles B. Jackson, reviewing officer, makes the presentation.

Berg was selected honor man of his recruit company by his commanding officers and fellow company members.

Careless Driving Is Chief Fault of State Motorists

Only two of the record-breaking 56 traffic deaths in Minnesota during January resulted from causes beyond the control of the drivers or pedestrians involved, according to Earl M. Larimer, director of highway safety.

"In view of the appalling record compiled on our streets and highways last month," he said, "I have reviewed the causes of the 47 fatal traffic accidents and find that in only one instance was the probable cause listed as a mechanical defect. In the 46 other fatal mishaps, driver or pedestrian errors resulted in lives needlessly lost, homes shattered and bodies mangled—truly a tremendous price to pay for a moment's inattention, ignoring icy roadways, driving too fast for conditions of road and weather or ignoring signs and signals."

He pointed out that 31 of the 47 fatal accidents occurred off the rural trunk highways, on county and township roads or on city village streets. Two thirds of the accidents occurred at night, and in only 11 mishaps were road and weather conditions deemed less than ideal for safe driving.

"Last month's dismal driving record," Larimer concluded, "is an indictment of the driving habits of Minnesota motorists. It reveals that too many motorists have not yet learned that safety is not something that someone else can provide for them, but that it is something that they must do for themselves. The 54 victims of preventable accidents last month died as proof that 'safety is everyone's personal responsibility.'"

E. J. Devitt of EGF Is Confirmed as Federal Judge

The U. S. Senate Friday approved the nomination of Edward J. Devitt, St. Paul, to be federal district court judge for Minnesota.

Devitt, a University of North Dakota graduate and former East Grand Forks resident, was nominated by President Eisenhower last month on the recommendation of Sen. Thye (R-Minn).

Devitt has been Ramsey County probate judge in St. Paul. The Senate failed to act on his original nomination and his name was re-submitted by Mr. Eisenhower.

New GOP State Officers Seek to Strengthen Party

Phil Hamre of Crookston Is Named Vice Chairman at Meeting in St. Paul

Minnesota's newly elected Republican state party officers were turning their thoughts this week to plans for strengthening and rebuilding the party in preparation for next year's elections.

Back at home after a meeting in St. Paul, members of the Minnesota Republican state central committee had chosen a set of party officers and were busy making plans for building up the party organizations in all parts of the state.

Top leaders among the new officers chosen were John Hartle, farmer, party leader and legislator, Republican state chairman; and Mrs. R. D. Harmon, Dakota county, chairwoman.

Hartle, in a brief statement, gave an indication of policies he may pursue as chairman. Said he:

"We will do all we can as legislators and as party leaders to assure progress in state government without placing an undue burden upon the people. I believe in reasonable progress. When imposing added burdens upon the people it is imperative that we consider how we are going to get the added revenue required. It is better to go slowly and be sure we are on a firm foundation.

"One of the big jobs that faces us is the necessity of stirring up more interest in government. If the people will take an active interest in government, government will be more responsive. It is better to go slowly if we must than to spend beyond our means."

The state central committee elected seven new officers and reelected three. Among them were:

REDUCING ARMY MANPOWER

General Ridgway, army chief of staff, is not in accord with President Eisenhower's proposed cut in army manpower. Were it not for the fact that the President himself happens to be an authority of no mean reputation on military matters, General Ridgway probably would find more support for his position. Under the circumstances this does not appear to be the time to reduce our military strength.

We are sure however that the President has taken into consideration all of the possibilities and if he thinks we can safely reduce the size of the standing army that's good enough for us. We rather like the idea too of telling the rest of the world that we are not building up a military machine for invasion purposes and that our first line of defense is no longer on the ground.

COMING LOW COST POWER

A down-east engineering firm, reporting last week on its survey of North Dakota's power potentialities, gave top rating to the state's enormous lignite deposits. When lignite is used close to its source it should produce power at costs that will compare favorably with the low cost of hydroelectric power, the report states.

This is good news for the large area that looks forward to the cheap power that is assured by the harnessing of the Missouri river. This power, supplemented by the output of lignite-burning plants, will provide a balanced and dependable source of supply. Transportation is no longer a big cost factor. In the foreseeable future this low cost power will be available to us.

DR. BILLINGS TALKS TURKEY

Members of the Minnesota Turkey Growers association voted for a 10 per cent cut in production this year. But the vote, registered at their annual meeting, was neither unanimous nor enthusiastic, in spite of repeated warnings by their good friend, Dr. Billings, that a failure to curb production would result inevitably in another year of financial loss.

The attitude of the growers is understandable. The cut-back proposal probably would be given solid support if it could be fairly enforced. There is no organization however with authority to control production and compliance must be on a voluntary basis. A fair production control program is not possible in that way.

Until the turkey growers organize effectively for their own protection it is likely that they will continue to experience cycles of market peaks and depressions. A few bad years will force out the in-and-outers and a few good years will bring them back in again. The prospect for this year is not encouraging at the present time.

FAVORING INDUSTRY

Rural Minnesota will not be affected to any great extent if the proposed changes in the personal property tax laws, giving some concessions to industry, are adopted. Most of our industries are located in the metropolitan areas and the personal property tax is largely a local levy. The concessions therefore will be made largely at the expense of other taxpayers in the local units of government for which these taxes are spread.

Most of the burden of these concessions will be shifted to real estate, and as the industries bear a big share of the burden of real estate taxes they will to some extent be paying the cost of the concessions made to them. We doubt that these slight changes are going to be an important factor in building up our manufacturing.

One thing we could do that probably would be helpful in this respect and that would be to quit telling the world that Minnesota is not a good place for industry to locate. If we would apply ourselves just half as enthusiastically to telling the story of what is good about Minnesota as we do in crying about a few things that are wrong we probably would enjoy a healthier industrial development.

OIL IN MINNESOTA

Oil has not been discovered in Minnesota and geologists tell us it is not likely that we ever will have a producing well in our state. That is a discouraging outlook for those of us who would like to own a quarter of land from which would flow a stream of black gold in sufficient volume to make us more unhappy at income tax time.

But although we may never have any producing wells we are already enjoying some advantages from the production of a neighboring state and the provinces of Canada. From the pipe lines we are getting the raw material for a refinery development that already is of significant industrial importance. And now, next to a refinery that is under construction, is going to be built a plant that will convert natural gas and a by-product of oil into ammonia for farm fertilizer and industrial purposes.

And by-products of this plant will be more payrolls and a broader tax base — things that make us all a little wealthier.

HIGH COST OF HIGHWAY MISHAPS

In 1946 Minnesota traffic accidents cost the public four times as much as was spent for trunk highway construction: $50 million wasted compared with $12½ million put into highways. Eight years reviewed in the current report of the state highway department show annual accident cost remaining fairly constant while highway investment creeps upward. In 1925 accident costs soared to nearly $60 million while construction reached the relatively high figure of $34 million. In 1953 cost of highway accidents skyrocketed to $70 million with construction lagging at $46 million. Carelessness is costly!

Cadillac
GAS

Where Pride Leads to Economy!

This gasoline station isn't accustomed to being ignored by the cars that pass its way. For it resides at the edge of a great desert—and it is many, many miles to the next fueling point.

But the big, handsome automobile you see here swept by without so much as a sign of recognition! For it is a new 1955 Cadillac—and its owner knows that he can travel from his morning's start until his evening's stop without a single refueling.

• • •

Of course, when a motorist decides to order his first Cadillac, he isn't usually aware that the car is so economical to operate—and so practical to own.

He wants a Cadillac for what it is and represents—and for the great pride and pleasure it will bring him.

But it isn't long before he discovers where his pride has led him!

He discovers it first when he prices the Cadillac of his choice. Invariably, he is surprised at its relatively modest cost. Not infrequently, he finds that it actually costs less than the car he is currently driving.

And then, once his Cadillac is delivered into his hands, he discovers how frugal it is with a gallon of gasoline. He finds, as we said, that a full tank is usually sufficient for a full day's drive.

Next, he learns of Cadillac's extraordinary dependability. In fact, he often has to be reminded when the time has come for routine service.

But not until he surrenders his Cadillac to its second owner does he discover the full wonder of Cadillac's economy. For then he learns how amazingly it holds its value—and how little a year's service affects the public's regard for the car.

All this is to say, of course, that you don't have to follow your pride to the "car of cars." You can, if you prefer, make your decision solely on the basis of economy—and still buy a Cadillac!

Come in soon—and see for yourself! We've got the facts—and we'll be delighted to see you at any time!

Sessions were also held at the Lowry Hotel.

The trio called on the Supt. of the Upsola school on their way to the Cities, where an inspection was made on a new gymnasium very similar to the one planned for Strandquist. The same architect planned their gym and the roof construction is the same as the roof planned for the Strandquist gym. The Upsola Superintendent was very accommodating and relayed some advice which should be valuable in planning the local gymnasium.

The first human being the Strandquist men met at Upsola turned out to be Wm. (Bill) Westman whose former home used to be south from Strandquist.

Rev. Torno, a former Strandquist Pastor, also resides at Upsola. His residence and church was pointed out to the Strandquist delegates directly across the street from the school, but time did not permit them to make a personal call.

How Flax Helps Crop Rotations

Many Northwestern Minnesota farmers will improve their soils in 1955, thanks to flax.

This is because of the important part flax is playing in the establishment of soil conservation programs.

It's well known, of course, that flax is the best nurse crop for starting legumes and grasses. While it's slender stems and narrow leaves let more sunlight reach the new seeding, its roots offer less competition for moisture and plant food. That's why other nurse crops are customarily sown at half-rate while flax is sown at its regular rate per acre.

Also, grass prefers the same firm, shallow seedbed; usually prepared for flax. This is one reason flax is the only nurse crop which North Dakota Agricultural College recommends.

Cost has kept many Northwestern Minnesota farmers from seeding as many acres to grass as they should. A University of Minnesota survey shows that in 1952, Southern Minnesota farmers spent about $6 for seed and $4 for fertilizer to start an acre of alfalfa or brome grass.

Soil conservationists point out that these same farmers reported their average flax crop was worth $20 more per acre than their oats. Thus flax, with its high profit-per-acre, was able to pay the full cost of starting the grass and still leave an extra profit.

While most livestock men use oats for feed, government figures prove that almost any year, the average Northwestern Minnesota farmer can use his flax money to buy far more oats than he could have raised on the same land. Flax generally tops wheat or barley, too, when it comes to profit.

Flax Helps Establish Grass Like This

Flax is easy on land

Research proves that compared with other crops, flax is 'easy' on land. North Dakota Agricultural College experiments show flax takes less fertility from soil than wheat, oats, or barley.

Free copies of a 16-page booklet, "How Flax Helps You Grow Better Grass," may be obtained by writing Flax Development Committee, 700 Baker Building, Minneapolis.

State School Boards Majority Is Opposed to Consolidation

The cause of school district reorganization lost out Thursday at the annual convention of the Minnesota School Board association in St. Paul auditorium.

Rural delegates who want to retain their small rural schools outvoted the delegates who believe that better education comes with bigger consolidated school districts.

The split in points of view was conspicuous in the choice of issues debated, in the hot floor debates and in the resulting votes.

Leaders of the rural-school supporters are affiliated also with the organization called Friends of the Minnesota Schools.

The rural group won the top offices of the organization. Mrs. Leonard Rollins, Weaver, Minn., secretary of the Friends, was elected president by a vote of 682 to 617 for Arvid Gandrud, Redwood Falls.

Mark McAlpine, Buffalo, also active in the Friends group, was elected vice president by a vote of 683 to 629 for Mrs. Fred Baul, St. Paul.

Without exception, the majority vote on backing proposed legislation opposed all issues which would strengthen the movement toward combining of school districts and almost all issues involving expenditures of money.

Support of an increase in basic school aid from $80 to $92 lost by voice vote.

In effect, this withdrew support from Gov. Orville Freeman, who had told the delegates at one of their sessions that he was working for the increase because organizations like theirs were convinced it was needed.

Among the proposed legislative changes which the majority voted not to back are:

Dissolution of school districts closed for two years.

Appointment of county survey committees by the state department of education.

Appointment of county superintendents of schools, rather than election.

Continuance of the state advisory commission on reorganization.

Dissolution of school districts with 10 or less pupils and attachment to secondary districts, subject to review by the state commissioner of education in hardship situations.

The only proposal regarding a shift toward larger districts which was approved by a slight majority, was the recommendation that the minimum number of pupils required for a new proposed school district be changed from 20 to 100 pupils.

Association members favoring consolidation have expressed alarm throughout the convention at the way their own educational beliefs are canceling out their effectiveness in the school board association.

As small districts are re-organized into bigger ones, the number of school boards decreases, and, therefore, the number of association members favoring reorganization drops and the rural membership gains in power.

According to William A. Wettergren, St. Peter, the independent school districts (the big districts), which have 90 per cent of the students in the state, have 408 school boards with membership in the association. Each board has two voting delegates.

The common school districts (the small ones), according to Wettergren, have about 1,000 school boards with membership in the organization.

After the convention adjourned Wednesday noon, the board of nine directors, which now has two members affiliated with the Friends, passed a resolution to poll the entire membership of the association on all the issues which lost on the convention floor.

All members, when voting on these issues, will be asked also to state the number of students in their school systems.

Four 'U' Regents Named Wednesday

Herman Skyberg of 9th District Is Reelected

Four men nominated in caucuses of legislators from their respective congressional districts were elected to the board of regents of the University of Minnesota for six year terms by the Minnesota legislature last Wednesday.

Elected at a 45-minute meeting of senators and representatives in the House chamber were Daniel Gainey, Owatonna, 1st Congressional district; Edward Cosgrove, Le Sueur, 2nd district; A. J. Olson, Renville, 7th district, and Herman Skyberg, Fisher, 9th district.

Gainey, Olson and Skyberg were reelected, Cosgrove will replace Dr. E. E. Novak, New Prague.

Gainey is president and chairman of the board of the Josten Manufacturing Co., and Cosgrove is chairman of the board of the Green Giant Canning Co. Olson and Skyberg are farmers.

No nominations were made from the floor, although this was possible under the rules.

Janet Leigh and Tony Curtis steal a moment of romance while Thatcher reminds the young outlaw knight of impending battle in Universal-International's Technicolor adventure of medieval England, "The Black Shield of Falsworth," produced in CinemaScope. David Farrar, Barbara Rush and Herbert Marshall are co-starred with the romantic team in this saga of chivalry's golden age, at the Falls Sunday, Feb. 13th for 3 days.

Farm Income in State in 1954 Down from '53

Minnesota's farmers received $1,280,000,000 from cash receipts of farm products in 1954—slightly less than in 1953.

According to Rex W. Cox, associate professor of agricultural economics writing in the current issue of the University of Minnesota's Farm Business notes, receipts from sales of crops, hogs and cattle were higher than in 1953, but sales of dairy products, eggs and chickens were much lower.

The increase in receipts from crops came from more marketing. Prices averaged about six per cent lower, however, and dropped the most during the first-half 1954. Here, by classes, is the rest of the picture:

HOGS—Total weight of hogs marketed by Minnesota farmers last year was slightly over 1953. Prices averaged three per cent higher because of high prices in first-half 1954. As a result, 1954's cash hog receipts were above 1953's.

CATTLE AND SHEEP—Many more cattle and calves were sent to market in 1954. Cattle prices averaged three per cent lower, but calf prices nine per cent. Gross returns from cattle and calf sales increased about five per cent over 1953. Returns from sheep and lambs were slightly less, however.

FLUID MILK—Almost 14 per cent more fluid milk was sold in 1954. Prices averaged $3.13 per 100 pounds, 30 cents less than in 1953. Total receipts $168 million, compared with $177 million in 1953. Five per cent less butterfat in cream was sold than in 1953—92 million pounds. Prices averaged 61c—8 lower than in 1953. Total wholesale cream sales were $59, compared with $72 million in 1953. Total milk and cream sales, wholesale and retail, were $232 million — nearly nine per cent less than in 1953.

EGGS — Farmers sold seven per cent more eggs in 1954, but at lower prices. Sales in 1954 were $85 million compared to 1953's $123 million. Chicken sales also lower.

TURKEYS — The record 1954 turkey crop was 35 per cent above 1953, due mainly to a 61 per cent increase in the light types, which were 50 per cent of the total crop. In 1952, light types amounted to only 41 per cent of the crop.

Although average prices were about 6c a pound less, large marketings increased cash returns slightly. Cash livestock sales were nearly two-fifths of the total farm receipts. Dairy and other livestock products were about 18 and 12 per cent, respectively, of that total.

Railway Express Announces Cut in Rates on Apparel

Reductions in express rates of 25 percent and as high as 35 percent to many points, on apparel and accessory items moving from New York, N. Y. and Jersey City, N. J. to all points in the United States are now in effect, it has been announced by A. W. Dahl, of Railway Express Agency.

The rate slashes mean reduced transportation expense for both independent and chain-operated retail specialty and department stores in this area receiving apparel shipments weighing 125 pounds or more from New York, the nation's major apparel manufacturing center, the express agency representative stated.

The new low rates cover items of wearing apparel; footwear; gloves; handbags; hosiery; men's furnishings; mittens; and purses, but do not include millinery or men's hats. The rates apply on shipments weighing 125 pounds and over.

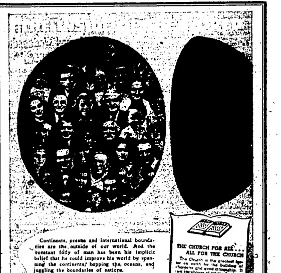
Shipbuilders are working on 236 minesweepers and smaller boats for the Navy, using 70 million board feet of lumber, to answer a need for non-magnetic craft.



Continents, oceans and international boundaries are the outside of our world. And the constant folly of man has been his implicit belief that he could improve his world by spanning the continents, hopping the oceans, and juggling the boundaries of nations.

To improve our world we must change the inside of that world. For the globe is full of people—imperfect people. And all of the evil that threatens to engulf our world has its roots deep in the lives of individuals.

The one great hope of the world is to find a way to change the lives of individuals. Did we say find? We're forgetting that we found the way centuries ago in the truth which Jesus Christ revealed. The one great hope of the world is to follow the way our Saviour gave us.

With bombs that can change the outside of the world, and churches that can change the inside—which shall we use?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

OUR LAND

Good and Poor Farming

Northwest of Lewiston, Winona County, is a small watershed of 560 acres in cropland and pasture. Some 480 acres are farmed wisely with contour strips and alternate strips in hay. The contoured pastures have good stands of legumes and grasses. The other 80 acres is farmed up and down hill. The slopes and soil types are about the same all through. The land drains into a roadside waterway. Last June, a two-inch rain fell in an hour and gave SCS men a chance to check the runoff. The runoff and soil loss from the 480 wisely farmed acres was zero—no water flowing in the roadside waterway at all. But the runoff from the 80 acres farmed up and down hill was heavy, flowing rapidly down ravines and carrying a big load of soil. This poorly farmed area also made the area flood problem greater in bottom lands.

Manure Benefits Pastures

Two Pennington County farmers who tried 10 to 12 loads of fresh manure per acre on their pastures last year report some interesting conclusions to their successful experiment. In early spring, cows did not eat where manure covered the ground. But, when the grass was about six inches high, they paid no attention to the manure and ate all the tender grass they wanted. The manure greatly benefitted the pastures. Burtness kept 19 producing cows and six yearling heifers on 14 acres in early spring until late August. Mehrkens kept 20 cows and six yearling heifers on 16 acres all that time. Both feel, however, that 7 to 8 loads of manure would do just as well. Mehrkens was the first Pennington County farmer to have a complete farm plan with the county soil conservation district—Burtness was the 41st.

• • •

First Plowing Contest

The Mahnomen County Soil Conservation District's first plowing contest was held in August on the John Geray farm near Beaulieu. County implement and bulk gasoline dealers joined the district in sponsoring it. As a result of the contour plowing contest on Geray's farm, he finished contouring 27 acres of rolling land. The system was worked out on two fields to combat water erosion and topsoil loss. Geray also anticipates higher crop yields and lower tractor fuel bills from the new plan.

X-Tra Yield Winner Higher

Harold E. Jones, Extension soils specialist at the University, says wise practices paid off better than usual this year. Winner of the University's X-Tra Yield Corn Contest, sponsored in cooperation with The Farmer magazine of St. Paul, harvested 161 bushels per acre—nearly 20 bushels more per acre than 1953's winner.

Consumers in industrial countries pay out, as a group, an estimated 18 to 20 per cent of their income in taxes (including indirect taxes and custom duties) and put 7 to 10 per cent into savings say authors of a Twentieth Century Fund report.

DALE CARNEGIE

AUTHOR OF "HOW TO STOP WORRYING AND START LIVING"

LA VERNE R. LARSON, 4819 North Tripp Avenue, Chicago 30, Illinois, tells us that the year 1950 lives in her memory as a nightmare.

After conducting exhaustive tests and examinations, Chicago's top physicians informed her that her mother was surely and unalterably facing a situation where it would be necessary to amputate her leg. Her general condition was such that the chances were only one in several thousand that she would survive, yet it would have to be done perhaps in a month, almost certainly within a year.

CARNEGIE

From the moment she left the doctor's office following this shattering announcement, the question "How can I ever tell her?" burned constantly in the back of her mind. Her thoughts were so consumed with this that the course of her life was changed. Her work began to suffer, as did her social life. She was acting like someone under a spell and she wouldn't tell anyone the reason for it because she felt it was her worry.

As it happened, her mother mercifully died suddenly, easily, and without ever knowing what might have been in store for her. After it was all over and La Verne had time to think back over the events of that year she realized that all of her worries had been over something that never came to pass. She then made a solemn vow that she would never again let fear and worry get such a grip on her. She had learned the hard way that many of the things we worry about never happen. Whatever the future holds for her she declares she shall always have the good sense to do whatever there is to be done and then put her trust in God as to the final outcome.

THE MINNESOTA STORY

Prepared by the

CASKET AND SCALP

For a long time, no one knows the number of decades and generations, the Chippewas and the Sioux Indians of Minnesota made war against each other. The Sioux would invade the Chippewa country for murder and pillage. The Chippewas would drive their enemies back. At one time this warfare was carried to the streets of the new city of St. Paul.

On April 9, 1853, some Chippewas killed a Sioux woman on the Minnesota river. A war party of Sioux, made up at Kaposia, went to the St. Croix and killed an Objibway. The Chippewas made up a fierce, naked, painted and feather-decked party and came to St. Paul. A party of Sioux in the city, some women and a one-legged man, hid out in the Pioneer office. The Chippewas fired through the windows killing one of the women.

The citizens of St. Paul sent to St. Anthony for some dragoons. The white men made up a war party and, guided by some Sioux scouts, found the Chippewas on the St. Croix. The insolent Chippewas were fired upon and one Indian was killed and scalped.

The Sioux woman who was killed in St. Paul was buried on a scaffold near Kaposia. The casket was a box covered with fringed red cloth. Above it hung the scalp of the Chippewa killed by the dragoons.

THE ANSON NORTHROP

A hundred years ago there was a constant increase in the transportation needs of the territory of Minnesota. The river boats were showing their many advantages, especially upon the Minnesota and the Mississippi rivers.

In the western part of the state the Red River of the North was growing in importance as the area about it increased in population. To encourage transportation on this river the St. Paul Chamber of Commerce offered a bonus of a thousand dollars to anyone who would build a boat and put it in operation on the Red River. Anson Northrup, well known pioneer, offered to build such a boat and put it afloat on the Red River for two thousand dollars.

The offer was accepted. Anson had a large boat at the mouth of the Crow Wing river. He dismantled it to get machinery. He built a mill to saw lumber. In the spring of the following year the machinery and the lumber was toted overland to the Red River. That required the use of thirty-four teams of oxen and a large number of men. The material was then landed and the boat was assembled opposite the mouth of the Cheyenne. The boat was named for Northrup, a deserved recognition for all the effort of taking it across a prairie without roads and bridges.

The boat was useful. But the railroads, then being hurriedly constructed, soon took its business.

FIRST ON THE FRONTIER

Joseph Renville left his name upon a Minnesota county and its seat of government. Certainly, no one was more deserving of this recognition for Renville was one of the first white men to live in the Upper Mississippi Valley.

This man was born at Kaposia in 1779. When he was born there were no more than a half dozen families in an area including Northern Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa and Minnesota. His father was a French trader. His mother was a member of the Dakotah nation.

Noting that the boy, Joseph, was quick to learn his father sent him to Canada when he was ten years of age. He was taken in charge by a priest. He became fluent in the French and English languages but did not read and write. Returning to his native area he became an interpreter on the Zebulan Pike expedition in 1805. He also served the British army when its contingents came to what is now the Minnesota-Wisconsin area during the war of 1812. His ability attracted attention and he began work for the Northwest Fur Company. In 1822 he organized the Columbia Fur Company which he sold to John Jacob Astor.

Following the example of his father, Renville took unto himself a Sioux woman for a wife. Having an unusual interest in religious affairs he later journeyed to Prairie du Chien where he had his marriage confirmed by a priest. He is credited with bringing the first Bible to a permanent home in Minnesota. Living at Lac qui Parle he was helpful to the mission there. He died in March, 1846.

TV and Comics Not to Blame for Low Marks, Medical Group Says

Parents—stop blaming television and comics if your children are doing poor work in school. Undesirable behavior and even delinquency bear little relationship to the amount of time spent in reading comics or televiewing, according to a bulletin from the the Minnesota State Medical association today. The condition of the home is more frequently the culprit.

The amount of time children spend watching TV is not related to intelligence or to scholarship. The amount of comic book reading, too, is unrelated to marks in school, according to recent studies.

This does not mean that thoughtful parents can entirely eliminate their worries about the effect of comic books and excessive viewing of television on their children. The facts are these: children now spend about 20 hours a week with television and over 90 per cent of boys and girls between eight and 13 years of age read comic books regularly.

Where problems occur, they are centered around such items as increased nervousness, fatigue, eyestrain, less play and disinterest in school. But many well-adjusted, successful students spend extremely large amounts of time watching television. In every case of maladjustment, TV and comics could not alone be held responsible.

The challenge to parents is to promote a happy, satisfying home life; to provide the best schools possible for all children; to seek the best influence outside of school.

Instead of banning television or feignedly blaming it for bad behavior, parents should work with their children to plan balanced programs of recreation—time for television, time for comics, but also time for them to engage in other activities.

Guide children to choose the better comic books, and encourage them to select the best of a variety of TV and radio programs. Work with other adults to raise the standards of TV programs and comic books. These steps, taken together, will help combat delinquency and improve school work.

Drivers License Division Expense Exceeds Income

Operation of the Minnesota drivers license program is costing some $22,000 a month more than the revenues produced by driver license fees, a semi-annual report of the Drivers License division of the State Highway department indicates.

The excess of necessary expense over proceeds has to be made up out of trunk highway funds which otherwise could be used for physical improvements on the trunk highway system.

The operating accounts of the Drivers License division for the six-month period from July 1, 1954 to January 1, 1955 show total receipts from license and service fees of $208,265. In the same period expense of issuing, processing, mailing and keeping the records on Minnesota motor vehicle drivers licenses totalled $342,157, the Highway department reported—a deficit of $133,892.

Mrs. Howard's report will be of great interest to farm families of the Red River Valley who have contributed so generously to the CARE program.

Will Withholding Plan Help State, Taxpayer Unit Asks

Proposal Would Require Paying Two Years Taxes in One Year, Says Group

"While the withholding method of collecting state income taxes, now being proposed at the legislative session, may have a certain appeal to some citizens, there are many disadvantages in the plan that may not be generally understood. Perhaps these disadvantages outweigh in the long run whatever immediate benefit may be gained to the state", cautioned James P. McDonnell, president of the Minnesota Taxpayers Association.

The withholding plan would require the payment of two years state income taxes in one year's time, which will be a tremendous burden to all in the state who pay this tax.

Many tax-collecting authorities doubt whether the actual returns in dollars and cents will do much more than provide a temporary "windfall" to the state treasury. In the long pull, the legislature still will find itself with an additional school aid deficit if the per pupil aid is raised from $80 to $92. This deficit would require $73,000,000 more revenue in the 1957 biennium than is now being collected.

"What the state really needs is a reorganization that will yield more in economy, instead of the present system that allows some districts to build up idle surplus funds, while other districts get along with sparse revenues", McDonnell stated.

One of the disadvantages of withholding will be the greatly increased operating costs for merchants, professional men, and even farmers who employ help. They will need more extensive bookkeeping to process the withholding tax for each of their employees. In many cases firms will need extra help to do this work.

"But the state, itself, will be forced to handle many more returns a year from practically every income taxpayer. How many extra state employees will be required to handle such a task? Will the extra revenue received by the state justify this increased cost to employers, as well as the larger payroll that will be needed thereafter by the state to service this plan?" McDonnell asked.

These are problems that will require searching study by tax committees in both houses of the state legislature.

Truckers Warned Load Limits Take Effect in March

The Minnesota highway department has sounded an early note of spring. It has sent its annual reminder to operators of heavy vehicles throughout the state that the yearly highway load restriction season is approaching.

C. L. Motl, state highway maintenance engineer, has informed vehicle operators that spring thawing will require setting of maximum load limits on some 7,500 miles of state trunk highways to protect them from damage. Such restrictions may be necessary by early March, he said, and will continue into May, with diminishing severity.

"Anyone having seasonal heavy hauling to do should carry it out early enough to avoid the inconvenience brought on by the imposition of axle load restrictions," he cautioned the haulers. He urged movement of construction equipment, machinery and other heavy loads while the ground is still frozen.

Later notices will be sent out to truckers and transportation agencies listing restricted trunk highways and the anticipated load limits. Maps showing the restricted roads also will be supplied.

Vocal Quartet Final Concert Number Here on Wednesday, Feb. 23

A new vocal group, the Knickerbockers, which have already gained a solid reputation for music excellence throughout the South, will be heard in Lincoln high school auditorium at 8:15 on Wednesday, February 23. The group is the conventional soprano, alto, tenor, baritone combination, but the program these four young stars present promises to be anything—but routine.

Lorraine Donahue, Ruth Pitts, Adam Petroski and Richard Brode are the members of the Knickerbockers whose program will feature the new concept of vocal group concerts developed by musical director Donald Smith and stage director Gene Bayliss. A fast moving condensation of "Fledermaus" and special arrangements of popular songs are scheduled as well as concert features from opera and musical comedy.

Soprano Lorraine Donahue has displayed her voice in almost every phase of music. Last year she won two competitions for voice and scholarship at the New England Conservatory as well as an Arthur Godfrey victory. She also appeared for 13 weeks on the television series, "Best of Broadway."

Ruth Pitts, alto, has divided her time between opera, TV, summer stock and concerts. She appeared as soloist with Fred Waring's "Festival of Song" and with the Oklahoma City Symphony.

Baritone Richard Brode won scholarships at Baton Rouge and with the New Orleans Opera Guild and has sung leads at Tanglewood and with the Mannes Opera Company.

Tenor Adam Petroski appeared with the New England Opera Theatre where he was awarded the role of Tome Rakewell in "Rake's Progress" when Stravinsky conducted his own work there.

Donald Christmas is the pianist for the Knickerbockers.

The upper midwest tour by the Knickerbockers has been arranged by the University of Minnesota Concert, Theatre and Lecture Service.

Dave Vaaler, president of the Northwest Concert association, sponsor of the concert series, announced today that the work of signing members of the association for the coming year will get under way in the course of next Wednesday's program.

TRF Dispensary Shows Profit of $90,468 for 1954

The Thief River Falls liquor dispensary in 1954 had gross sales of $509,622 compared to $533,919 in 1953, it is revealed in the annual audit report submitted to the city council by Ralph A. Luhman, accountant. The report shows that expenses of operation increased from $67,686 in 1953 to $72,134 last year, while the establishment earned a net profit of $90,468 in 1954, compared to $93,567 the previous year.

Power Status to Be Topic at Open Meeting

The city council, at its February session Tuesday evening, voted to hold a public hearing Friday evening, February 25, at 7 o'clock to get the views of a representative group of local citizens as to the best means of meeting an imminent shortage in the local supply of electric power.

The action followed submission of a report on the problem by C. E. Hellquist, chairman of a citizens committee appointed last fall to make a study of the situation. The report, which makes several recommendations, appears elsewhere in this issue of the Times.

City Engineer Douglas Stewart called attention to an engineers' report on the issue submitted to the council last year, which cited two principal alternatives to meet the immediate situation: either to install a new Diesel unit or to install a substation at a cost of $75,000 or more in order to secure power from the Minnkota REA plant. Some question was raised as to the ability of the REA to supply firm power at times of peak loads.

Roy Bakken, president of the park board, asked the council to consider the matter of installing a comfort station with sanitary toilet facilities in the tourist park. He estimated it would cost in the neighborhood of $3,500. The matter was referred to the city engineer for study.

A resolution was adopted asking the state commissioner of aeronautics to supply two-thirds of the approximately $7,000 that it would cost to apply a bituminous seal coat to the airport runways.

The council confirmed the appointment by Mayor Agnes Israelson of three members of the municipal airport commission, including G. A. Frahm, Wallace Tunberg and Elmer Bratsch.

The Times was designated as the official city newspaper, and action on naming official city depositories was deferred, pending clarification of some of the provisions of the bids.

The council received notice that the soil conservation service is terminating on March 14 its lease on quarters in the remodeled former city filtration plant.

A building permit in the amount of $15,000 was issued to the local Land O'Lakes plant, covering remodeling of its office quarters.

More Leaders for Red Cross Drive Chosen

Water Safety and Home Service Directors Tell of Activities Last Year

Additional captains for the Red Cross fund campaign which will get under way in Pennington county Tuesday, March 1, were announced this week by Mrs. Edward L. Gilbert, chairman of the county drive, acting in behalf of the Thief River Falls Woman's club.

Mrs. Myron Haroldson has been appointed chairman for the business district of the city, while team captains and their areas include Mrs. A. F. Burke and Mrs. Lars Hylden, part of the north side; Mrs. R. G. Mabey, part of the east side; Mrs. A. M. Aase, Horseshoe district; Mrs. Paul Wendt, Oakland Park area; Mrs. John Chial, northwest district; and Mrs. Ray P. Jude, special gifts.

Herman A. Kjos, chairman of the county Red Cross chapter, this week released reports by two committee heads listing some of the activities carried on in this county by the Red Cross in 1954.

Quentin Jones, water safety director, announced that free swimming lessons were given last summer at Tindolph pool to 536 children from this city, St. Hilaire and Goodridge as well as rural 4-H clubs. He urged that youngsters who did not share in the lessons in 1954 be sure to register for this year's program and learn to swim.

Information released today by R. S. Eldevik, home service chairman of the Red Cross, reveals that a total of 58 persons or families were given Red Cross home service assistance of various types during 1954. The majority of cases handled were requests for financial assistance and emergency communications service between families at home and servicemen serving in the armed forces.

Eldevik stated that Red Cross home service is indispensible as a direct line of contact between servicemen wherever stationed and their mothers and fathers, wives and children back home. In emergency cases, the American Red Cross will establish contact with the serviceman whether he be stationed in the United States, overseas, or on a ship at sea.

This is done through the reporting and communications unit at national headquarters in Washington, D. C., or directly with American Red Cross field directors located in military installations in the United States.

Financial assistance on a limited basis was given to 25 persons or families. Such assistance by Home Service is given mainly to serve emergency needs for food, shelter, and clothing.

Red Cross Home Service in Pennington County is a voluntary service that is available at anytime to those who may need its help.

Citizens Committee Offers Suggestions on Local Power Plant

Resigns Post Here

W. G. CLAFFY

Superintendent of the Thief River Falls schools since 1948, and previous to that Lincoln high school principal since 1930, who submitted his resignation at a meeting of the board of education Monday evening, effective August 1. He and Mrs. Claffy plan to establish their residence in Long Beach, California where Mrs. Claffy's parents are living.

The citizens' committee appointed last fall to make a survey of the immediate and long-range needs of the municipal power plant filed its report with the city council Tuesday evening. Serving on the group are C. E. Hellquist, chairman; W. E. Dahlquist, secretary; Carl E. Gjernes, council president; and Harry R. Lund and F. A. Rinkel, former aldermen. The report follows:

We, the members of the citizen's committee, appointed by your direction to study the power problem in Thief River Falls and to recommend a program of development, submit the following report.

The members of our committee, after giving consideration to several factors that may bring radical changes in the field of power generation and transmission in the years immediately ahead of us, are not in a position to recommend a specific program for long range future expansion. Thief River Falls is located within the area that has been prescribed as eligible for Bureau of Reclamation power generated by hydro plants installed along the Missouri River. You have already recognized this possibility by your application for service from this source.

There is the possibility of natural gas being made available in this area which could have the effect of reducing production costs in diesel plants such as that now operated by our city. And there is talk of large central generating plants which would make low cost power available as a supplemental service to the hydro production along the Missouri.

The members of the committee are aware that out of these possibilities there may at some future period develop a condition that would justify the discontinuance of power generation in small plants such as this city now operates. The committee, however, is agreed that there is nothing in the immediate prospect that would justify such a step and therefore believes that the present plant should be maintained as our main source of power for the time being and until dependable power is assured from

6-county Sheriff, Police Radio Net Is Discussed Here

Officials from Six Counties at Meeting in City Last Thursday

Nearly 50 representatives of county boards, sheriffs' offices and police departments from six counties in Northwestern Minnesota assembled in Thief River Falls last Thursday to discuss the possibility of setting up a two-way radio hookup to serve the six counties under one circuit.

At the meeting, over which Sheriff Arthur Rambeck of this city presided, speakers pointed out the benefits that would result from making it possible for law enforcement officers to communicate quickly with each other when a problem arises.

It was explained that the facilities of the highway patrol radio network are not available to sheriffs or police officers.

Present to discuss with the group the equipment needed for the installation were George Tetty and Warren Bosch of the N. W. Bell Telephone company, who offered the equipment on a rental basis; and Verne Larson of the Motorola company and V. F. Anderson of General Electric company, which firms sell the needed items.

All of the officials present showed interest in the proposal, and they arranged to discuss the matter further at a later meeting when more definite cost figures are available.

Counties represented at the meeting Thursday included Pennington, Red Lake, Polk, Marshall, Roseau and Kittson, as well as police officers from East Grand Forks, Hallock, Warren and Thief River Falls.

Thief River Falls Woman's Club Competing for Prize in Achievement Contest

The record of achievement of the Thief River Falls Woman's club, recounted in a statement prepared by Mrs. Don E. Lawrence, immediate past president of the club, has been entered in the International Community Achievement contest sponsored by the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Member clubs will compete for a total of $60,000 in prizes in the contest, which is aimed at making the community a better place in which to live.

The prizes will be awarded at the federation's convention in Kansas City, Mo., in May 1956.

Mrs. Lawrence's account follows:

The Thief River Falls Woman's Club is very active in community service and we thought perhaps some of your readers would be interested in a few of our accomplishments.

The population of Thief River Falls is about 7500, so perhaps some of our projects are not on as large a scale as those of clubs from larger cities. But to our community they are very important.

Since 1936 (18 years) we have sponsored a one-day Crippled Children's Clinic. Approximately 125 children, from surrounding counties, are examined each year by orthopedic specialists from Minneapolis. Physical therapists recommend treatments and instruct the parents on therapeutic exercises.

The clinic is set up in the high school building and the Woman's Club secures all the properties used, such as examining tables, screens and hospital gowns; also color books, crayons and toys to keep the small children happy while they are waiting their turn for examination.

Through the cooperation of organizations and business men in the city, we serve noon lunches to all the children and their parents. A noon luncheon is also served to the doctors, nurses and to all those assisting with the clinic. Coffee and cookies or cake are served to the doctors and nurses in the forenoon and afternoon. This food is all prepared, by the members of our club, in the home economics kitchen.

Many of the children examined are from families unable to afford medical attention. This clinic, including the food, is all free.

It is disheartening to see all the crippled children who come to this clinic for help, but it is gratifying to see the improvement in some of the children each year and to know that we are doing what we can to help a few who are less fortunate than ourselves. There is a tug at our heartstrings as we see the children's eyes light up when we give them "just" an ice cream cone, and also when we see the heartfelt thanks in the eyes of the parents.

Other activities of our club include:

Sponsoring the Easter Seal sale for crippled children. On November 13, we had a "Coffee Break" in the two banks and netted $100 for the benefit of a camp for crippled children in Minnesota.

We took over the Emergency Polio Drive in September, which resulted in the most successful house to house canvass in the City. We collected $3200.

We will do the Red Cross canvass this year.

We participate in all the drives in the city such as Red Cross, Cancer, Polio and Community Chest. Our club also donates to all these drives.

Five hundred dollars was paid to a building fund for a new hospital in Thief River Falls.

We have a revolving student loan fund of $138. We expect to add to this each year and we are planning a spring bazaar to raise money for this fund.

We raised $165.00 for the Restoration of Independence Hall, the Federated Women's Clubs big project in 1953 and 1954.

We assisted with an out-door pageant, depicting 50 years of progress in this area. It was seen by over 7000 people. We were responsible for the cast of 100 people, its costumes, make up and properties.

A souvenir plate and a booster button, commorating a 50-year celebration in Thief River Falls, were designed by members of our club. At this date about 800 plates and 2500 buttons have been sold. Proceeds of these sales were used to help defray the cost of the celebration.

A survey was made of all the news stands in the city for the purpose of finding obscene literature. The cooperation of all the dealers was asked in having it removed from the shelves. Due to this survey we noticed a marked improvement in the type of comic books and literature on the news stands.

We assisted in forming a Blood Bank in the county.

Twenty-eight outstanding women honored last spring, for their community service, by Hamline University in St. Paul included one of our members.

We sent packages to German Youth Assistance in Europe and at Christmas time twelve poor families are remembered with boxes of food, clothing and toys.

Some of our members are active on the city planning board.

Besides all these important projects this past year our club was host to the Ninth District convention in April, 1954. So I am sure you will agree with me that we haven't let any grass grow under our feet.

We would like to enter our work for McCall's monthly $100 award, but to pick out just one of our projects as outstanding is hard to do because each accomplishment has been very important to the progress and welfare of our community. However if I am to choose, I believe I would select our Crippled Children's Clinic as one of the most needed projects and as one resulting in such "far reaching" hope and happiness in this area.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Voldness spent Monday in Moorhead visiting at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bonawitz.

In the Saturday night games, the St. Paul Dutch Maid bested the local PeeWees, 4 to 1, with the locals' young rightwinger, Eddie Armstrong scoring in the third period to break the shutout hopes of the Dutch Maid's goalie, Tom Martinson.

In the final game on Saturday, the Duluth Midgets, with wing Tom Hubbard registering a three-goal performance, defeated the Roseau PeeWees, 7 to 3. Dave Wensloff scored the three goals for the losers.

In the semi-final series on Sunday afternoon, International Falls trounced Eveleth, 8 to 2; and the Duluth Midgets edged out the St. Paul Dutch Maid club, 3 to 2. In sending the defending champion Eveleth club to the side-line, coach Buck Riley's Falls PeeWees played first-rate hockey, with Les Etienne, Dan Cullen, and John Kerry each getting a pair of goals for the winners.

In the second semi-finals tilt, the Duluth club was hard-pressed to hold off the St. Paul Dutch Maid sextet in the final period. Duluth, with Chuck Gregg scoring in the first period, Dates Fryberger in the second period, and Tom Hubbard in the opening minute of the third period, held a 3 to 0 lead; but a pair of goals by Garry Schmalzbauer brought the Dutch Maids back into the game, and it was only due to some able goal tending by Duluth's Roger Thomas that prevented the score from being tied.

In the tournament finals game on Sunday night, Duluth, with International Falls playing a man short by having Les Etienne off the ice for a tripping violation, scored at the 9:41 mark when Tom Williams, on a solo rush, circled the defense and beat goalie Jim Wherely from close in. Duluth moved into a 2 to 0 lead at the 7:06 mark of the second period when young Dates Fryberger, on a backhand shot from 15-feet out, picked the corner of the north goal.

Duluth missed on several opportunities to boost their score, with Hubbard breaking loose for a pair of open shots at goalie Wherely, but the Falls net-minder blocked the tries; and Fryberger just barely missed connecting on a pair of shots.

Falls' Bob Miggins, one of the tournament's stand-out performers banged in goals at 7:26 of the final period; and from then on until the final buzzer sounded, coach Riley's Falls squad continued to apply "pressure", but the Duluth club failed to yield.

Duluth's goalie Roger Thomas was named as the tourney's outstanding player.

Prowler Quint Wins and Loses; Detroit Lakes Here Saturday

Coach Al Adams' basketball Prowlers recorded a win and a loss in the two-game series "on the road" during the weekend, defeating the Crookston Pirates, 47 to 46, in a nerve-wracking game at Crookston on Friday night, and losing to Bun Fortier's Bemidji Lumberjacks, 73 to 44, at Bemidji on Saturday night.

The next game on the slate will be a "home" tilt here on Saturday night, Feb. 19th, against Detroit Lakes Lakers. The game will find the Prowlers' Chuck Brandvold playing against his former teammates, for Chuck was a mid-season transfer from Detroit Lakes.

The most dramatic game of the two-game weekend series was that played at Crookston on Friday night. With two seconds of play remaining, and with the Prowlers leading by a 47 to 45 score, a foul was called on the locals George Gifford, giving Crookston's Ralph Pester an opportunity to knot the score. Pester dropped in the first point, but his second try rolled off the rim, and before an organized play could develop, game-time had elapsed.

The Pirates, with Pepper Lysaker hitting from the outside and with Hank Hulst finding the basket for five field goals, gained a 13 to 7 lead at the end of the first period and held a 29 to 21 advantage at the intermission.

With Bill Frahm carrying the bulk of the Prowler scoring load, coach Adams' squad pecked away at the Pirate lead, and trailed by only four points, 37 to 33, as the fourth quarter opened. With about five minutes of the game remaining, Frahm tied the score at 41-all. Frahm scored on a jump shot to move the Prowlers into a 43 to 41 lead; but the Pirates, with Hulst looping in a shot from the corner, evened the score at 43-all.

A pair of field goals by George Gifford and Chuck Brandvold gave the Prowlers a 47 to 43 lead with 3:22 to play. Hulst converted on a pair of Pirates free throws, and the game moved into its final seconds with the locals holding a 2-point lead. Pester, with an opportunity to send the game into overtime, missed on his second free throw and the Prowlers had gained a 1-point win, 47 to 46.

In a preliminary game, coach Joe Mikonich's Prowler 'B' team, with Dave Hanson scoring 21 points, defeated the Crookston 'B' team, 41 to 32.

Apparently experiencing a "letdown" from their "squeaker" of the previous night, the Prowlers, playing at Bemidji on Saturday night, dropped a 73 to 44 decision to coach Bun Fortier's defending regional champions. Bemidji, converting on eleven of twelve free throw tries, and with Dick Carter tossing in four field goals, rushed away to a 30 to 10 first period lead. And with that 20-point "cushion" the Lumberjacks were able to control the pattern of the game throughout the remaining three periods.

Bemidji had four players scoring in "double figures," with Darrell Erickson marking up 20 points, all-state Jack Whiting 13 points, Fred Barker 11 points, and Carter 10 points. Frahm and Brandvold, each of whom had 11 points, were the Prowlers high-point men.

Losing their third game of the year, the Prowler 'B' team, by a 70 to 55 score, were defeated by Jack Louma's Bemidji 'B' squad in a preliminary game. Corky Johnson, scoring 16 points, paced the Lumberjack 'B' squad scorers.

Results of the week's games:

T. R. Falls, 4, at Warroad, 7
Grand Forks, 3, at Roseau, 6
Warroad, 5, at Grand Forks, 3
Crookston, 4, at Roseau, 7

This week's schedule:
Feb. 16th,
Warroad at Thief River Falls
Roseau at Crookston

Only two games remain to be played on the Northwest Hockey league schedule, but those two contests could have a vital bearing on the league championship and the playoff berths. On Wednesday night, the Warroad Lakers will meet the Thief River Falls Thieves in the local arena; and the league-leading Roseau Cloverleafs are slated to play the Pirates at Crookston.

The Crookston Pirates need a win or a tie to break their fourth-place deadlock with the Grand Forks Redwings. The Warroad Lakers are only one point behind the Roseau Cloverleafs, and if the Lakers defeat the Thieves here on Wednesday and the Pirates defeat the Leafs at Crookston, the Warroad Lakers would take over the top rung. Any number of complications could arise from the outcome of Wednesday night's games.

A meeting of the league directors has been tentatively scheduled for Thief River Falls on Thursday night, and at this meeting final arrangements will be made for the league play-offs.

Citizens Group Reports on Local Power Situation

some other source at a lower cost.

On this basis the committee offers the following recommendations:

1. Whereas new factors are entering into the overall problem of power generation and distributions in the area, the citizens of Thief River Falls should be informed on changing conditions. Toward this end every effort should be made to provide essential facts to the citizens. It is desirable that such information be made available as early as possible in order that there be no undue delay in taking necessary action.

2. The committee commend the city council for having taken the initial step towards securing Bureau of Reclamation power and urges that the city take whatever additional steps may be necessary to secure this power when it becomes available.

3. Whereas it appears that there is need for additional standby power, the committee recommends that the council secure additional information on comparative costs of dependable standby power if provided by the purchase of an additional diesel unit at our municipal plant or secured from other sources that may be available.

Corporation Tax on Incomes Due by March 15th

Collector Says Extension to April 15th Does Not Apply to Corporations

A. R. Knox, district director of internal revenue, today emphasized the fact that the final date for filing federal income tax returns for corporations which report their income on a calendar year basis has not been extended to April 15 as in the case of individual and fiduciary taxpayers and partnerships.

Returns of corporations for the calendar year 1954 must be filed and at least 50 percent of the total tax due must be paid on or before March 15. However, in cases where the corporation's returns cannot be completed by the due date, penalties can be avoided if Internal Revenue Service Form 7004 is submitted to the office of the district director of internal revenue, New Post Office Building, St. Paul 1, Minnesota, with a payment of at least 50 percent of the estimated amount of the total tax due on or before March 15.

Upon filing Form 7004 and payment of 50 percent of the estimated tax due not later than March 15, corporations will be granted an additional three months within which to file their completed Federal income tax return.

Winter Shows Start Monday at Crookston

Governor Freeman to Give Address Thursday Evening, February 24

The 45th annual Red River Valley Winter Shows at Crookston, February 21-25, promises to be one of the best in the long history of the shows, according to T. M. McCall, president of the Winter Shows board of managers. Mr. McCall states, "We have been extremely fortunate in securing speakers of international fame to headline the evening programs. For the daytime educational meetings, we have secured the outstanding specialists in their respective fields to bring to the farmers and homemakers of this area up-to-date information of immediate importance."

Subjects of widespread interest will be presented at the three evening programs given during the week. Dr. Fred C. Schwartz of Sidney, Australia, the first speaker at the evening sessions, will speak on the "Menace of Communism" on Tuesday, February 22. Dr. Schwartz, a world traveler and lecturer, has observed the infiltration of communism in many countries of the world and his message will be of vital importance to his Red River Valley audience.

On Wednesday evening, February 23, Carl T. Rowan, Minneapolis Tribune staff writer, who has just returned from a 32,000-mile trip around the world, will bring his firsthand observations of the political and economic conditions existing in India, Pakistan, and other parts of the Orient.

Mr. Rowan left Minneapolis in July of last year, and at the request of the State department, served as a specialist in the International Exchange Program where he traveled throughout India lecturing on American newspapers and their role in social change.

Upon the completion of his assignment with the State department, the Minneapolis Tribune sent him from India to Pakistan, Burma, Thailand, IndoChina, Indonesia, Malaya, Hong Kong, and the Philippines. Mr. Rowan has won many journalistic honors and was named as one of America's ten outstanding young men in 1953 by the Junior Chamber of Commerce of America.

Minnesota's Governor Orville L. Freeman will be the featured speaker on Thursday evening, February 24. Governor Freeman has advocated a strong development program for the state of Minnesota and will bring a message of vital importance to his state.

Music for the evening programs includes the Barber Shop Quartet contest on Tuesday, February 22; Crookston high school concert orchestra and Crookston male chorus, Wednesday, February 23; and Crookston municipal band and mixed chorus, February 24. The Crookston municipal band will also give a concert in the judging arena on Monday evening when the shows will be open to the public. Bands from the Northwest School of Agriculture and Crookston high school will give noon-day concerts throughout the week.

The days of Winter Shows week have been designated as follows: Monday, February 21, Soil Conservation Day, Livestock and Crops Judging Day, with open class judging of sheep starting during the afternoon. Tuesday, February 22, Junior Futurity Day, Crops Day, and Ninth District Horticultural Society Day. Wednesday, February 23, 4-H Club Day with dairy demonstrations, 4-H grain clinic, crops judging contest, and Livestock Day. Thursday, February 24, Governor's Day, Potato and Sugar Beet Day, and Livestock Cattle Sales Day. Friday, February 25, the closing day of the shows will have as the main feature the sale of registered swine and sheep.

The evening meetings and men's day programs will be held in the Crookston High School auditorium.

Events in Home Program Planned

Family Life Conference Slated in City March 4

Plans for the coming home program events were made at the February meeting of the Extension Home Council Tuesday, February 8.

Council President Mrs. Lloyd Johnson conducted the business portion of the meeting. The family life conference will be held in Thief River Falls on Friday, March 4. Each group will send two leaders to the conference, and they will present the lesson later to their groups. A steering committee was selected, consisting of council members Mrs. Joe Johnson, Mrs. Wilbur Hallstrom, Mrs. Hendy Sandberg, Mrs. John Kjelgren and Mrs. Ernest Swanson.

The tentative date of May 3 was set for the annual achievement day. It will coincide with National Home Demonstration Week. Committees were set up for the event.

Members also planned for the remaining lessons in the extension home program. Open meetings will be given in March on business affairs of the family, in April on water systems, and in May on freezing.

After craft work in copper enameling, lunch was served by Mrs. Emil Swanson and Mrs. Charles Sorenson.

The council will meet again on April 5.

Match Your Plaids

Plaids are usually a problem to home sewers because they're often so tricky to match. That's why it's important, when you select your material, to think of the matching problem you're likely to have when you sew. Extension clothing specialists at the University of Minnesota say one way to make matching easier is to choose a plaid with a design that's the same on all four sides — top, bottom, left and right.

In case you choose a plaid that has a white horizontal line, plan the skirt so the white doesn't come at the hemline. A bright or dark stripe will look better than white at the bottom of the skirt.

When you buy plaid, don't forget that you'll need extra material for matching.

Cut Pile Fabrics Carefully

If you're planning to add a corduroy or velveteen skirt or jumper to your daughter's wardrobe, you may want some tips on cutting these fabrics.

You'll notice that on either fabric the pile usually slants slightly in one direction. Placing opposite ends side by side, you can see how that material reflects light differently. That's why it's important to have the pile running in the same direction. So when you cut velveteen or corduroy, have the top of each pattern piece facing in one direction. Velveteen is cut with the pile running down.

If panels of a skirt are cut with the nap running in different directions, one part of the skirt will be lighter color than the other. That's what will happen when the pattern pieces have been dovetailed. You'll probably need more napped material for a particular pattern than plain fabric, so check the recommended amount of yardage.

Tips on Washing, Ironing Corduroy

All corduroy is hand washable. Many corduroys now carry special seals certifying to corduroy washability by commercial laundries as well as by home washing machines. However, if the garment or drapery or slip cover has complicated tailoring, dry cleaning is recommended.

Here are some simple rules to follow in washing corduroy so that it will retain its color, softness and deep pile:

• Use a mild detergent and warm water, squeezing suds through the fabric. Rinse by pressing the water out gently. Never twist or use a wringer, because this will set deep creases into corduroy pile.

• When you have taken the garment out of the water, straighten it out as though you were going to put it on soaking wet. Reset the collar, turn back cuffs. Hang jackets, shirts and dresses on hangers; skirts across the waistband; overalls at the bottom of the legs. Hang up to drip dry.

• Use a steam iron, if ironing seems necessary when the garment is dry. Hold the iron very slightly above the fabric on the wrong side, so slowly with the ribs so the steam penetrates thru to the right side. You can get the same effect by using an ordinary iron covered with a damp cloth. Brush the pile to raise it.

Plant Industry Parley Thursday Is Well Attended

Agriculture Department Agent Warns of Possible Grasshopper Outbreak

The plant industry conference held in Thief River Falls on Thursday, February 10th, was well attended, with township officials and many others interested persons present reports County Agent Bill Penning.

A report on grasshoppers was given to the group by Oscar Pearson, U.S.D.A. pest control branch. Mr. Pearson stated that farmers in this area should be on the lookout for a moderate to heavy outbreak of grasshoppers in some areas of the county. It was suggested that farmers pay particular attention to the field borders and the alfalfa and fields as possible areas where grasshoppers multiply. Mr. Pearson said the cost of control on grasshoppers is much less than the damage they cause.

John Angerman, district weed and seed inspector, reported to the group the regulatory aspects of the weed and seed law.

Jack Barns of the state entomologist office reported on last year's armyworm outbreak, warning the group that although past experience indicates there will not be another severe outbreak of armyworms, they should be on the lookout for damage, especially in low isolated areas.

A number of slides on control of weeks were shown by K. L. Blanchard, agronomist with the state department of agriculture. Mr. Blanchard pointed out, to the group that two new weeds were threatening to become established in this area, tall buttercups and giant foxtail.

Schools' Mantoux Testing Finished

One Is Hospitalized in Sunnyrest Sanatorium

The school tuberculosis survey was completed last week, Mrs. Margaret Race, school nurse, announced. Because Oakland Park is no longer available for X-ray service all x-rays had to be taken at Crookston's Sunnyrest sanatorium.

In a routine check-up one local student showed evidence of disease and has been hospitalized at Crookston. Of the 31 adults and 43 students x-rayed there was no other evidence of disease. The finding of even one case should prove to all of us how important it is to have routine Mantoux programs, said Mrs. Race, and even more important, that all positive reactors are x-rayed annually.

The response to the Mantoux testing was very gratifying Mrs. Race said, with 100 per cent of the faculty and maintenance staff being tested and 98 per cent of the student body.

During Dr. Flancher's three days in the Thief River Falls schools he did a total of 2,140 Mantoux tests. From this number 11 new reactors were found, which means, said Mrs. Race, that we still have tuberculosis in our midst and we must not give up the fight against it. To date all positive reactors have been x-rayed some time during this school year.

Prowler Hockey Team to Enter Region Tourney Here Thursday

Coach Dennis Rolle's Prowlers made their first move in the defense of their regional and state high school hockey titles on Monday night when, in a sub-regional game played at Roseau, the blue-and-gold defeated Ed Miller's Baudette team, 10 to 0. In the second game on the sub-regional program, Williams edged out Hallock, 4 to 2, to gain a regional tourney berth.

On Thursday and Friday nights, Feb. 17 and 18, the regional tournament will be played on the Arena rink here. Thursday night's first round games will find the Roseau Rams, the conference leaders and tournament favorite, meeting Williams at 7:30 p. m.; and at 9:00 p. m. the Warroad Warriors, the conference's number two team, will meet the Prowlers. On Friday night, at 7:30 p. m. the winners of the Thursday night semi-finals will play for the regional championship. This, being an odd numbered year, is the year when the eighth region will provide the state tournament with two entries. The regional champion will represent the eigth region in the state meet, while the runner-up will enter the state tournament as the region three representative.

The state tournament is scheduled for the St. Paul Auditorium, Feb. 24th, 25th, and 26th. The state tournament pairings will have region 1 playing region 7 at 3:30 p. m. on Feb. 24th; at 4:00 p. m. region 2 will play region 6. At 7:30 p. m. on Feb. 24th, region 3 will play region 5; and at 9:00 p.m., region 4 will face region 8.

The semi-finals will be played on Friday night, Feb. 25th, and the championship finals on Saturday night Feb. 26th.

Monday night's sub-regional opener between Baudette and the Prowlers found coach Rolle's team scoring at 1:41 mark, with Bid Vraa banging a goal into the east cage during a melee at the goal-mouth. Joey Poole, with Jim Hall on the assist, tallied at 4:04; and when Hall, taking Joe Poole's centering out pass in front of the net, scored at 9:38, the locals held a 3 to 0 lead.

Goals by Duane Glass, Glenn Carlson, Chip Strand and Jack Poole boosted the Prowlers' lead to 7 to 0 in the second period. And third period markers by Hall, Brad Teal, and Carlson gave the Prowlers their 10 to 0 win.

In the second game of the sub-regional, Williams, with Bruce Gillie scoring the first two goals for the Wolves, defeated Hallock, 4 to 2.

Faced by the limited capacity of the local Arena rink, tournament officials have decided on an advance ticket sale, with the tickets being allotted to Thief River Falls, Roseau, Warroad, and Williams, the competing teams. There will be no ticket sales at the box office at the Arena on the game nights.

East Grand Forks Defeats Prowler Quintet 53 to 40

Chuck Brandvold Is High Scorer Tuesday, Piling up 15 Points

A pair of keen-eyed and play making guards—Paul Hanson and Ron Nisbet—sparked coach Snooks Sullivan's East Grand Forks team to a 53 to 40 win over the Prowlers in a 31st district basketball game played at East Grand Forks on Tuesday night.

With Hanson scoring three field goals in the opening period, the Green Wave sprinted into an 8-point lead at the end of the first quarter, with the score reading 16 to 8. The Prowlers, with Mark Bjorkman getting five points via the free throw route, and with Chuck Brandvold, who was the game's high scorer, hitting on a pair of field goals, out-pointed the East Siders, 12 to 11 in the second period, and trail by seven points, 27 to 20, at the intermission.

Utilizing their customary press, and having an advantage in covering the rebounds, East Grand Forks added five points to their game lead in the third stanza, outscoring the locals 16 to 11.

With Dean Dallum, Gary Saunders, and John Cash each picking up three personal fouls in the first half, coach Sullivan was forced to use his "bench" much of the time, and his first line reserves, Bob Glimsdahl and Ordean Thompson performed ably for the Green Wave, with the sturdy Glimsdahl picking up a pair of field goals and four free throws.

In the final period, with both teams using reserves, the Prowlers scored but two field goals, while the East Siders looped in three field goals and picked up five points on gift tosses.

The loss was the eighth of the season for the Prowlers, and brought the locals won and lost record again to the .500 mark. The Prowlers will play the Detroit Lakes Lakers here in an inter district game on Saturday night, Feb. 19th.

Tickets, Tickets, Who's Got the Tickets

This is the season of the year when younger elements of our population, and those that feel young, are being stricken by "hockey madness." Meaning, of course, that we are in the week of the eighth region's hockey playoffs.

The state of teams that are entered in the regional tournament here on Thursday and Friday nights—Roseau, Williams, Warroad, and Thief River Falls—are the region's best, and among the best in the state, too. Oscar Almquist's Roseau Rams, with only one loss to mar their conference record, are rated as the tourney favorite, and the Rams are favored to defeat Williams in a first round game on Thursday night. At 9:00 p. m. the game that could develop in the tournament's best will find coach Dennis Rolle's Prowlers meeting Jimmy Doyle's Warroad Warriors, and a trip to the state tournament will hinge on the outcome of that tilt.

In a conference game played here a couple of weeks ago, the Prowlers whomped the Warriors, 8 to 1, after spotting the Warriors the game's first tally. But since that time the Warroad Warriors have handed an 8 to 4 trouncing to the St. Paul Johnson squad, the team that played a 3-all tie with Roseau, and as a result coach Doyle's squad have regained much of their confidence. Thursday night's game between the Prowlers and the Warriors, and you can throw their season's records aside, will be a toss-up.

The championship finals on Friday night will be pretty much of an anti-climactic affair for both of the teams will gain state tourney berths. The fact is, the regional champion will probably have the hardest first round game in the state tourney, meeting the St. Paul high school champion; while the regional runnerup, representing region three, will play the Minneapolis high school champion. It could happen, too, if the region eight and region three representatives are successful in their first round games, that they would meet in a state tournament semi-finals game.

But the big problem this week is the ticket and space situation at the Arena. The local school officials weren't anxious to have the regional tourney here, but the conference schools by a vote, favored the local rink.

There are a number of solutions for the crowd problem, and one would have been to divide the first night's games. For example, Warroad could have played Thief River Falls at Roseau, and Roseau could have met Williams at Warroad. That would have split the crowd, and about 4000 fans would be able to witness at least one regional game. The regional finals, to be strictly neutral, could have been played at Grand Forks, in North Dakota's Winter Sports Building. The 31st district and eighth regional basketball tournament are played at Grand Forks, and it wouldn't be hardship to have the regional hockey finals over there.

Vic Lindquist and Pete Ullman will referee the regional tourney games, and that means that the games will be under control at all times.

A Fine Tournament

To continue on a hockey diet ... that was a splendid "kid" hockey tournament that was concluded here on Sunday night when the Duluth Midgets, by a 2 to 1 score, defeated Buck Riley's International Falls squad for the state PeeWee hockey title. Congratulations are due to the local tournament committee who were in charge of the arrangements, and to the MAHA, the sponsors of the PeeWee hockey program.

The only criticisms we heard and they were minor, were to the effect that the tournament should extend over three days (and Don Clark, the MAHA secretary, tells us that a three-day program will be used in the future), that the tournament age limit should be thirteen years instead of fourteen (it is easier to discipline the boys that are thirteen than those that are fourteen, and further the physical sizes of the boys will be more uniform at thirteen) and that it should not be proper for the state's biggest cities to enter all-star teams.

The Duluth Midgets were an all-star aggregation from that city. Oh yes, by bringing the age limit down to thirteen, you would get away from the conflict with the school officials for a number of fourteen-year old boys are members of their respective high school squads, and as such are ineligible to participate in the PeeWee hockey program.

Incidentally, that 8 to 2 defeat the International Falls PeeWees handed the Eveleth PeeWees on Sunday afternoon, added to the 12 to 4 defeat that the Falls high school team administered to Eveleth at the Falls on Saturday night, may portend the end of Eveleth's "golden era" in hockey. It may indicate that the Falls will take over as the "power" in region seven hockey.

Miscellany

We are in receipt of a news clipping, and photo, telling us of the hockey activities of Lloyd "Sonny" Johnson. Lloyd, who was a hard-working center-ice player on the 1945 hockey Prowlers, the team that reached the finals of the first state hockey tournament, is playing at right wing, and he's a high scorer, too, of the Schenectady Generals in the New York State Amateur Hockey league. The Generals have a three and two record in the four-team circuit. . . . There were a number of noted hockey personalities in attendance at the PeeWee tournament here on Saturday and Sunday. Among them were "Rip" Williams of Duluth, who had a son, Tommy, playing with the championship Duluth Midgets. Another old timer who took in the games, and enjoyed them, was Eddie Oatman. Oatman, who played his pro hockey with Duluth and Minneapolis in the 1920's, played organized hockey until he was 48 years old. Oatman and Williams had quite a reunion when they met on Sunday.

Thieves to End Schedule with Warroad Game

To Play Here Tonight with Jack Hoppe in the Nets for Local Sextet

The senior hockey Thieves will conclude their 1954-55 schedule on Wednesday night when the meet the Warroad Lakers on the Arena rink, and the outcome of the game could decide the league championship. It's a "must" game for the Lakers if they expect to overtake the league-leading Roseau Cloverleafs, with the Lakers trailing the Leafs by one point.

Coach Paul Bedard stated that Jack Hoppe, all-state goalie for the high school Prowlers last season, will be in the nets for the Thieves. The Thieves dropped a 7 to 6 decision to the Lakers at Warroad on Saturday night in bruising contest, and they will be anxious to avenge that loss and spill Warroad's title hopes on Wednesday night.

The Thieves clinched a playoff berth when they defeated the Crookston Pirates, 6 to 3, here last Wednesday night. Bill Juzda's long shot, from near the red-line, gave the Thieves a lead at 18.46 of the first period. Bud Brossoit, who turned in a "hat trick" performance, notched the first of his three goals when he beat goalie Bud Schraeder at 3:38 of the second period. Crookston's Eddie Derosier and Malcolm Davidson, scoring at 9:48 and 12:51, knotted the game at 2-all. The tie game was broken at 13:08 when Church Russell scored, and when Brossoit hit the net at 18:28 the Thieves held a 4 to 2 lead.

Goals by Brossoit and Castelane gave the locals a "comfortable" 6 to 2 lead in the opening minutes of the third period; and Crookston's Sergio Gambucci closed out the scoring by tallying at 17:38.

In a rough and rugged contest played at Warroad on Saturday night, the Lakers, on a three-goal outburst in the second period, pulled ahead of the locals and managed to hold the lead until the game's end. Warroad gained a 3 to 0 lead in the opening minutes of the game, but goals by Swede Lund, Church Russell, Bill Juzda, and Ron Castelane erased that margin and gave the locals a 4 to 3 advantage entering the second period. Goals by Ed Miller, Gordy Stratton, and Len Webster regained the lead for the Lakers in the second period; and after Chuck Lumsden had scored on an unassisted goal early in the third period, Jimmy Doyle marked up what proved to be the game-winning goal for the Lakers at 9:44. Castelane added the Thieves final score at the 10:00 mark.

The Thieves played the game without the services of player-coach Paul Bedard who was directing the local PeeWees in the state tournament here. And the Thieves were further handicapped when Swede Lund, in the first period, suffered an injury to his left knee.

Freeman Income Tax Withholding Bill Is Introductd in House

Gov. Freeman's income tax withholding plan, designed to bring 25 million dollars new income for the state for the next biennium, was introduced in the Minnesota Legislature Wednesday.

The bill provides that the tax will be collected through a system of payroll deductions effective next July 1, with the employer remitting collections quarterly, and through declarations and current payment of the tax by self-employed.

Four of the top-ranking liberals in the House are authors of the measure — Rep. Fred Cina, Aurora, majority leader; Rep. A. I. Johnson, Benson, House Speaker; Rep. E. J. Chilgren, Little Fork, chairman of the tax committee and Rep. D. D. Wozniak, St. Paul, chairman of the civil administration committee.

It is patterned after withholding systems in effect in six other states and, according to its sponsors, is "working out fine."

The sponsors were asked at a news conference what the prospects are for passage. All were confident that it will passed by both the House and Senate.

Cina explained that tax department employes went into the six states now having similar systems and made a thorough study, and also discussed the problem with federal internal revenue department officials.

"This bill will accomplish withholding," Cina said. "It means that many people who have not been paying the tax will make tax payments. It is estimated that this plan, if passed, will bring to the state an additional four millions in revenue for the next biennium."

Failure by any employer to withhold would subject him to a 25 per cent fine of the amount if he is negligent, and 50 per cent if failure was willful. In addition, he would be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Under federal law a declaration must be made by those who earn $100 or more of outside income, such as rents or interest, but the proposed state law sets the minimum at $250 before a person must make a declaration.

Cina said that schedules for withholding have been worked out so that amounts to be withheld would be slightly above the taxes to be paid. He said that tax department could make refunds swiftly under the proposed plan.

The tax to be withheld would be sufficient to pay the income tax, head tax and surtax, with standard deductions to be taken into consideration.

"This is not a doubling up of any taxes," Cina said, "because the employe would be paying the last half of his 1955 tax in 1955."

An appropriation of $400,000 is asked to put the plan into operation. Cina and Johnson both stressed that, once the system is set up, it could operate as cheaply as present, or possibly with very little additional expense.

A $90,000 fund for enforcement also is provided in the bill.

The conference will feature discussions on agricultural credit problems affecting the farmer during the coming year as well as conducted tours of the farm campus and a series of speeches from leading agricultural and economic authorities from the middle-west.

Congress Passes Bill to Increase Acreage of Durum

State Farmers Exempted from Acreage Allotments on Their 1955 Plantings

The house Thursday in Washington passed and sent to the White House a bill to exempt Upper Midwest farmers from acreage allotments on their 1955 planting of durum wheat.

The bill, which removes acreage restrictions on durum planting in Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota and Montana counties where the crop has been grown at any time in the last 10 years, already has passed the senate and needs only the President's signature to become law.

The bill will enable farmers in these counties, who have been reluctant to stay with durum because of the heavy damage done to their crops by 15B stem rust, to use allotment acres for more rust-resistant wheats and still grow durum.

They will be able to use acreage beyond the allotment for their durum planting. In this way, it is hoped, many farmers who might abandon durum until a rust-resistant strain is available will keep growing it.

Macaroni makers, who depend on durum for their products, have been faced with severe shortages as a result of three successive rust attacks. Durum production, normally at 35 million bushels a year, fell to 22 million bushels in 1952, 14 million in 1953 and 5½ million in 1954.

The bill had support of the agriculture department and farm organizations. The measure passed by the house was identical to one sponsored by Sen. Milton Young (R., N.D.) that passed the senate.

THE WITHHOLDING TAX

There seems to be general acceptance of the idea that we should adopt the withholding plan for the state income tax. There is opposition of course to the proposal that the withholding plan be used as a means of increasing the levy during the first three years.

As Governor Freeman has recommended it the plan would take effect in July. This would mean that we would be paying half of the tax on our 1955 income in the same year that we are already paying the tax on our 1954 income.

In the period of adjustment to the current-year basis we therefore would be paying three years' taxes in two. That feature of the governor's proposal is not meeting with a favorable response.

It is true that this increased revenue would take care of the approaching deficit in the income tax fund from which most of our school aids are paid but it would be only a temporary solution. The next legislature would be confronted with a far more difficult financing problem.

At that time the income tax would be producing only a normal yield again. While we are starting the coming biennium with a $30 million balance, at the present rate of spending this balance will be more than spent during the next two years. The next legislature therefore would be looking for more than $50 million in new revenue just to pay the aid bill alone—continuing it at its present level.

It is possible however to adopt a withholding plan that will not carry with it a tax increase. That was accomplished a few years ago when the federal government changed to the current year basis, and that is what should now be done.

A TRIBUTE TO WASHINGTON

Tuesday brings us to Washington's birthday again and that of course reminds us of that early period of our history when the American colonists were not getting along with their king. Washington came through the struggle for independence as the top citizen, and rightly so.

During that struggle Washington, a British subject, was of course a traitor in the eyes of loyal Englishmen. In the bitterness of such a conflict he probably would have been dealt with as an outlaw had the outcome of the war been different.

Fortunately bitterness is mellowed by time and Washington's greatness has long been recognized even in the land of his ancestors. Their present high regard for him is indicated by a drive that is now underway to raise funds for the restoration of a memorial established in his honor. The appeal for funds, made only to Englishmen, had this interesting concluding paragraph:

"We earnestly appeal for funds for the completion of this work so that Washington Old Hall may stand in the land of his ancestors as a memorial to George Washington, whom the late Lord Curzon so rightly described as 'one of the greatest Englishmen who ever lived.'"

WHERE UNITY COUNTS

Withdrawal from the Tachen islands has been completed without any complicating incidents. Most of us are relieved again in the assurance that another world war is not under way.

There is justification for the reaction of relief. Such operations are dangerous. There is always the possibility that they may bring on a sinking-of-the-Maine incident that could explode us once more into armed conflict.

The fact that the Chinese Reds did not choose to interfere with the evacuation of the islands probably is an indication of their respect for our government. They knew that President Eisenhower had spoken for a united America when he issued his declaration of policy. The result is a well-deserved tribute to the leadership of both parties which, over a period of many years, during several administrations, have maintained unity in the handling of our foreign affairs.

We will always disagree among ourselves on questions of government policy and practice here at home. But as long as we can agree on foreign policy and stand together as one when we are in danger there is less likelihood of us becoming involved in serious difficulties.

NOW IT'S FISHY-BACK

Piggy-back service, hauling loaded truck trailers on railroad flatcars, is on the increase thruout the country. It appears to offer a sound solution for the long-trucking problem and an important by-product is less congestion and therefore less danger on the highways.

Now the idea is being extended to coastal shipping and the so-called fishy-back service is on the increase. Railroad freight cars as well as loaded truck trailers are being transported by boat.

The transportation industry is undergoing some drastic changes and that is a healthy sign. New ideas and new methods are always a little disturbing but it is by new methods that we make progress. These are indications that our economy is full of life and still expanding.

A round of cheers to the city employees who have done a bang-up job in keeping the streets clean this winter.

That frosty weather that moved in on us last week was an agreeable change from the high temperatures of recent weeks. In another month, reckoning from next Monday, spring will be here officially.

THE VAGARIES OF OUR GOVERNMENT

With new Congress and new State Legislature sitting, a quick look at some of the strange doings of government uncovered by an eastern research organization seems timely. The federal government once spent half a million dollars to dismiss one single employee, although each year 26% of all federal employees voluntarily quit. It was found that for years the government has bought on the Atlantic coast for shipment to the west coast 700,000 pounds of tomato products, while buying on the Pacific coast for shipment east 800,000 pounds of same. Some flood control projects have cost more than the value of the protected land. Government carries on some 1,500 activities directly competitive with private enterprise. Government questionaires, most of them filed and forgotten by the various agencies, cost business men $1 billion a year.

The world's greatest power plant, recently announced by Philadelphia Electric Co., will burn about 100 tons of coal an hour at full capacity, or nearly 1,000,000 tons a year.

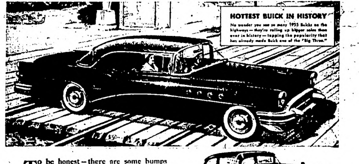
Even the bumps are smoother in the '55 Buick ride



HOTTEST BUICK IN HISTORY
No wonder you see so many 1955 Buicks on the highways—they're rolling up bigger sales than ever in history—topping the popularity that has already made Buick one of the "Big Three."

To be honest—there are some bumps which nothing will level out completely.

Yet even the real rough ones turn out a lot smoother when you're in a 1955 Buick.

And that's not just our say-so. New owners of these new beauties keep telling us that.

So you may wonder—how come? What's different about the Buick ride that makes it such a marvel? The answer is—plenty.

Most cars have coil springs on front wheels only. Buick has them all around—and this year they're newly calibrated for even deeper smoothing of jounce and jar. So here your ride is balanced, buoyant, level, serenely smooth.

Most cars drive through the rear springs. Buick drives through a torque-tube that takes up all driving thrust, wipes out rear-wheel wiggle and wag, steadies your going to a sure and solid track.

And no other car in all America has these great comfort extras plus the backbone of a massive X-braced frame plus both direct and lever-type shock absorbers to snub after-bounce plus a special front-end geometry to stabilize "cornering" plus tubeless tires on extra-wide rims for softer, steadier riding.

Surely, you owe it to yourself to try this great Buick travel, just to judge things for yourself.

You'll find it the nearest thing to velvet on wheels—and made even more so by the silkiness of record-high V8 power and the absolute smoothness of Variable Pitch Dynaflow.* Come visit us this week—for sure.

*Dynaflow Drive is Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Swifty Gets Slowed Down
Swifty Fisher has a short temper and really hit the roof when he got a parking ticket last week. He wasn't near a hydrant or too far from the curb. There was a big sign saying "ONE HOUR PARKING" and he'd only been gone twenty minutes.
Running to Traffic Court, where Hack Miller was on duty, Swifty hollered how he hadn't done anything wrong... how he is the most law-abiding driver in town.
But Hack examined the ticket, and smiled. "Slow down, friend," he said. "You're not guilty except of making a big fuss over nothing. This ticket came from some kid's policeman playoutfit!"
From where I sit, jumping to conclusions can make anyone appear silly. Another way to look foolish is to make a quick decision on a question of personal preference. For instance, I like a glass of beer occasionally. You may be a buttermilk man. But neither of us ought to "lay down the law" about the other's choice.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our beloved daughter and sister, Adella, who passed away Feb. 17, 1954:

Just one year ago today
God sent an angel to take her away.
The grief and pain is so hard to bear
Though we know she's in God's care.
So Lord we place her in Thy keeping.
In the arms of Jesus we know she is sleeping.

Sadly missed by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Severson, Richard, Ronald and Dennis. 7p

GROWING WITH YOUR CHILD

Institute of Child Welfare

The Energetic Fours

"It doesn't seem possible that a child could change so. Whatever has gotten into my Jimmy?" Now that Jimmy is four, his mother is perturbed because her young son is no longer as docile and eager to please as he used to be. Now he reminds her of a dynamo or a whirlwind as he dashes about the house, frequently ignores her requests, and seems to delight in trying her patience.

In talking with mothers of other four-year-olds and with a nursery school teacher, Jimmy's mother is relieved to learn that the rough and tumble behavior, the silly talk and loud laughter, and the tendency to go out of bounds are not uncommon. At this age Jimmy, like other four-year olds, wants to run, jump, balance, climb, and ride fast on a tricycle. He needs space and equipment out-of-doors to expend his abounding energy. After a good romp outdoors he is much more apt to settle down to quiet play inside.

Jimmy, like other four-year-olds, is exploring the possibilities of things. He has developed a lively imagination. He expresses it in playing "dress-up," or in building elaborate block structures. Sometimes his imagination gets out of control, and he indulges in wild tales or in nonsensical sounds which may seem very funny to him.

Most four-year-olds are constantly experimenting with bodily movements, with ideas, with social relationships. They are becoming less dependent upon adults. They may not obey as readily as they did at three. However, they often venture further than they intend, and then hasten back for reassurance and help. As the child grows toward school age he develops more control and judgment.

Changes Are Advised in Tuberculosis San Setup in Minnesota

Recommendations for an increase in state aid to counties for sanatorium care and treatment of tuberculous patients, changes in residency laws for tuberculosis purposes, and provision for a custodial security unit for tuberculous patients who are behavior, disciplinary or security problems are cited as recommendations of major importance in the report of the Tuberculosis Facilities Commission to Governor Orville L. Freeman.

Bills which would increase the amount of state aid and change existing residency laws have already been introduced into the legislature by Senator Harry L. Wahlstrand, Willmar, and Representative Clarence G. Langley, Red Wing. Senator Wahlstrand was chairman and Representative Langley was a member of the commission authorized by the 1953 legislature as a continuation of the work of the first tuberculosis facilities commission created by the 1951 legislature.

The commission recommends state aid be increased from $7.50 a week to $3.50 per patient day. The report points out that when state aid for sanatorium care and treatment of tuberculous patients was first authorized in 1913 the amount of $5.00 a week was about one-half the cost of care. Currently, state aid provides only about 10 per cent of the cost of care. The $3.50 per day recommended by the commission is approximately 35 per cent of the actual cost.

The report recommends that the residence laws be amended to provide that a person continues to hold his residence for tuberculosis purposes in the county in which he has resided until he has lived in a second county for one year. If he has lived in the state for one year but not in any one county that long, he should have residence in the county in which he has lived longest. Residency laws now require one-year residency in a county for eligibility for county assistance. Changes proposed would apply the same residency requirements for tuberculosis purposes as now apply to poor relief and aid to dependent children.

The report points out that the apparent increase in the cost to county governments as the result of the proposed changes in the residency laws would be more than offset by the proposed increase in the amount of state aid. Cost to the state with the proposed changes is estimated at $1,272,448. The amount is an increase of $712,233.52 over what was spent for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1954.

The commission feels that at the present time five public institutions are adequate for tuberculosis control. Minnesota State Sanatorium, near Walker; Glen Lake, near Minneapolis; Nopeming, near Duluth; Ramsey County Tuberculosis Pavilion, St. Paul; and Mineral Springs, near Cannon Falls. It recommends the closing of four sanatoriums for tuberculosis purposes. They are: Buena Vista, Wabasha; Sunnyrest, Crookston; Southwestern Minnesota, Worthington; and Riverside, Granite Falls.

The one new facility recommended by the commission would provide a custodial security unit at the Anoka State Hospital. The Burns Unit at the state hospital provides care for tuberculosis patients in the state's mental institutions, but there is no adequate facility any place in the state for the treatment of tuberculosis patients who are recalcitrant, penal, or dangerously insane.

Heart Assn. Gives University $5,000

Makes $100,000 Total Given 'U' for Research

The 100,000th dollar awarded for heart research by the Minnesota Heart association was presented last week to the University of Minnesota.

A check for $5,000 was given to Dr. William Maloney, assistant dean of the medical school, at a luncheon meeting of Twin City Heart Sunday ward captains.

Making the presentation were Bennet Serrill and Eugene L. Reichel of Minneapolis, representing the Minnesota Association of Life Underwriters which has conducted the Heart Fund drive since 1951, and Dr. John Briggs of St. Paul, board member and past president of the Minnesota Heart association.

Since last July, the MHA has contributed $83,000 to the University for heart and blood vessel disease research and $12,000 to suport two fellowships. The $5,000 grant brings the total award during fiscal 1954 to $100,000.

In addition to the funds allocated by the state association in Minnesota, the American Heart association has awarded $75,000 for heart research in the state. Dr. Victor Lorber of the University is one of the three career investigators supported by the AHA.

Red Lake Co. Gets Highway Engineer

Robert Novotny Coming from Wadena Co. Mar. 15

Robert P. Novotny, 41, Wadena county highway engineer, has accepted a similar position in Red Lake county effective March 15, the Red Lake county board of commissioners announced last week.

Novotny's appointment Monday will fill the position left vacant last summer when George Gibeau resigned after several years in that job.

The new engineer who is married and has four children, is a graduate of the Tri State Engineering college of Angola, Ind., with a BS degree in civil engineering.

His experience in the civil engineering field is extensive and includes work in Roseau county with a survey crew in his early years, college, airbase construction in the West Indies and Trinidad during part of World War II, two years with the army combat engineers on Leyte, the Philippines and Okinawa during the last two years of the war, a position with the Herbert Reese construction company, assistant county highway engineer at Roseau from 1947 1952 and Wadena county engineer from 1952 to the present time.

Novotny will probably move here with his family during the first part of March to take over his new duties.

Last September Boy Scouts distributed a million fire prevention posters.

N. W. Senators Asked to Probe Private Utilities

Northwest Senators were urged to vote for funds to finance a sweeping Senate investigation of monopolistic tendencies in the private electric utility industry here this week by a motorbus caravan of 100 Farmers Union "grassroot lobbyists."

The investigation urged by the Farmers Union members was initiated last year under the Chairmanship of Sen. William Langer, North Dakota Republican. In its preliminary report filed this month the Langer Committee warned that present day holding company evils threaten "a repetition of the Insull Hopson scandal" which rocked the nation in the 1930's.

The Farmers Union members came from Minnesota and North and South Dakota. Among the 32 Minnesota delegates from this area were Gust Iverson Dick Radniecki, and Joe Johnson.

Repeal of the "sliding scale" farm law of 1954 was also urged upon Congressional leaders.

Dark Houses Must Be Removed from Ice by March 1st

All dark houses, fishing shelters and "shanties" must be removed from the lake ice before Mar. 1, Department of Conservation officials warned ice fishermen this week. According to law all structures and materials must be cleared from the ice by that date to prevent littering and boating and swimming accidents during the spring and summer.

The law which stipulates removal of the shelters was enacted not only to keep the lakes and shores free of debris but also as a safety measure, Francis Johnson, warden supervisor said today. After the deadline, Feb. 28, the ice may become honeycombed and too dangerous for safe removal operations, Johnson cautioned.

Are You Planting Weeds?

Here's a shocker from University of Minnesota seeds men. A survey by the Minnesota Crop Improvement Association showed that, of 45 samples collected of farmers' own seed, only one was pure enough and germinated high enough to meet requirements for certified seed. Thirty-seven samples contained other crops, averaging 125 "foreign seeds" per pound of seed. Ten contained weeds in amounts over allowed by the State Weed Law. The answer to such "weed planting"—certified seed. It can have only a tiny percentage of weed seed in it.

"TERROR OF 1900" IS STILL AMONG US

An article in the current Gopher Historian, school children's publication of the Minnesota Historical Society, headed "The Terror of 1900", tells of the first "horseless carriage" on the streets of St. Paul, in the spring of 1900—an electric vehicle capable of 7 to 12 miles an hour, and perhaps 20 miles without recharging. It's now in the museum in the Society's building near the capitol. The "terror" is still at large, though, as evidenced by the crash of a jet plane near Oslo, up in northwestern Minnesota, which could as well have happened in a busy town as an isolated field. —And out at Tracy Frank Greenman is proud of the "pioneer permanent plate" issued by the motor vehicle licensing department for his 31-year old Studebaker.

We are taking bids on a building construction job. I've heard that contractors sometimes back out on a low bid, fail to pay their labor and material bills, or even walk off of an uncompleted job. Should we insist on a Contract Bond to protect us against such a default?

Honeybees Found Effective Aid to Red Clover Seed

U. of M. Entomologists Report on Experiments Conducted Near Bagley

University of Minnesota research begun in 1953 in northern Minnesota finds that honeybee colonies placed near the fields can help boost red clover seed yields up to a healthy 500 pounds per acre—nine times as much as many seed growers get today.

Minnesota's legume seed growing industry has been plagued by low yields for several years. The problem was tackled recently by a University team of entomologists, soils specialists, plant pathologists and agronomists.

Entomologists Allan G. Peterson and Fred G. Holdaway report their red clover experiments near Bagley show bumblebees are more efficient pollinators than honeybees, but bumblebees can't be depended on because their populations vary so widely from year to year.

The research, still in progress, has also found the Lygus bug the most important damager of red clover seed crops. They studied damage by such insects as the Lygus bug, the rapid plant bug, alfalfa plant bug, clover seed midge, clover seed chalcid, lesser clover leaf weevil and the pea aphid.

The clover seed midge caused heavy damage in 1953, but not in 1954. The others are minor, Peterson said.

The University scientists also found they could effectively control plant bugs by one application of insecticide during the red clover bud stage. They found 1½ pounds actual DDT per acre or two pounds actual toxaphene per acre will check Lygus bugs.

How important were honeybees and bumblebees to pollinating? In two fields which had honeybee colonies nearby, about 90 per cent of the pollinating insects were honeybees. In two other fields about a mile away from colonies, 62 to 75 per cent of the pollinators were honeybees.

But in a fifth field three miles from colonies, only four per cent of the pollinators were honeybees. These fields had far lower yields than those with honeybees nearby.

Thus, says Holdaway, red clover seed yields may be increased considerably, at least in some areas of Minnesota, by locating honeybee colonies near the fields.

Medics Cite Value of Fish in Diet

Association Says Fish Is Major Protein Food

The term "poor fish" probably comes from the fact that for years fish has been ignored as a rich source of nutricion. A bulletin from the Minnesota State Medical association urges Minnesotans to become acquainted with the advantages of frequent fish dinners.

Fish is a major protein food, containing protein of a high quality, like that of meat. The mineral content is similar to that of beef. Next to milk, it is by far the best source of calcium, phosphorous and copper.

Americans average less than four ounces of fish a week in their diet. In the past, fish was not available in many sections and fish-eating habits were not formed. There is some hesitation about eating fish with bones. Many homemakers complain about a "fishy" cooking smell and the fact that the fish they prepare is often dry and tasteless.

Now quick-frozen fish fillets, shrimp and fish sticks are available, and a greater variety of fish dishes are coming on the market all the time. Food stores feature canned and smoked fish of many kinds and locally there is plenty of fresh fish.

Mild Winter Has Aided Fish Life, Says Biologist

Because of the mild winter to date, this may be one of the best winters Minnesota has had for many years as far as fish life is concerned. Many of the comparatively shallow lakes that would have had a winterkill of fish life due to lack of oxygen may not suffer this year, fisheries biologists indicate.

During the calendar year 1954, approximately 3,350,000 fish of all species, totalling more than 308,000 pounds, were rescued from shallow winterkill lakes and removed from overpopulated lakes.

About one-half of this amount was rough fish and bullheads which were disposed of or stocked in children's fishing ponds in various sections of the state. The other half included game fish of all species, including more than 60,000 pounds of northern pike, which were stocked in waters where they were needed.

Donald O'Conner, left, and Dan Dailey are indicating to Ethel Merman that it's thumbs up and "on with the show" in the best must-go-on tradition of the business in "There's No Business Like Show Business," coming to the Falls Theatre Sunday for 5 days. Also starred are Marilyn Monroe, Johnny Ray and Mitzi Gaynor.

N. W. School to Offer Arc Welding Course in March

An evening course in electric arc welding will be offered at the Northwest School of Agriculture, Crookston, to farmers and other adults interested. The course will start the first week of March. This course will consist of twentyfour hours of work given in two-hour periods with one to two classes given per week. The course of twelve two-hour lessons is intended primarily for farmers and shop men, who have not had any or only a limited amount of arc welding, who desire to obtain further instruction and experience. Superintendent T. M. McCall announces that this course has been set up to meet the many requests made of the school for adult classes in arc welding.

The course will include mild steel welding in the various positions, some cast iron welding, brazing and hard surfacing; also, the use of the carbon arc and cutting torches. The instruction will be offered by regular members of the agricultural engineering staff at the Northwest School including B. W. Soderburg and E. C. Miller.

The school will be conducted on a fee basis. Applications for enrollment should be sent to Superintendent, Northwest School of Agriculture, Crookston, Minnesota.

$25,000 Loss at Mentor in Blaze Last Wednesday

The Mentor Implement company at Mentor and a stock of farm machinery were totally destroyed by fire Wednesday. The flash fire of undetermined origin broke out at about 12:45 p. m. and 15 minutes later the one-story frame building housing the equipment was a total loss. The damage was estimated at $25,000.

Mentor and Erskine fire departments were called to the scene, but were unable to check the flames which enveloped the building.

The fire was believed to have started in a repair shop operated in conjunction with the implement business. The destroyed building was formerly used to house a lumber firm.

Rep. Coya Knutson Introduces Farm Bills in Congress

Congresswoman Coya Knutson introduced her first bills Feb. 9.

A series of five bills was presented, designed for 100% parity based on the cost of production with family-type farm policy, and provision for loans to beginner farmers, who desperately need thousands of dollars capital investment.

Mrs. Knutson said, "The intent of these bills is to protect the opportunity for any individual who wants to make farming his living. The hard work he gives to his occupation deserves a fair standard of living, which can only be assured through parity prices.

"My bills are: Family farm policy act; family farmer 100% parity bill; beginning farmers loan act; food and fiber stockpile act; and repeal of the Holland amendment, which has proved restrictive to soil conservation."

The hostesses were Mrs. John Lemky, Mrs. Andrew Mortenson and Mrs. Edwin Anderson.

Average of $3,721 Taken in by State Taxpayers in 1954

The average individual income taxpayer in Minnesota has a gross income of $3,721.28, on the basis of his tax return during the fiscal year 1953.

This was revealed in a report filed by State Tax Commissioner G. Howard Spaeth with Gov. Freeman and members of the legislature.

The average taxpayer had a net income of $2,735, took $986 in deductions, including $485 in federal tax deductions, and reported a total state tax liability of $50.83. The latter figure included $42.33 normal income tax and $8.50 for the bonus fund.

About 16.4 per cent—or 146,867 of the 896,951 individual income tax returns—were filed by persons reporting farm income. Of those filing, 33,783 reported both normal and bonus tax liability. The remaining 113,083 reported only a bonus tax.

Corporations paid more than 21 per cent of the total income taxes reported during fiscal 1953 although corporations accounted for only 1.3 per cent of the total number of income tax returns. A total of 12,023 corporations reported $12,734,673 taxes due the state.

IN BLUE OR GRAY

Some men are remembered for their deeds . . . the battles they won and the prizes they gained. But not A. Lincoln!

Men still call him "honest Abe," and they take courage in his humility. Men honor his devotion to the principles for which he stood; they esteem his love for humanity: they marvel at his capacities for sympathy, understanding and forgiveness.

History has known few men whose memory could survive the hatreds of war and find sanctuary in the hearts of victor and vanquished alike. But Abe Lincoln belongs to all of America. Christian nobility is revered for itself, whether it wore blue or gray.

As the character of a man can bind up the wounds of a nation, so the Christian faith which moulded Abe Lincoln can build under God a world of peace and understanding. To that proposition our Churches are dedicated.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

THE MINNESOTA STORY

Prepared by the

Minnesota Historical Society

BOAT BEHIND BEND

In the summer of 1807 Robert Fulton completed his first steamboat, the Clermont. This first ship operated on the Hudson river from New York to Albany.

So rapid was the application of steam to water transportation that, within sixteen years after the Clermont, steamboats penetrated to the head of navigation on the Mississippi river.

In the month of May, 1823, a sentinel at Fort Snelling heard some very strange noises. He alarmed the fort. The men rushed to the water. But nothing was to be seen. The officers of the fort were about ready to take the sentinel to the guard house when the steamer, Virginia, came from behind a bend. As rapidly as possible the cannon at the fort boomed out a welcome for this first steamboat on the upper reaches of the Mississippi.

The Virginia was the first. Others soon followed. For a period of forty years the river boats constituted the only form of effective transportation to a new land.

Before the advent of the Virginia, and its scores of successors, the upper river had been served only by keel boats. With them the trip from St. Louis to the site of St. Paul required sixty long, hard days.

BORN IN A PANIC

Formal government in Minnesota was christened in very uncertain times.

The territory was formed in 1849. The population of the area, then extending well into what are now the Dakotas, was but six thousand white people. The future of such a great area with so few people was uncertain.

The state government was born under very adverse conditions in 1858. The population of the territory had grown to well over the hundred thousand mark. But times were very poor.

The 1857 grain crop was almost a complete failure and the state-to-be had to import much of its food. There had been great speculation in land and the values of real estate on the frontier dropped to almost nothing. Many cities and villages had been platted by men of great confidence and imagination. Town lots became worthless. There was little employment. Wages became unbelievably low.

There was little or no money in the ambitious, new state. There had been controversy over land grants to the railroads, then just started in Minnesota. The state was involved in various financial transactions. The public credit was just about gone. Citizens could not pay their taxes. The currency in existence was of little value for most of it was based upon bank notes issued in frontier communities or on states whose credit had been destroyed by the panic which not only engulfed Minnesota but the nation. From all this it is well understood that fiscal problems have never been new to the North Star State.

HEALTH SEEKERS

Minnesota began to attract those who sought health or sport a hundred years ago. Efforts were made to advertise the state, its clear air, its palatable waters, its long days of sunshine and the conditions that made for health of young and old.

Many pioneers came to the state because they were free from one affliction of most of the frontiers of America. This was malaria.

Pioneer physicians described fever and ague as the curse of many lands. Malaria made, so an early doctor said, people who were pale, gaunt, haggard, attenuated, narrow-chested, spindle-shanked, sharp-featured, lantern-jawed, lanky-haired, anxious-eyed, with care-furrowed brow and a pastry, sallow, bilious or dyspeptic complexion. Malaria was also said to give its victims a careworn expression and an irritable disposition.

While those in a new land were afflicted with many strange and passing diseases, the early people of Minnesota wrote to friends and families in the east and south that they did not shiver and shake from the curse of many other lands.

In fact, within a few years after the territory had been formed visitors were making trips to view the wonders of the Falls of St. Anthony and other features of the upper river. Early cities and villages soon had many who came to seek and find health.

SEED TO FAR FIELDS

If farmers of the Red River Valley needed seed grains in these times, a call by telephone would be made to the Twin Cities. That would take a few minutes. The grain would go forward by rail or truck the same day and in the next morning the seeders would be at work.

This is in striking contrast to the days of early settlement on the Red River and in the 1820ies. Word came in by travelers in the winter that grain seed would be needed. That request was carried down river to Prairie du Chien. On April 15 three Mackinaw boats, each with six hands and loaded with 200 bushels of wheat, 100 of oats and 30 bushels of peas, left Prairie du Chien. When the oats reached Lake Pepin the ice still blocked the river. The men and boats stood by and to mark the occasion the boatmen erected a May pole on the ice.

The boats finally reached the Minnesota and proceeded up that river to Big Stone lake. Here there was a portage of a mile and a half to Lake Traverse where the north flowing waters originated. The boats were taken across this portage on wooden rollers.

The grain arrived at Pembina on June third. The need for the grain was great and the trip by which it was delivered was, in its day, ranked as notable for its speed.

Valentine Party

Contests, games and treats added to the enjoyment at the Valentine party at the Meadow Lark School on Monday. A Valentine mail box held a large supply of messages for both big and small, distributed by the pupils. After the Valentines were all delivered, a bounteous lunch was served, the table being graced by a luscious pink heart cake, baked by Miss Swenson, the teacher. Partaking in the festivities were Mrs. Roger Mickelson, Beattie, Angela, and Harlan, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lendobeja, Peter and Paul, Miss Beverly Swenson, Mrs. Wallace Tieman and Wayne, Mrs. Ted Lendobeja and Mary Ann, Mrs. Gunder Olson, Mrs. Amy Johnsrud, Mrs. Ed Magnan and Juanita, Mrs. Warren Wilson and Dennis, Mrs. Joe Johnson, Mrs. Henry Anenson, Mavis, Larry, Vernon, Barbara and Burnell.

The Telemarken congregation was saddened at the news of its former pastor, E. O. Sabo's death. For nearly thirty years he was our minister, administering to our spiritual needs with unfailing devotion and kindness. His patience and humility was an example for all of us. Our prayers go out to the Sabo family at this time with all our sympathy.

Saturday evening callers at the Ted Lendobeja home were Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Longevan and Yvonne of Silverton.

Attending 4-H Institute at the Goodridge gymnasium Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Olson and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Parnow. Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Olson, Stanley and Miles were supper guests at the Pastor Heltne home the same evening.

The February meeting of the Telemarken Ladies' Aid met at the church parlors with Mrs. Emil Sanders and Mrs. Charles Svendsgaard as hostesses. The scripture reading was conducted by Mrs. Carl Lindblom and Mrs. Ted Lendobeja gave the Bible lesson. The March meeting will be held March 3rd with Mrs. Henry Waale and Mrs. Ted Lendobeja serving.

Sidney Wilson is still on the convalescent list, although he is at home. Being ill from the first part of January until now makes a long siege. We all do hope, Sid, you can soon be out-of-doors and in the best of health.

Visiting a week ago Sunday at the Floryan Szymanski home were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lendobeja and Mary Ann and Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Nelson of Smiley.

Loc Mishap Victim to cept $175,000 Aw d by High Court

Rites Thursday

DR. G. H. MAYER-OAKES
Science instructor at Lincoln high school since 1930, who succumbed Sunday in a Fargo hospital following a lengthy illness, and who will be buried in Fort Snelling National Cemetery following services Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Community Methodist church.

The Minnesota supreme court Friday ordered a new trial unless Oscar Ahlstrom, Thief River Falls, consents to a $100,000 reduction in his $275,000 Hennepin county jury verdict against the Soo Line Railroad.

H. O. Chommie, attorney for Ahlstrom in the action, announced that his client had signed papers Tuesday accepting the reduced verdict of $175,000.

Ahlstrom, now 28, was crushed seven years ago when a 900-pound crate he was helping unload at the railroad's warehouse fell on him. The lower half of his body was paralyzed and he must be confined to a wheel chair for the rest of his life.

The unanimous decision of the high tribunal, written by Associate Justice Theodore Christianson, conceded the merit of the case, but held that the verdict was "clearly excessive" and attacked the manner in which the jury arrived at the verdict.

In reversing District Judge Levi M. Hall of Minneapolis, unless the reduced verdict of $175,000 was accepted, the high court said:

"The damages assessed by the jury were clearly excessive and it was an abuse of the trial court's discretion to allow the jury's verdict to stand.

"We find no passion or prejudice on the part of the jury in arriving at its verdict.

"Apparently the excessive verdict resulted merely from its unwitting acceptance of the figures submitted by plaintiff with respect to certain elements of damage without appreciating that they were predicated upon an inadequate or improper factual foundation in each instance."

Justice Christianson then cites how Ahlstrom's counsel, William M. De Parcq, associated with

Annual "U" Week Observance Held Here Last Night

Professor W. D. Beatty of University of Minnesota Discusses South America

W. Donald Beatty, associate professor of history at the University of Minnesota, gave an enlightening discussion on Latin America at the annual University Week recognition dinner Tuesday evening in the Zion church parlors.

Presiding over the program was Stanley Mortenson, president of the local U. of M. Alumni club, which sponsored the dinner, together with the Junior Chamber of Commerce. About 25 persons attended.

The program opened with the invocation by Rev. Walter M. Pedersen, followed by a selection by the Lincoln high school cornet trio, including Carol Carlson, Evonne Droits and Carol Grendahl, accompanied on the piano by Joyce Helgeland.

Mr. Beatty stated that the population of the South American countries is increasing faster than anywhere else in the world. The governments there, he said, are eager to get a Marshall Plan for South America to provide capital and technical know-how for economic development.

Most of the countries, he pointed out, are lacking in democratic processes, with the military forces exerting too much influence. A lack of education, he added, is retarding development.

Authorities Are Checking $90,000 Burglary at Oslo

Loot Taken Thursday Included about $75,000 in Non-negotiable Bonds

Heavy roads and drifts hampered investigation of the Stoltman Exchange burglary Monday as questioning continued on amounts lost in last Thursday's rifling of a safe deposit vault at Oslo.

Walter P. Stoltman, Exchange owner, said many more depositors still are to be questioned. He said cash figures, however, are running low and so far only about $1,500 loss had been reputed. The Exchange lost about $1,400 of its own money also, he said.

Securities reported lost totaled $75,000 after Saturday's first accounting, Stoltman said.

Deputy Sheriff Milan Sorenson, Warren, reported Monday that he said he and Sheriff Oscar Erickson have been kept busy checking into numerous reports of cars seen in the vicinity of the Exchange the night of the burglary.

Burglars chiseled through an 18-inch vault wall last Thursday and broke open 80 deposit boxes, taking up to $15,000 in cash and more than $75,000 in securities.

Fierce Blizzard Hit Area Last Week-end

One of the fiercest blizzards of the past several years hit the Red River Valley Saturday night and Sunday, and traffic on the highways was effectively tied up as a result of drifted roads and near-zero visibility.

The snowfall, measured at four inches on the KTRF guage, piled up in huge drifts, and gave snowplows their first real workout of the current winter. Most of the main roads had been opened up by Monday evening.

Bus lines canceled their runs out of Thief River Falls Sunday due to poor visibility, but were back on normal schedule Monday. Train schedules were only slightly delayed by the storm.

Thief River Falls schools were closed Monday, and the Washington's Birthday holiday scheduled for Tuesday was cancelled. Several rural schools in the area also were closed Monday.

Highest temperatures recorded during the past week was 35 last Thursday and 33 Friday, while Tuesday morning the mercury plummeted to a low of 22 below zero.

Savings Seen in New Medical Plan of Welfare Board

Federal Participation to Be Increased for Treating OAA Recipients

Starting in March the Pennington county welfare office will start an experiment with a system of pooled funds to meet the costs of medical care for old age assistance recipients. This plan, authorized by the 1953 legislature, is approved by the federal government and has resulted in substantial savings at the local level in the several states that are using it, according to John Lynskey, welfare board secretary.

This plan makes it possible to receive increased federal participation in the cost of medical care, Mr. Lynskey states. By averaging out the costs, anticipating future needs by past experience, and providing an increased monthly grant for each recipient which will go into a reserve fund, a pool will be created from which unusual medical costs will be paid.

Because of the limit of its participation the federal government now pays little of these unusual costs that ordinarily are of short duration. The entire cost of the excess over the federal limit then is divided equally between the state and the county. To whatever extent the federal government will increase its participation in these costs by the pool system there will be a saving to the state and the county.

The Pennington county welfare board was given special authorization by the state welfare office to experiment with the plan.

Announcement was made today by Harold W. Peterson, administrator of Northwestern Hospital, that deep X-ray therapy equipment has now been received. This equipment has been purchased with the aid of Federal Hill-Burton funds and, when installed, will represent an important advance in care of patients in the area.

Installation of the equipment by Pengelly X-Ray Company will be made at the time of the completion of the remodeling of the present plant, which should be in the early part of April. Peterson said a search is now being carried on by a committee of the medical staff to obtain the services of a registered radiologist.

Funeral rites will be conducted Thursday afternoon February 24, at 2 o'clock from the Community Methodist church for Dr. G. H. He came to the U. S. with two older sisters in May 1911, taught a small school in Connecticut for one term, then was assistant pastor of the Holyoke Congregational church for a year, at Holyoke, Mass.

He attended Valparaiso University and received his B. A. degree June 1914. He was principal of schools at Wheatland, Braddock and Sykeston, N. State Workers' Pay Checks in '54 Hit Another Peak

The weekly paycheck of Minnesota production workers in 1954, as in 1953 and 1952, averaged higher than it did in the United States as a whole, according to a study by the Department of Employment Security.

Average weekly earnings of such Minnesota workers were $73.90 in 1954, up $1.33 from the 1953 average of $72.57. Average check received by workers over the USA was $71.64, four cents more than in 1953 but $2.26 less than the 1954 Minnesota average.

The all-time peak of weekly earnings in Minnesota was reached last November when the state average was $76.53.

The study reveals the interesting fact that while average weekly earnings of Minnesota workers has been steadily increasing, the average work week has declined for the past two years.

Increased average weekly paychecks are due more to higher wage rates than to increased overtime and accompanying premium pay. Overtime hours in Minnesota fell in 1954. The average was 40.6, compared with 41.3 average in 1953.

N.W. Hospital Board Adopts 40-hour Week for Nursing Service

At its regular monthly meeting on Friday, February 18th, the board of trustees of Northwestern Hospital unanimously voted to establish a forty-hour week for the nursing service of the hospital to become effective June 1st, 1955.

This step has been taken after long study and many conferences with registered nurses on the staff. Hospitals in the communities of Bagley, Bemidji, Brainerd, International Falls, Fergus Falls, Breckenridge, Fargo, Grand Forks, Crookston, Greenbush and Warren all have the forty-hour week for their nurses, in most cases, have had such hours for several years.

Northwestern Hospital, until now has been the only hospital of its size in Northern Minnesota, which has continued with a 44-hour week for its registered nurses. It has been recognized that a shortage of 50,000 registered nurses in the United States and the problem of obtaining qualified nurses for the local hospital under old personnel policies has been extremely difficult.

The forty hour week to be established here will apply to all classifications of employees in the nursing service.

Preparations of new salary schedules and personnel policies for the nursing service are under way and will be passed on by the board of trustees at its next monthly meeting.

In harmony with hospital room rates set by Bethesda Hospital in Crookston, Lutheran Deaconess in Grand Forks, St. Luke's in Fargo, Lake Regional Hospital of Fergus Falls, the board of trustees has set room, board and nursing charges for Northwestern Hospital as of March 1, 1955, at the following levels: Three or four bed wards (adults), $8.00 per day; semi-private rooms (adults), $10.00 per day; private rooms (adults), $12.00 per day. All accomodations for children up to the age of 14 will be $8.00 per day.

The above increase in room and care charges represent an increase of about $1.00 per day. The average length of stay of a patient at the hospital is six or seven days. Maternity cases stay about five days.

It is pointed out by hospital authorities that Northwestern Hospital is a non-profit corporation organized under the laws of the State of Minnesota. Its excess of income over expense in the 1953-54 fiscal year was a little over $400.00. Any excess in income over expense cannot accrue to the benefit of any one individual but must be used for the improvement of hospital service or equipment.

It is the purpose of the hospital, said the board, to provide the best possible hospital care for patients served at a point of cost that comes as close as possible to a break-even point between income and expense. Statistics published annually by the American Hospital association reveal that the per patient day expense and income at Northwestern Hospital are within the average for hospitals of its size in the Midwest.

Accident Victim Accepts Reduced $175,000 Verdict

Mr. Chommie in the case, submitted figures to the jury as follows, from which to determine damages: $86,347 as cost of daily attendant in the future ($10 per day); loss of future earning capacity, $85,167; pain and suffering and disability, past and future ($5 per day for 40⅞ years) $91,670; nursing at home by parents $300 per month for 31 months) $9,300, and medical and hospital expenses, and loss of wages at time of trial, for a total of $295,589.

"The jury," commented Justice Christianson, "apparently worked from these figures in arriving at the total sum of $275,000, and plaintiff's counsel seeks to sustain the amount of the verdict as reasonable by use of the same figures in this court.

"To support the verdicts in this case, plaintiff has pointed to verdicts of $225,360 and $250,000, respectively, which were allowed to stand. . . . the size of a personal injury verdict cannot be justified solely by comparison with other verdicts."

Bronko Nagurski Jr., Star Athlete, to Attend 'U' of M.

Bronko Nagurski Jr., son of one of the greatest football players of all time, said Thursday he will enroll at Minnesota, where his father started an athletic career that spanned two decades.

The youngest Nagurski, a 215-pound tackle at International Falls high school, had been widely sought by colleges during the last year and narrowed his final decision to Minnesota and Notre Dame.

"I gave the matter a lot of serious thought," the 17-year-old redhead said in announcing his decision. "I made my final decision about a week ago."

Young Nagurski said he would take up a pre-medical course.

The boy is one of the most publicized high school players of recent years. His actions on the field recalled memories of Bronko Sr., who gained his greatest fame as a fullback with the Chicago Bears and later became world's wrestling champion.

Nagurski Jr. this year led his high school team to an unbeaten season and was generally acclaimed the outstanding schoolboy lineman in Minnesota.

Gatzke Woman in Jail in Crookston on Check Charge

A Gatzke woman wanted for passing forged checks in Grafton, N. D., is now serving a 90-day sentence in the Crookston jail. She is Mrs. Leonard (Joann Rose) Nelson, who passed two $15.00 checks at Grafton grocery stores under the name of Marie Anderson.

A resident of Gatzke, Mrs. Nelson was arrested in Warren for forgery. She had used the name, Marie Arneson, in cashing checks in this state.

Questioned last week by Sheriff Frank Duray of Walsh county, N. D., Mrs. Nelson admitted passing the two checks in Grafton. She said that she and her husband, sentenced in Minnesota as an accessory after the fact, had left Grafton shortly after the checks were cashed. The check blanks were taken from a drug store, she told the sheriff.

County authorities expect to file a detainer with Minnesota officials, thus arranging for prosecution of Mrs. Nelson when she is released from jail.

CHATTING with your HOME AGENT

Marge Olson

Here is a very worthwhile tip for you to make ironing easier. It comes from Mrs. Otto Dale of Thief River Falls. She suggests that you make a wide ironing board to fit over your regular ironing board. It will make ironing shirts, all flat pieces and many other garments much easier to iron.

To make the board, use ¾ inch thick board (Mrs. Dale's is 5-plywood), 20 inches wide, and about the same length as your regular ironing board. If it is shorter, you will have space in which to rest your iron. Attach cleats or wooden blocks to the under side, along the long edge of the board. The distance between the cleats or blocks should be the width of your regular padded ironing board. Wooden buttons attached to the underside may be used to grip the board cover.

Pad the board with two thicknesses of padding and cover with muslin. Flameproof the muslin as a safety precaution.

Place a heavy screw eye in one end for hanging when board is not in use.

Make paste of 3 ounces of powdered boric acid and ½ cup cold water; add 7 ounces of borax and 2 quarts hot water. Rinse muslin cover thoroughly in solution.

Mrs. Dale, a former home agent, learned about this time saving board when she took part in the extension home program in Southern Minnesota. I hope that you will follow her suggestion.

Next week, information on ironing a shirt.

Recently, we had a lesson in the extension home program on care and repair of furniture. We mentioned caning chairs at the meetings and several homemakers mentioned that they would like to learn caning. We are now planning to have an afternoon meeting next month, which we will spend caning chairs. If you are interested, please leave your name at the County Extension Office.

OUR LAND

Improvement-Success Story

Harold Loken's farm near Zumbrota is fully stripcropped and terraced but was getting a lot of runoff from a nearby farm. Because of its "up and down-hill" farming, water rushed down through a road culvert within five minutes after every rain. Recently that adjoining farm was bought by Olaf Knutson, who began contour strips two years ago. He now has 116 acres of them, every third strip seeded down. This embraces the entire watershed drainage onto the Loken farm. This summer heavy rains—which had once started a torrent through the culvert now cause no water flow for half an hour. That slowed-down water doesn't tear away topsoil.

Soils Research to Begin

Long-needed research on Minnesota soils "physical properties" will begin soon at the University of Minnesota's soils department. University soil scientists, will tackle the study of how soil particles "live and work together" and how they must be handled to stay healthy. A young soil physicist recently joined the Minnesota staff to help push this project "Many soil secrets will have to be unlocked by research if we are to show higher production and still save our precious soil," says University soils head William P. Martin.

Drainage Pays for Tractor Fuel

Here's a new angle on this drainage business. A Dodge County Soil Conservation District cooperator, Melvin Langemo, who has done a lot of tile drainage on his place, says: "If a young fellow, starting farming on a wet farm, tiled it out the project would pay for itself in motor fuel he'd save over the years—that's profit over and above the higher yields drainage brings."

One hundred and fifteen counties in the United States have 45 per cent of the population, 45 per cent of the automobiles and 30 per cent of the motor trucks.

Heifers, May Need Less Feed

Did you ever settle that feud with your neighbor over whether it's best to feed your heifers heavy or light for better production at calving time?

Experiments at Cornell University in New York may decide who is right.

In their experiments, Cornell University fed three groups of heifers on different levels of nutrition. One group was fed 65 per cent of the requirements for good growth, maintenance and production. Another was fed just enough—100 per cent. The other group was fed a ration considered more than necessary for requirements—140 per cent or 40 per cent above normal.

What happened by calving time? The low fed group weighed less —only 915 pounds, the 100 per cent fed group weighed 1,108 pounds and the 140 per cent-fed group 1,372 pounds. The low-fed group was four-fifths normal weight at calving time, but here is the important thing—they gained gradually and by the third calving weighed about the same as the other two groups.

The liberally fed groups came in heat sooner than the low fed group. However, the low fed group conceived better. After the first calving, weight differences were not important but the first calf weighed less in the low-fed group. In the production the low fed cows did as well as the others.

However, the low fed group calved at 32 months and the other two at 29 months. Both calving ages, Wayne points out, are considered a little later than desirable.

He says the experiment points up three important things:

- Level of feeding may not affect heifers' later development and production as much as has been thought.
- Low-fed heifers may come in heat later and calve at a later age than most liberally fed heifers.
- "It may be possible to 'grow out' more heifers with a good roughage alone and save on feed costs with results even though the animals develop more slowly.

Thinking of Rewiring?

Does your 1955 budget include a rewiring job for the farmstead? It could be more valuable to you than some other improvement you're thinking of. Only about 10 per cent of the farmsteads in Minnesota are wired properly — that is for safe and efficient use of electricity. Some of it was done in the early days of REA, others in the shortage days of World War II. And much was done before all the wonderful possibilities of using electric power on the farm and in the home were recognized. This tip comes to us from Don Bates, Extension agricultural engineer at the University of Minnesota.

Don't Need Trace Elements

Our state's soils don't need trace elements such as boron, copper, manganese and zinc, at least, not now, according to University of Minnesota soils department research. Exceptions: high value crops such as celery and rutabaga which have high trace element needs. Peats and muck soils often need them too. A soil test will help you find out.

U. S. Internal Revenue

When To File Your 1954 Federal Income Tax Return

Between January 1 and April 15, 1955. Try to avoid the last minute rush. Last year, one internal revenue service office assisted only 13,000 taxpayers during the whole month of January. But in the first two weeks of March 27,000 taxpayers came in for help in the few days left before March 15. Obviously the late comers could not be given the same personal attention which was possible with those who came early.

Those few individuals who keep books on a fiscal year basis must file by the fifteenth day of the fourth month after the close of their taxable years.

QUESTIONS answered for VETERANS

Veterans with personal problems or questions should consult Leo L. Haley, Contact Representative, Room 210-211 Post Office Building or Box 875, Grand Forks, North Dakota.

Q—I am taking on-the-job training under the Korean GI Bill. I also would like to enroll in a correspondence course on the side, to study a subject related to my job training. Will VA pay for the course?

A—The law prohibits VA from paying you an additional amount of money to cover the cost of your correspondence course. It can pay only the required allowance for your on-the-job training.

Q—My National Service Life Insurance term policy has lapsed. I want to reinstate it and, at the same time, convert to a permanent plan. What payments will I have to make to the VA?

A—You will be required to pay one monthly premium at the term rate, and your first regular premium at the permanent plan rate. The latter may be either a monthly, quarterly, semiannual or annual payment.

Q—I am a World War I veteran receiving monthly pension payments from VA. My uncle recently died, leaving me an inheritence of shares of stock. Are the stock proceeds considered as income, in figuring my annual-in ceiling?

A—Proceeds of the stock will not be considered as income until they are converted into cash.

Q—As a result of my service in World War II, I am receiving monthly disability compensation payments. Would it be possible for VA to deduct the amount of my GI insurance premiums from my compensation, so I won't have to bother making out a check every month?

A—Yes. Your compensation payments, however, must be large enough to take care of your premium payments each month.

Roseau Defeats Prowlers 2-1 in Region; Both Go to State Meet

Only six seconds of the third five-minute overtime remained to be played when Roseau's rushing defenseman, John Larson, slammed a shot into the north net to give coach Oscar Almquist's Rams a 2 to 1 decision over the Prowlers in a thrilling eighth regional hockey tournament finals game played here Friday night. Prowler right-winger Sid Vraa had given the locals a 1 to 0 lead at the 11:34 mark of the second period when his hard shot found the upper left hand corner of the net on a clean "beat" of goalie Jack Almquist.

That 1 to 0 Prowler lead held up until the final minutes of the third period when, following a face-off in the Prowlers' defensive zone in the south end of the rink, Roseau's Dickie Johnson recovered the puck and fired a hard shot that goalie Rod Collins kicked out, only to have Roseau's able center, Jack Delmore, bang in the rebound to tie the score at 11:02 of the third period.

The two teams rocketed through the first two five-minute overtime periods without a score, and it appeared that the game would enter a fourth overtime period when Roseau's Larson made a rush up the ice. Larson was partially checked as he skated into the Prowlers defensive zone, but he recovered the puck and, on a shot from about fifteen out, he whipped the disc into the cage to end the dramatic contest.

The Roseau Rams, as the eighth region's champions, will enter the state high school tournament as the regional representative and will meet the St. Paul Johnson team in a first round game at 9:00 p. m. on Thursday night in the St. Paul Auditorium. The runner-up Prowlers, who are the defending state high school champions, also gained a berth in the state tournament and will meet the Minneapolis South high school team at 7:30 p. m. on Thursday night.

In the regional consolation game played following the championship tilt on Friday night, the Warroad Warriors, with Bill Christian scoring four goals, defeated the aggressive Williams sextet, 7 to 1.

In the regional semi-finals played on Thursday night, Roseau trounced Williams, 8 to 1, and Thief River Falls bested Warroad, 5 to 2.

Roseau, with Williams' Duane Thompson in the penalty box, scored a pair of goals in the first period, with Mike Robertson and Dick Johnson scoring, to gain a 2 to 0 lead. Four more Roseau goals were tallied in the second period, giving the Rams a 6 to 0 lead. After Williams, on Bill Charlton's long shot in the opening minute of the third period, had spoiled goalie Jack Almquist's bid for a shutout; Roseau's Sam Grafstrom, scoring his third goal of the game, and Orris Rasmussen boosted the Rams' score to 8 to 1.

In the second game in the Thursday night semi-finals, all-state center Joey Poole personally escorted the Prowlers into the state tournament by scoring three unassisted goals. In the first period, Poole hit the twine at 6:29; and then, eight seconds later, the shifty center-ice player slithered through the defense, deked Cecil Anderson out the net, and flipped a score into the north goal. Glenn Carlson, with Duane Glass on the assist, gave the Prowlers a 3 to 0 lead at the 9:07 mark. Warroad's Bill Christian, at the 10:02 mark, beat goalie Rod Collins with a long shot, and the Prowlers lead was pared to 3 to 1.

The second period was scoreless, but in the opening seconds of the third period, Joey Poole, taking the puck from the face-off, swept in on Anderson and slipped a trickler into the net; and at the 4:13 mark Sid Vraa, with Jimmy Hall centering out the puck, fired the Prowlers' fifth goal into the cage. Bill Christian closed out the game's scoring with a Warroad tally at the 9:32 mark.

Prowler Quint Loses 58-54 to Detroit Lakes

Grafton High School to Meet Prowlers in Local Gym Saturday Evening

A five-point lead, gained by the Detroit Lakes' "second string" in the first period of the basketball game played here Saturday night, provided the Lakers with their winning margin as Coach John Downs sturdy squad defeated the Prowlers, 58 to 54.

As a reward for defeating the Laker varsity in a twenty-minute scrimmage in a practice session this week, Coach Downs started his reserves—Bob Moe, Bill Krump, Jim Johnson, Jack Lee, and Phil Meyers—and the second stringers, with Lee and Meyer each scoring 8 points, gained a 16 to 11 first period lead.

With the Laker varsity in the game in the second period, Coach Adams' Prowlers played the visitors on even terms in the scoring column. Bill Frahm, hitting on three one-handed tosses from the north side of the court, kept the locals in the game.

With Don Tucker and Allen Moberg each scoring six points, the Lakers increased their margin in the third period, outpointing the Prowlers, 15 to 13, and hold a 43 to 35 lead as the final quarter opened.

Chuck Brandvold, playing a fine game against his old teammates, racked up five field goals and a pair of free throws in the final period as the Prowlers caused the Lakers some anxious moments. Moberg, who scored 21 points in the three periods that he played, pushed the game away from the Prowlers, scoring nine points in the fourth period.

In the preliminary game, despite a 32-point effort by Dave Hanson, the Prowler 'B' team dropped a 83 to 47 decision to a husky Laker 'B' squad.

The Prowlers will conclude their 1954-55 schedule this week-end; when, on Friday night, Feb. 25th, they meet the Grand Forks Redskins at Grand Forks; and on Saturday night, Feb. 26th, on the local high school court, they meet the Grafton Spoilers.

BJORKMAN'S

Prowler Sextet to Enter State Hockey Tourney in St. Paul Thursday

Coach Dennis Rolle's hockey Prowlers, although shorn of their eighth regional title by Roseau in that epic 2 to 1 three overtime period loss on Friday night, will make their first defense of their state high school hockey championship on Thursday night when, at 7:30 p. m. in the St. Paul Auditorium, they meet the Minneapolis South high school squad in a first round game.

The Prowlers, as runners-up in the eighth region tournament, gained a berth in the state tourney as the representative of region three. During the season, including the sub-regional tournament games, coach Rolle's young squad marked up a record of twelve wins and four losses; and three of the four defeats were administered by coach Oscar Almquist's Roseau Rams.

The Region's Greatest Finals

The 1200 rabid hockey fans that crammed into the local Arena on Friday night to witness the eighth region's hockey finals between the Roseau Rams and the defending champion Prowlers, are agreed that that contest, which was forced into 14:54 of overtime before it was decided, was the greatest that had been played in the eleven years that the region has conducted hockey tournaments.

The only thing unfortunate about the game was that it was played here, in the local rink with its extremely limited crowd capacity. That game, if it had been played at Roseau, would have drawn a crowd of 2500.

But to get back to the game. The finals wasn't so much of an offensive exhibition for the score, after the overtime, was 2 to 1 for Roseau, but it was clean and basic hockey. The back-checking of the wings was superb, and the clearing in front of the defensive nets by the blue-liners was topflight.

Ice conditions were greatly improved over the slush ice that prevailed on Thursday evening's semi-finals, and as a result the passing of the Rams and the Prowlers was of a high caliber, but because of the fore-checking and back-checking, the scoring sorties were usually broken up before they could be triggered in front of the goal.

The tournament officials and we believe they are correct in their reasoning didn't pick an official all-region team, but we can "go out on a limb" and name the players that we thought were outstanding. Roseau's center, Jack Delmore, wing Dick Johnson, and defenseman John Larson, the Prowlers speedy center Joey Poole, the tournament's star, and wing Sid Vraa and defenseman Brad Teal; Warroad's wing Bill Christian and center Roger Christian; and Williams' wing Bruce Gillie and defenseman Duane Thompson. The four goalies that appeared in the tourney—Roseau's Jack Almquist, Prowlers' Rod Collins, Warroad's Cecil Anderson and Williams' Creston Peterson—all had their moments of greatness, and it would be unfair to name one goalie as the region's best.

Good Luck, Joey

This week, starting with Thursday night's state tournament first-round game against Minneapolis South in the St. Paul Auditorium, Joey Poole will be making his final appearance in a Prowler hockey uniform.

Joey has been a great one, and it is a fact that Prowler hockey in particular, and high school hockey in general, has become a finer sport because of his presence on the ice. It is a matter of official record that Joey is an all-state hockey player; and it is a matter of unofficial record that, as a boy, Joey rates as an all-American. For those records, Joey, his parents, Elmer and Ella, can take much pride.

During all the years that Joey has been a Prowler, he has carried his hockey greatness with becoming modesty, reflecting credit to himself, to his coach, and to his parents. As he packs up his skates and moves on to other rinks and other honors, as he undoubtedly will, Joey has our best wishes.

A Lively Corpse

Last week, following the 12 to 4 loss to International Falls, we were ready to bury Cliff Thompson's Eveleth Golden Bears. That "death" and "burial" was bit too optimistic for this week the Golden Bears, by reason of their 4 to 0 seventh regional finals win over this same International Falls team, are in the state high school hockey tournament for the 11th time. That's par for attendance at the tourney that was started in 1945.

And the probabilities are that the Golden Bears will reach the finals of the state tournament, for Cliff Thompson's young team (Jerry Norman one of his standout performers is a 10th grader, and Gus Hendrickson, another promising youngster, is a 9th grader) is in the upper bracket of the tourney pairings. Eveleth will play Minneapolis Southwest in a first-round game on Thursday afternoon, and if successful in beating the Twin City runner-ups, the Golden Bears will meet the winner of the Edina vs. South St. Paul first-round game.

Meanwhile the lower bracket, with the state's top-ranked teams — Roseau, Thief River Falls, Minneapolis South, and St. Paul Johnson—will be engaged in a dog-eat-dog series to reach the finals.

It figures that the Golden Bears could win the state championship, meeting a pretty well-spent opponent in the finals on Saturday night.

Second Game of Playoffs Tentatively Set for TRF

NORTHWEST HOCKEY LEAGUE

T. R. Falls	[illegible]	7	3	15

Results of the week's games:

Warroad, 7, at T. R. Falls, 8.

Roseau, 3, at Crookston, 10.

The Northwest hockey league concluded its 1954-55 season's schedule last Wednesday night and the Roseau Cloverleafs, although losing to the Crookston Pirates, 10 to 3, won the league title, holding a one-point advantage over the runner-up Warroad Lakers. The Lakers, with an opportunity to win or tie for the championship, by defeating the Thieves, dropped an 8 to 7 decision to the locals.

This week the league playoffs, for the Eddie Holland memorial trophy, will enter the second game of the best-of-three series between Roseau, Crookston, Warroad and Thief River Falls.

In a first round game played at Roseau on Saturday night, the Cloverleafs, by a 6 to 2 score, defeated the Crookston Pirates.

The Thieves had been slated to meet the Warroad Lakers at Warroad on Sunday afternoon, but the blizzard forced postponement of that tilt. According to present plans, following Tuesday night's game at the Warroad, the Lakers and the Thieves are tentatively billed to play the second game of the series at Thief River Falls on Sunday afternoon.

Thieves Take Warroad 8-7 in Arena Here

Locals Clinch 3d Place, and Are Now Competing in the League Playoffs

Larry Winder's goal, after being "set up" by Hy Beatty, scored into the north net at 18:58 of the third period gave the Thieves an 8 to 7 win over the Warroad Lakers at the Arena rink last Wednesday night in the final game of the 1954-55 league schedule.

By their victory, the Thieves clinched third place in the league standings and this week will begin participation in the four-team league playoffs for the Eddie Holland trophy.

The high scoring game here on Wednesday was featured by the four-goal performance of Warroad's Frank Campbell. The Laker "workhorse," who played full-time, alternating at defense and center, scored one goal in the first period and three times in the third period, and in addition he was credited with three assists.

With the score 4 to 3 for Thief River Falls opening the third period, Campbell, on a pair of unassisted goals, moved into the lead in the opening minutes of the final period. Bud Brossoit, on an assist by Paul Bedard evened the score at 6:24; but Campbell, on his fourth goal of the night, again gave the Lakers the lead, 6 to 5. Sheldon Bloomer's tally at 10:26, and Swede Lund's goal at 13:04 erased that lead and gave the locals a 7 to 6 advantage. Eddie Miller, the Baudette high school coach who plays with the Lakers as an "import," scored at 18:16, to set the stage for Winder's tie-breaking and game-winning goal.

Jack Hoppe, in the nets for the Thieves, turned in first-rate performance, with the former Prowler all-state goalie kicking out 31 on-goal shots.

Stockpile of Dairy Items Being Reduced 'U' M. Man Reports

If the government can continue to whittle its stockpile of dairy products in the months ahead, dairy markets should show some seasonal improvement next fall, a University of Minnesota authority said Friday.

Speaking at the bankers agricultural credit conference on the farm campus in St. Paul, E. Fred Koller, professor of agricultural economics, said there are encouraging signs that this may happen.

Koller noted that government purchases of butter, cheese and dry milk powder combined during January were only 40 per cent of the figure reached during the same month in 1953.

"This is real progress," he said.

It is a continuation of progress made in the closing months of 1954 when increased domestic consumption and disposal programs reduced government stocks of butter to 294 million pounds, cheese to 325 million pounds and powder to 90 million pounds.

These figures, he said, compare with peak butter holdings in July of 467 million pounds, peak cheese holdings of 436 million pounds in September, and peak powder holdings of 600 million pounds in April.

Koller noted that milk production in the nation was held to the 1953 level last fall and that dairy cow numbers were down 1 per cent on Jan. 1. But he said the largest adjustment to lower price supports has occurred in consumption.

Thanks to lower prices and increased sales efforts by the industry, consumption of milk in all forms reached 697 pounds per capita last year, a rise of 2 per cent.

Koller said movement of milk to city markets is being impeded in varying degrees by "legal and economic barriers" such as sanitary codes, health ordinances, state milk control laws and federal market orders.

"Various studies are being made of these barriers but no easy solutions appear in sight," he said. "Deeply entrenched local interest groups are involved."

Farm Forum Opens in Minneapolis Thursday, Mar. 3

Representatives of Farm Bureau, Farmers Union and Grange Will Speak

Panels made up of local agricultural experts will question all of the speakers appearing during the ninth annual Farm Forum March 3 and 4, according to Ron Kennedy, Forum associate chairman and executive secretary of the Minneapolis Grain Exchange.

"This is a new feature," commented Kennedy, "and we think it will give farm people attending the Forum an opportunity to hear what the speakers think about agricultural problems in our Upper Midwest area."

The entire March 3 afternoon session will be devoted to a panel discussion moderated by Dean McNeal, vice president of Pillsbury Mills, Inc. On the panel with him will be James Morton, Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation; Richard Johansen, Farmers Union Grain Terminal Assn.; William B. Pearson, State Grange of Minnesota; Frank Mitchell, Minnesota Crop Improvement Assn.; and Edwin Christianson, Minnesota Farmers Union.

Theme for March 3 will be the "Role of Government in Agriculture" and McNeal's panel will have the opportunity of quizzing Charles B. Shuman, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation; Earl L. Butz, assistant secretary, United States Department of Agriculture; and James G. Patton, president, National Farmers Union, on their opinions of "The Role of Government in Agriculture."

Two panel discussions have been scheduled for March 4 Theme for that day will be "Farm Prospects in the Year Ahead."

The forum is sponsored annually by the Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce to bring a thorough, objective and open discussion of broad problems related to the agriculture, industry and labor of this area. It is nonpartisan, impartial and objective, and provides opportunity for expression of points of view and exchange of ideas by all who attend.

Both Jobless and Employment Rise

Unemployment Payments Rise 45 Pct. in January

New unemployment in Minnesota in January, a little higher than it was for the comparable month of last year when unemployment compensation benefit payments reached record highs, demonstrates, more than anything else, the extent to which the state's economy is failing to provide new jobs, in proportion to the continuing increase in the state's labor force.

This conclusion was reached last week by Commissioner F. W. Nichols, of the department of employment security, after an analysis of unemployment compensation payment trends during the initial month of this year.

In January, 26,541 new claims for job insurance were filed. That number is 1.4 per cent more than in 1954 and 14.2 per cent more than in 1950. During intervening years, the figure for January has been from 31 per cent to 12 per cent below 1955.

In announcing the January new claims figure, Nichols pointed out that while unemployment has increased, nonfarm employment for the comparable month has been reasonably stable since 1953 and that it is now 10.8 per cent above 1950.

During January, 823,500 persons not on farms were at work. In January of 1950, the number was 743,530.

The 1955 trend has not developed sufficiently to justify a forecast as to what will happen in March and April, Nichols said. But as of now, the number of persons receiving unemployment compensation benefits—41,744—is 37 per cent higher than last year and 18.5 per cent more than in 1950.

The department last month paid out $2,998,476, which sum is 45 per cent above last year and 31 per cent over five years ago.

Lower House Passes Butter Grading Bill

The Minnesota House of Representatives Thursday passed a bill requiring that all butter offered for sale in the state be graded and labeled.

The grades specified in the measure, which now goes to the Senate, are AA—93 score, A—92 score, B—90 score, and undergrade. Violation would be punishable by a fine up to $100 or up to 90 days in jail.

Sponsors of the bill said it would enable housewives to know what they buy and would prevent the state from becoming a dumping ground for poor butter from outside the state.

Also approved and sent to the Senate was a resolution calling upon the President, Congress and the secretary of agriculture to see that men and women in the armed forces are served butter and that use of substitutes is discontinued.

The day brought these other developments:

Approval by the Senate Judiciary Committee of a bill to put to a vote at the next general election the question of calling a convention to revise the state constitution.

Defeat by the House Election Committee of a bill for an amendment to permit 18-year-olds to vote.

Approval by the House Education Committee of a bill for state aid for junior colleges. The committee cut the proposed appropriation from $225,000 to $175,000.

Disclosure by Gov. Freeman that he would be ready to lay his proposals for governmental reorganization before the Legislature on Feb. 25. He will outline a plan for regrouping state departments and agencies to achieve greater efficiency and economy.

The Senate Education Committee held its first hearing on a bill to permit school districts to "associate" without reorganizing, to establish high schools. Members of the Friends of the Minnesota Schools told the committee they wished to be able to join with other districts for high school purposes without surrendering their autonomy as elementary school districts.

State Seeks Bids on Highway Jobs to Cost $3,500,000

Bids on 12 trunk highway construction projects, on which low proposals are expected to total approximately $3,500,000, will be received March 11 by State Highway Commissioner M. J. Hoffmann. Improvements to more than 120 miles of trunk roads, in addition to a bridge and a set of traffic control signals, are included in the proposed work.

Three of the projects call for bids on grading and concrete paving a total of 24⅛ miles, with the work on T.H. 169 between Jordan and a point 1½ miles southwest of Belle Plaine consisting of grading and paving on new four-lane divided roadway.

Other improvements include 32.7 miles of plant-mixed bituminous surfacing, 28 miles of gravel base and road-mixed bituminous surfacing, 27.6 miles of gravel base and road-mixed bituminous base, five miles of grading and 2.8 miles of gravel base and plant-mixed bituminous surfacing.

PROVIDING STANDBY POWER

A committee named by the council to study the city's power problem has reported back with the specific recommendation that whatever additional steps that may be needed to secure Missouri river power should be taken. The first step was taken by the council when formal application for this power was made.

When it becomes available the Missouri river power will be delivered to us over REA lines. These lines are already built up to our city limits and the city will have to build out to these lines to make the necessary connection.

Until the Missouri river power becomes available the city can buy a standby service from REA at a price that will compare favorably with what it will cost to provide such a reserve service by buying more diesel engines. This is a possibility that should be more thoroughly explored. Because it will be necessary for the city to build out to the REA lines in order to secure Missouri river power such a connection to secure a standby service at once would not be a wasted investment.

CLOSING POST OFFICES

Announcement by the Post Office department that it is going to close more small postoffices has already started a reaction of congressional criticism. Over a period of years however such announcements have been made with some regularity. Looking back over the old maps of this area it is easy to spot dozens of dots that once were post offices. Rural free delivery made most of them unnecessary.

Now in later years, with better roads and automobiles, rural routes are being extended and this has accounted for some of the most recent mortality. For the generations that used them those old post offices had a sentimental value. For the present generation improved service is more important.

TRUST FUND LOANS

Proposals to liberalize loans of state trust monies to provide adequate borrowing power for distressed communities should be given cautious consideration. Reasonable restrictions on debt limit should not be waived merely because the limits serve as barriers to borrowing. That is their purpose and experience proves that generally it is a good purpose.

This problem of providing for necessary financing in districts of questionable credit should be approached as an emergency need. In some instances there may be justification of outright grants of aid as a solution to these problems. Better we give away a few millions under emergency conditions, and know we are giving it away, than encourage unwise financing by passing a law that would lower reasonable restrictions on public borrowing.

Thirty years ago some well-meaning officials were saving agriculture in our state by using the state's credit to finance farm loans. As it turned out most of the farmers to whom the loans were made would have been better off if the credit had not been available. And with quite a balance of the old Rural Credit loss still to be paid there is general agreement that it was an unfortunate venture from the standpoint of the taxpayers.

Our trust funds deserve special consideration for the safety of any loans that are made. This is not our money. All we have is the right to use this money and retain what it earns, with the strict limitation that the total must be preserved and passed along undiminished for the benefit of future generations. The state's trust funds should not be mentioned in terms of emergencies or relief.

IRON INDUSTRY TAXES

Governor Freeman's proposal to substantially increase Minnesota's tax on iron ore is not meeting with a favorable response in the legislature. This is understandable. An interim committee, following an extensive study of the problems of the Iron Range communities, stated that no big increase in this particular tax can be justified at this time. The fact that this committee was representative of both the liberal and conservative groups in the legislature, and the recommendation was the unanimous opinion of the members, makes it certain that the proposal will have active opposition within the ranks of both groups.

Another factor that strengthens the opposition to this proposal is the changed attitude toward this special state tax in recent years among the residents of the Iron Range. To these people the taxes that support their local units of government are the most important and these taxes are also paid largely by the mining industry. They know that with the combination of the regular local and the special state taxes the industry is heavily taxed. As they see it, if any tax is to be increased it should be the one that maintains their local government.

The industry has indicated clearly that it does not object to being assessed a fair share of any tax increases that may become necessary. It will fight vigorously however in opposition to any tax program in which it is singled out as the special whipping boy. And most of us probably will agree that an industry that now is in the process of investing a billion dollars in our state probably should be given the benefit of the doubt in any question of this kind if there is a question. Any organization that is willing to build a new billion dollar manufacturing industry in our state should be made to feel that it is welcome.

GROWING WITH YOUR CHILD

Children's Needs are Different

Of course parents know that children in the same family are different. It is more common, however, to recognize differences in personality, skills or intelligence than in the emotional needs of children.

The mother of Cathy, seven, and Susan, three and a half, is quite typical. She observes that Cathy is outgoing and vivacious, while Susan is more quiet. Susan draws better than Cathy did at her age, and Cathy began to talk earlier than Susan. When Cathy was three and a half her mother enrolled her in an all-day nursery school. Since Cathy enjoyed school, her mother was pleased with the way she learned to get along with other children. Now that Susan is three and a half her mother has enrolled her in the same nursery school.

But Susan is different. Her three weeks at nursery school have been an ordeal for her, her parents and her teachers. At school she rebels against the routines. She frequently refuses to eat or nap without much special attention. At home, since she entered nursery school she often cries. She has begun to wet her bed after almost a year. Susan's mother wanted her to have the same experience as Cathy, and has become tense and irritable over her behavior.

Why should Susan be having such difficulties? It is often baffling to know just why. Her behavior indicates that she is not ready for nursery school. She needs help toward gradually attaining emotional independence. Perhaps nursery school should be postponed for the present. Planning short periods in the nursery school and a variety of other kinds of social experiences may help. The solution for Susan must be found through understanding her and not by comparing her with Cathy. Treating children in the same way is no guarantee that the same behavior will follow.

Some gals walk home from rides, and others ride home from walks.

How Much Should Flax Yield?

What sort of flax yields should we expect here in Thief River Falls area? 20 bushels per acre? 25? 30?

California farmers often harvest over 35 bushels of flax per acre. Since these yields are obtained on irrigated land, they are higher than we could expect to grow here, but it gives an idea of what flax varieties are capable of doing.

With growing conditions more like we have here, farmers in England, Sweden and Denmark average around 18 bushels per acre on non-irrigated land . . . land that's been farmed intensively for more than a thousand years. They do it by careful farming.

Here in Minnesota, long-time government statistics show that the average flax yield is about 10-12 bushels per acre . . . good enough to make it a highly profitable crop, but far below the 20 bushel yields so frequently obtained by our experiment stations.

Practical farm tests show that present yields can be greatly increased, even doubled in many cases. It's done simply by the modern crop-production methods, rotations, and soil management recommended by county agents, extension farm specialists, and farmers using sound soil conservation practices.

How to boost flax yields

Here are some practices that help: plow under alfalfa-grass stands after 1 or 2 years, keep all row crops clean, work grain stubble soon after harvest to control weeds, save soil and moisture by contouring, sow high yielding disease-resistant flax varieties, treat seed with Ceresan or Panogen, sow early in firm seedbed, and use chemical weed killers when necessary.

These and other yield-boosting practices are described in detail in a 20-page bulletin prepared by the Flax Development Committee, 700 Baker Building, Minneapolis 2, Minnesota. Write for free copy and aim for 20 bushel yields.

The beautiful Bel Air Sport Coupe with Body by Fisher

It's highway robbery!

For sheer fun out on the road, Chevrolet's stealing the thunder from the high-priced cars!

Up to this year, maybe there were reasons for wanting one of the higher-priced cars. If you demanded something really special in the way of driving fun, you simply had to pay a premium to get it.

Not any more! The Motoramic Chevrolet has changed all that. Who could wish for more excitement than the new 162-h.p. "Turbo-Fire V8" delivers? (For those who do, 180-h.p. is optional at extra cost in all V8 models.) Chevrolet also offers the two highest powered sixes in its field.

Come in and see how the Motoramic Chevrolet is stealing the thunder from the high-priced cars!
